

SRC BULLETIN

From your SRC

We would like to again thank all those who have handed in their donations for the semester, and humbly ask those who have not yet done so, to please do so this week. Again, envelopes are available in class as well as in the common room.

We would also like to remind you all about the arrangement of the Common Room. As many returning students will be aware, last year we split the common room between ELSPM (English Language School for Pastoral Ministry) and us YTU Students. We therefore would like to remind everyone that during breaks, the ELSPM students use the tea/coffee/biscuits table on the left side of the common room, while the YTU students are asked to please use the tea/coffee/biscuits table of the right side of the common room. This also applies to the fridges, the YTU students are asked to only use the fridge on the right hand side of the sink, while the ELSPM students use the fridge next to their table.

Hospitality Week

Welcome to Hospitality week! As many of you will know, this week is dedicated to embracing and sharing in the unity and fellowship that is present at YTU in a different way! Throughout this week, we will be attempting to hold breaks during classes at the same time in order that we might be able to gather together and share food and laughter! So with this in mind, we ask that the morning classes break at 10:35am, and the evening classes break at 7:30pm for half an hour. We ask that, if possible, you each bring a plate of food to share during this break.

YTU Items For Sale

As you will see this week, we are selling two YTU items. These will be available in the Common Room on the YTU table. We are selling YTU Coffee Cups (perfect for taking into classes during the cold weather!) for $5 as well as YTU polos (limited supply, so get in quick!) for $25. For the coffee cups, we will be using an honesty policy whereby you can either hand $5 to an SRC member or put it in an envelope and leave it with reception (under their door if no one's in). For the polos, please speak to one of the SRC members if you are interested (there will be a list of available sizes in the common room).

Weekly Eucharist

We would like to thank Joe Mackay OFM for celebrating the Eucharist for us on Tuesday last week, by all accounts he did a beautiful job! This week Bruce Duncan CSsR will be celebrating the Eucharist. Tuesday, 12:40pm in the common room, all are welcome!

Book Sale

You may notice a bookshelf or two being set up in or close to the common room over the coming weeks. We have decided to have a book sale throughout the year with all of the books that YTU no longer needs! We are asking for a gold coin donation per book, as a minimum, and this will be done through a money tin on one of the shelves, again, utilising an honesty system. All of the money raised will go towards funding some of the projects that the SRC has planned for the year!

Quote of the Week

“We are not here to guard a museum, we are here to cultivate a flourishing garden of life.” – Pope John XXIII
