

SRC BULLETIN

From your SRC

Classes are away again! Welcome back to YTU after our non-instructional period. We at the SRC hope that all of you, both faculty and students, had a wonderful Easter! More importantly, however, we hope that the essays are beginning to flow smoothly and that the remaining 8 weeks of classes prove to be challenging and exciting!

Prayers

As some of you may know our beloved Old Testament lecturer, Mark O'Brien OP, had a cycling accident before the non-instructional period and was in hospital for some time. He is making a good recovery and, true to style, will be returning for lectures this week! Please keep him in your prayers as he continues to recover.

YTU Items For Sale

As was mentioned in last week's Newsletter, and as you may have noticed in the common room, we have put out YTU Coffee Cups for $5. Please feel free to take one and leave $5 with an SRC member or in an envelope with admin.

Weekly Eucharist

Our thanks to Bruce Duncan CSsR for celebrating the Eucharist before the break, as per usual all are welcome to attend the Eucharistic Celebration on Tuesday at 12:40pm in the common room.

Book Sale

You may see signs around YTU advertising our Book Sale! Upon entering the Study Centre, the first thing you will see is a large amount of books spread across a few tables. Please feel free to look through these books and if you wish to purchase any, simply leave a gold coin donation in the tin provided, or with an SRC member! This sale will come to an end at the end of the semester, so please feel free to access the Study Centre Monday-Friday, 9:30am – 4:30pm.

Inaugural Eucharist

We would like to thank all who attended that Inaugural Eucharist before the non-instructional period. It was a wonderful night full of joy and love! Special thanks goes out to Mgr Greg Bennett, who not only celebrated the Eucharist in a very touching way, but also gave a wonderful homily. We also thank all those who helped in various different ways to make it a very special night.

Quote of the Week

“The Church must discover the power of silence. Confronted with the sorrows, doubts and uncertainties of people she cannot pretend to give easy solutions. In Jesus, silence becomes the way of attentive listening, compassion and prayer. It is the way to truth.” – Cardinal Luis Antonio Tagle
