Founded by an Act of the Victorian State Parliament on December 17, 1910, University of Divinity is the oldest ecumenical institution in the world offering academic degrees and awards in theology and divinity. At its founding as Melbourne College of Divinity (MCD), the college represented the Church of England, the Baptist, Congregational, Methodist, and Presbyterian churches, and by co-optation the Churches of Christ. It was later enlarged to include the Roman Catholic Church and the Salvation Army. From 1993 to 2011 MCD, while retaining its autonomy and degree conferring status, was affiliated with the University of Melbourne; academic programs are also available in conjunction with Monash University. At the beginning of 2012 the Melbourne College of Divinity was inaugurated as the first university of specialisation in Australia as MCD University of Divinity. Since 2014 it has been called simply University of Divinity.

Today University of Divinity includes nine denominational Colleges representing the Anglican, Baptist, Churches of Christ, Lutheran, Roman Catholic and Uniting churches, and the Salvation Army, and has one specialist institute, Sentir Graduate College of Spiritual Formation, and one research-only college (Morling College). By its very nature University of Divinity is fundamentally committed to ecumenical co-operation in theological education. Each College of the University, while encouraged to be true to its own heritage and commitments, is enriched by membership in a theologically diverse community of scholars and scholarship. Students, faculty, alumni and friends of the University are proud participants in a collaborative effort that seeks to achieve collectively what member institutions could not accomplish individually.

STATEMENT OF RIGHTS, RESPONSIBILITIES, AND CONDUCT OF MEMBERS OF THE UNIVERSITY

1. All members of the University must adhere to the highest standards of academic learning, integrity, fairness and honesty. All forms of cheating, plagiarism, or other academic fraud are strictly forbidden.

2. All members of the University are entitled to be treated fairly in all academic and administrative matters. All members of the University are entitled to appeal a decision made by the University or its Colleges or to seek resolution of a grievance in accordance with University policies without disadvantage. No decision of the University in regard to academic or administrative matters may discriminate against a member of the University or an applicant for admission to the University on the grounds of age, gender, marital status, sexual orientation, religion, colour, race, ethnicity or country of origin.

3. All members of the University have the right to be safe and to feel safe in University and College environments. Bullying or harassment in any form - spiritual, sexual, or discriminatory - is wrong and not permitted.

4. Academic staff and examiners are to grade all assessment in a timely manner and without regard to any personal knowledge of, or relationship with, any student or group of students.

5. Students are expected to participate actively in all classes and to have consideration for staff and other students and their learning.

6. Students are expected to comply with reasonable and lawful directions from University and College staff.

7. Students must not behave in a way that disrupts or interferes with any teaching or academic activity of the University.

8. All officers of the University undertake to treat personal information given to the University or its Colleges in confidence and to use it only for the purpose for which it was given. Personal information may only be accessed by people or agencies entitled to do so.

9. Each student who has been admitted to a University award is assured that educational and financial resources are in place to ensure the award may be completed. In the highly unlikely event that the University cannot deliver a course for which a student has paid fees, these will be refunded, or a place at another higher education provider arranged by the University.

Yarra Theological Union (YTU) was originally founded in 1971 by the Carmelites, the Franciscans, the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart and the Passionists. Over the years other orders joined: the Redemptorists (Australian and New Zealand Provinces), Pallottines, Dominicans, Divine Word Missionaries, the Discalced Carmelites and the Blessed Sacrament Congregation. Graced by the generosity of the Franciscan Friars YTU is located at St. Paschal Friary.

On 18th January 1973, YTU was granted formal recognition as an institute of priestly formation by the then Archbishop of Melbourne, James Cardinal Knox. In September 1973, YTU, together with the Catholic Theological College in Clayton and the United Faculty of Theology in Parkville, was approved by University of Divinity (then MCD) as a College with the right to teach for the degree of Bachelor of Theology. This was extended to approving the right to teach towards the postgraduate degrees of Master of Theology and Doctor of Theology in 1975.

Over recent years YTU, together with the other college members of University of Divinity (UD), has extended its teaching program to provide postgraduate units for candidates for the degrees of Master of Theological Studies and, from 2000, Graduate Diploma in Theology, Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy.
VISION STATEMENT

Yarra Theological Union is a Catholic centre for theological education and ministerial formation, Catholic in tradition and ecumenical in spirit, and so we see ourselves as a key resource for the churches' mission in Australia, our neighbouring countries and beyond.

MISSION STATEMENT

1. We are an independent centre for theological teaching, research and scholarship offering a number of undergraduate and postgraduate awards as a college of University of Divinity.

2. We are shaped by the apostolic energy, spirituality and traditions of the constituent religious orders, and enriched by the continuing generosity of those who take an active part in the life of our centre.

3. We are at the service of the Church, and exercise this service in cooperation with a number of Colleges with whom we are affiliated through University of Divinity.

4. We are governed by a Council composed of representatives of the current constituent orders and the President and Academic Dean of YTU.

5. We aim for excellence in theological education and ministerial formation in a dialogical, ecumenical and multicultural context.

6. We have faculty and students from different denominational traditions, and our awards are open to male and female students both lay and professed.

7. We are a hospitable, Eucharistic community welcoming those who seek, not only education, but personal and spiritual transformation.

8. We are also a centre for comment and dialogue with the wider society on those matters which fall within our competence.

VALUE STATEMENT

Our Core Values are:

1. Service to church and world.
2. Faithfulness in interpreting the Catholic Tradition.
3. Dialogue and collaboration.
4. Inclusive hospitality to persons and traditions.
5. Commitment to being a community of scholarship, prayer and pastoral care.

ENROLMENTS

ALL STUDENTS NEED TO ENROL PERSONALLY BY APPOINTMENT
through the YTU Office – Phone  9890 3771

All Coursework Students (except GCTRE students) need to make an appointment to see the Academic Dean.
GCTRE Students and Higher Degree by Research students need to make an appointment to see Associate Professor Michael Kelly.

Coursework student’s enrolment dates:
• Monday 30 November – Friday 18 December 2015
• Monday 18 January – Tuesday 09 February 2016
• Monday 6 June – Friday 24 June 2016
• Monday 28 November 2016– Friday 16 December 2016 for Enrolments For the 2017 year

Higher Degrees by Research Enrolment Dates
• 15 November 2015: Applications for (domestic) HDR admissions, first semester 2016
• 15 November 2015: Applications for (international) HDR admissions, second semester 2016
• 15 April 2016: Applications for (domestic) HDR admissions, second semester 2016
• 15 April 2016: Applications for (international) HDR admissions, first semester 2017
• 15 November 2016: Applications for (domestic) HDR admissions, first semester 2017
• 15 November 2016: Applications for (international) HDR admissions, second semester 2017

It is also possible to make appointments for Saturday morning and after normal business hours.

NEW Students need to bring the following to the interview:
• Academic Transcripts (VCE Certificate or equivalent and other tertiary transcripts). If the transcript is a copy it needs to be certified.
• Proof of Australian Citizenship (Current passport OR Birth Certificate and name-change documents)
• Tax File Number (If applying for FEE-HELP)
• Cash, cheque, B pay or credit card if paying fees upfront rather than FEE-HELP

ALL Students need to bring TWO current passport-size photographs for your student card and a file copy.

ALL Students must enrol by the above dates.
Only in exceptional circumstances would a student be permitted to enrol in a unit after the first lecture in that unit.

The College reserves the right to alter or cancel unit offerings when circumstances warrant, especially if an insufficient number is enrolled.

YTU reserves the right to use its discretion in accepting applications for enrolment and re-enrolment
Students wishing to take units at other colleges must enrol through the Academic Dean of YTU.

Any change in enrolment must be authorised, in writing, by the Academic Dean or Postgraduate Coordinator of YTU. These changes must occur BEFORE the Census Date in each semester (normally, three weeks into the semester).

Cost for Copies of Certified Academic Transcript & AHEGS (all awards)

- Academic Transcripts PRIOR to 1978 (3 Copies) - $100
- Academic Transcripts 1978 onwards (3 Copies) - $50
- AHEGS (1 copy) - $30

No extra fees apply – library/borrowing fees are included.

No refund of fees applies after the stated Census Dates for 2016: 15 March for first semester and 16 August for second semester.

Fees for not for credit units and audit units are invoiced by YTU after enrolment and payable by census date.

Fees for Undergraduate and Postgraduate Courses are paid directly to University of Divinity (UD) which will issue an itemised invoice when the enrolment is processed. When a student applies for FEE-HELP at enrolment, the fees owing will be paid by the government through the UD office.

UD regulations require accounts to be paid in full before results are released or the next semester’s enrolment is confirmed.

Student Representative Council

Email address: src@ytu.edu.au

The SRC of YTU provides tea and coffee facilities in the Common Room during semester. No fee is payable for this service. However, the SRC does ask that students make a voluntary donation of at least $10 per semester to the SRC funds to cover this cost.

Bursaries for Tuition

Fees for all UD awards are set by UD, and must be equal across each student group, to accord with recent Commonwealth legislation. This has led to a rise in undergraduate fees. To assist students, a UD Bursary Fund has been established. It has limited funds available, but further donations are being sought (these are tax deductible). The criteria to be used when allocating bursaries include sources of support available to students and each student’s progress thus far, as well as a student’s need for tuition fee support. Applications are treated in strict confidence.

To apply for assistance, submit a completed application form to the Academic Dean. (Application forms are available from the Registrar.)

Fee reductions can also be negotiated in cases of need or hardship. Application forms are available from the Registrar.
Students in any University of Divinity course who are Australian citizens, or hold a permanent humanitarian visa, can have their tuition fees met by a loan from the Commonwealth Government. The scheme – brought in under the Higher Education Support Act (HESA, 2003) – is called the Higher Education Loan Program: FEE–HELP for short.

NB: All students who accessed PELS (Postgraduate Education Loans Scheme) in 2004 are also eligible for FEE–HELP, even if they are not Australian citizens.

To apply for a FEE–HELP loan, you must fill in the Government form at the time of enrolment and give it to the Academic Dean or Postgraduate Coordinator. These forms must be processed by YTU and sent to the Office of the Vice-Chancellor before the stated Census Dates (Semester One: 15th March 2016, Semester Two: 16th August 2016). Forms and FEE–HELP information are available from the YTU office. Your fees will be paid to the Office of the Vice-Chancellor by the Commonwealth Government, and YTU will receive payment for your classes and library use.

Before you apply for a loan, please note carefully, the following:

a) For undergraduate courses (BTheol, AdvDipMin, DipMin) the Government adds a 25% loan fee to your tax liability (e.g., a unit costing $1386 will incur a tax liability of $1732.50 per unit). For postgraduate courses (GradCert, GradDips, Masters, Doctorates) only the amount borrowed is subject to repayment. Only take out a loan for complete units for which you are enrolled (e.g., request a loan for one, two or three units but not fractions).

b) You must have a Tax File Number to apply for a FEE–HELP loan.

c) Your loan is repaid through the tax system. When your income reaches $54,126 (in 2016 Australian dollars, indexed upward each June) you pay a proportion back with your tax. The higher your income, the higher the repayment proportion, starting at 4.0%. If you make a voluntary repayment of $500 or more, you will receive a bonus of 5%. This means your account will be credited with an additional 5% of the value of your payment. The bonus is 5% of the payment amount, not 5% of the total debt. Voluntary repayments are in addition to the compulsory repayments made through your tax return. Your FEE–HELP tax liability goes up by CPI on 1st June each year. If someone with a FEE–HELP debt dies, only the repayment due in that tax year is billed; the rest is cancelled.

d) The Government requires that, before you sign the FEE–HELP form, you must read the FEE–HELP Information booklet so that you are aware of your obligations under the scheme. If you participate in FEE–HELP, your details will be listed in DEEWR’S Higher Education Information Management System (HEIMS), and you will receive a Commonwealth Higher Education Student Support Number (CHESSN), which remains unique to you for life.
The administration at the University and YTU offices take your right to privacy seriously, and only use information you provide for the purpose for which you give it to us. The second page of the FEE–HELP form includes your Tax File Number, which will be seen by only two people in the Office of the Vice-Chancellor: your college office will keep a copy of the first page, which does not include your TFN.

For further information:
- Read the FEE–HELP Information Booklet
- Visit the Study assist website at: www.studyassist.gov.au
- Call the FEE–HELP enquiry line on 1800 020 108.

THE YARRA INSTITUTE FOR RELIGION AND SOCIAL POLICY

Hosted in the Study Centre at Yarra Theological Union, the Yarra Institute for Religion and Social Policy is an ecumenical research organisation within University of Divinity. Launched in April 2009 by the Hon Brian Howe, it was an initiative of the advocacy group, Social Policy Connections, to draw on the deep wells of scholarship within the churches as they bear on current social issues.

Its current research projects are listed on its website at www.yarrainstitute.org.au. The director is Dr Bruce Duncan CSsR and Dr. John D'Arcy May is associate director. Its Board consists of Dr Stephen Ames (chair), Dr John Bottomley, Dr. John D'Arcy May, Dr Jim D'Orsa, Dr Therese D'Orsa, Dr Anne Elvey, Dr Rowan Ireland, Prof John McDowell and Dr Paul Rule.

Within Yarra Theological Union there are four individual libraries for the use of Faculty and enrolled students. They are the provincial libraries of some of the orders which constitute YTU.

St Paschal Library (Franciscan OFM)
This is the Library of the Franciscan Province of the Holy Spirit and is the main resource centre for Franciscan studies within Australia. Its comprehensive collection of Catholic theological material is also available to faculty and students from the University of Divinity. The collection of about 40,000 monographs and 150 journal titles is strong in patristic and medieval studies, ancient languages, contemporary theology and art history. In addition to the friars’ own library resources, St Paschal Library houses two additional collections: in 1988 the Missionaries of the Divine Word (SVD) placed their missiology collection (currently 3274 books) into St Paschal Library; and in 1995 the YTU library collection (currently 3578 books) was similarly integrated. Because one of the aims of these three organisations is the education of Catholic clergy and laity, this amalgamation of library resources enriches the collection for all users.

The Library Manager of Dorish Maru College and Redemptorist Libraries is Siobhan Foster BA, BTheol, DipLib. Siobhan can be contacted by email: fostersioihan@hotmail.com or Mobile: 0412 674 602.

For addresses and telephone numbers of the libraries, refer to page 13 of this Handbook under: YTU Member Colleges

University of Divinity library information can be found at http://www.divinity.edu.au/library/
The purpose of the SRC is to cooperate in and complement the objectives of YTU by representing and serving students enrolled there. It is represented on the Senate and Education Board by the President and Secretary, and in each Faculty Department by representatives from the student body.

The SRC is composed of a President, Secretary, and Treasurer elected from among the whole student body. This election takes place in the second semester, to take effect in the following year. There are elected representatives from the independent students and it is desirable that each member College has a representative, elected at the beginning of each year.

The student body, together with the Faculty, is responsible for organising and advertising events and activities throughout the year, of which the following are significant for 2016:

- February 19: Orientation Programme and BBQ
- March 7-11: Hospitality Week
- March 11: Inaugural Eucharistic Celebration and Supper
- August 19: SRC Evening
- November 18: End of Year Eucharist and Supper

The SRC also has responsibility for:

a) Encouraging students to actively participate as FIRE carrier ambassadors.
b) Organising the weekly Eucharists
c) Arranging and promoting the opening and closing Eucharists
d) Providing facilities for the students in the Common Room
e) Managing SRC finances
f) Organising social functions throughout the year
g) Upkeep of the Prayer Room
h) Supporting the work of the Chaplain
i) Managing the election of, and supporting and communicating with, the departmental representatives
j) Electing a representative to the OH&S committee
k) Creating a weekly student bulletin

STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES ON DEPARTMENTS
The election of the Student Representatives is managed by the SRC. These students represent their peers in Departments A&B, C or D, and will attend Department meetings. They are a voice for students on planning and decision making and may have further opportunities to attend other Boards or working groups. The SRC communicates with and supports the student representatives.

CHAPLAINCY
Email: chaplain@ytu.edu.au

The Chaplain’s room is situated in the Study Centre. The Chaplain is available for all at YTU and encourages those who wish to make a set time to meet, to call or email.
YOUR RIGHTS AS A UNIVERSITY OF DIVINITY STUDENT

As a student of the University of Divinity you have the rights and responsibilities outlined on page 8 of this Handbook. Please read them carefully. You risk suspension or exclusion if you contravene them.

You have the right to privacy.
The Yarra Theological Union supports and endorses the National Privacy Principles contained in the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000 and will comply with these principles whenever personal information is collected by us. In accordance with the National Privacy Principles

- YTU will only collect personal information from you with your prior knowledge and consent.
- YTU will only use personal information provided by you for the purposes for which it was collected.
- YTU will not disclose your personal information to a third party without your consent.
- YTU will not disclose your personal information to other institutions and authorities except if required by law or other regulation.
- YTU will remove personal information from its records when it is no longer required (except where archiving is required).
- YTU will have processes and policies to protect the personal information that it has under its control from:
  - unauthorised access,
  - improper use,
  - alteration,
  - unlawful or accidental destruction and accidental loss.

Because YTU students are enrolled in University of Divinity degree and diploma programs, a certain amount of information needs to be exchanged between the YTU office and the Office of the Vice Chancellor, and on occasions other colleges of the University.

You have the right to the highest standards of teaching and learning.
In order to protect the high academic standing of your degree or diploma, all forms of cheating, plagiarism or other academic fraud (including illegitimate use of internet resources) are strictly forbidden, and anyone found engaging in them faces serious consequences. To assist with this, you are required to state on each assignment that it is your own work.

You have the right to be treated fairly in all academic and administrative matters. If you feel this has not happened, you have rights under the appeals policy to lodge an appeal, or in some cases to lodge a grievance under the grievance policy. These policies, and the procedures which go with them, are available on the University website:
You have the right to be safe, and to feel safe, in the university’s environments. Harassment in any form – spiritual, sexual or discriminatory (e.g. on the grounds of race, gender, ethnicity, disability, theological outlook) – is wrong, and is not tolerated. There is provision for dealing confidentially, effectively, and justly with any harassment that may occur within YTU. If you wish to discuss a concern in relation to these matters please contact:

- YTU Academic Dean, Ross Fishburn (03) 9890 3771: ext 3
- YTU President, Chris Monaghan (03) 9890 3771: ext 2
- The Chaplain: to be advised
- Or a member of the SRC.

Any of these people will be able to refer you to an appropriate advisor or support person to assist you to explore and resolve your concern.

Finally, once you have commenced a degree or diploma with University of Divinity, you are assured that university educational and financial resources are in place to see you through to its completion. If the highly unlikely situation arises that the university cannot deliver a course for which you have paid fees, these will be refunded, or you can transfer to another provider, nominated for this purpose by the university.

All University of Divinity policies and procedures (including grievance issues) may be found at www.divinity.edu.au/university-of-divinity/our-governance/policies-and-procedures/ These include:

- Examinations & Assessment Policy
- Extensions & Special Consideration Policy
- Academic Misconduct Policy
- Appeals Policy
- Grievances Policy

Integrity Statement

In addition to the policies and procedures of University of Divinity, Yarra Theological Union is committed to the code of conduct “Integrity in Ministry”(2004) that outlines the principles and standards for Catholic Clergy and Religious in Australia and “Integrity in the Service of the Church”(2011) for Lay Workers in the Catholic Church in Australia.

For more information see www.catholicreligiousaustralia.org

DISABILITY

YTU acknowledges some classrooms currently offer no provision for people with disabilities. Students with disabilities are asked to make their particular needs known to the YTU Academic Dean or Postgraduate Coordinator either at their initial interview or at enrolment, so that every effort can be made to accommodate these needs.
1. STUDENTS FOR WHOM ENGLISH IS A SECOND LANGUAGE
   International Students pursuing Undergraduate or Postgraduate coursework Studies at University of Divinity need to have achieved an average International English Language Test Score (IELTS) of at least 6.5, with no band under 6.0.

   International students pursuing Postgraduate Research degrees need to have achieved an average International English Language Test Score (IELTS) of at least 7.0, with a minimum of 6.5 in each area. In the University’s central office, [the Office of the Vice Chancellor] overseas student matters are the responsibility of the Director of Quality and Standards and are administered by the Overseas Students Officer.

2. INTRODUCTION TO TERTIARY STUDIES IN THEOLOGY
   NN1000Y: Introduction to Tertiary Studies in Theology will be offered in 2016. This unit is offered for one and a half hours per week in both first and second semester, and is strongly recommended for students who have not previously done tertiary study. Normally students undertake the unit only for one semester. No fee is charged.

3. STUDY LOAD
   The workload of an undergraduate student shall be a maximum of four (4) units per semester. This is a BTheol regulation. Any exception to this requirement must be approved by the Academic Dean. As a guide to students and lecturers, YTU accepts a system of demand hours. One class hour is considered as requiring two hours of private study for undergraduate students and three hours of study for postgraduate students.

4. ATTENDANCE AT LECTURES AND TUTORIALS
   Students are expected to attend all lectures and tutorials, as set out in unit outlines. Students should advise the lecturer if they are unable to attend. Attendance at the first lecture is particularly important. An absence of more than 25% of lectures or tutorials in a unit is normally regarded as too great to sustain active engagement in that unit and may impact adversely on the student’s learning.

5. ASSESSMENT
   The University’s Learning & Teaching Committee advises the following regarding assessment:

   First Level: receipt of early feed-back via a piece of work not substantially counting towards assessment; assessment of more than one piece of work including a component under formal examination conditions; written work not in excess of 4,000 words.

   Second Level: written work requirement is 4,000-5,000 words.

   Third Level: written work requirement is 5,000-6,000 words.

   Postgraduate Level: written work requirement is 6000 words.
Each student will be assessed in the manner indicated in the particular unit outlines in this Handbook, and in accordance with UD regulations where appropriate.

Results are published according to the following grades for all UD degrees:

- High Distinction = 85% +
- Distinction = 75% – 84%
- Credit = 65% – 74%
- Pass = 50% – 64%
- Fail = 0% – 49%
- W = Withdrawal

Assessment Registration

In the first three weeks of the semester, students can withdraw from assessment without penalty. (No mark will appear on their record.)

Up to the end of the ninth teaching week in each semester, students can withdraw from assessment and they will be marked 'W' on their official transcript. Those who withdraw after this date will normally be marked 'F' (Fail).

Assignments

Assignments must be presented in the format prescribed in the Style guide on pages 172-179. They must be submitted by the date determined by the lecturer. The last day for assignments to be handed in is the last day of the examination session at the end of each semester. Any extension of time must be requested from the lecturer at least two days before the date on which the assignment is due. Extension beyond the final day of the examination period cannot be granted by the lecturer, but must be referred to the Academic Dean, and can only be granted on the basis of serious medical or pastoral grounds.

Students should keep a second copy of all assignments submitted. Students should keep copies of all written work for at least three months because all written materials that contribute toward assessment in degree units must be available for possible inspection by a second examiner outside YTU.

No assignments will be accepted by the office fax or email.
Extensions of time
A lecturer’s extension may be granted for up to two weeks within the semester, if application is made before the due date of the assignment, and on adequate grounds.

Any extension beyond the examination period must be approved by the Academic Dean. The extension is recorded as an “E” on the student's transcript. Other than in exceptional circumstances, as approved by the Academic Dean, students with this designation are required to complete the assigned requirements within 28 days of the conclusion of the examination period.

If a student has not sought an extension but still hands in a piece of work after the due date, and the lecturer accepts the late work, a penalty will be enforced as follows:

- Work submitted up to one week late without an official extension will normally have its recorded grade reduced by one level (e.g. Distinction to Credit), though such work passed by one examiner must have at least a Pass grade recorded.
- Work submitted later than one week but up to one month late without an official extension is normally awarded a Pass grade only, unless it fails to reach a Pass standard.
- For work submitted later than one month or on the last day of semester without an official extension, a Fail grade is normally recorded.

Examinations
Unmarked and unannotated copies of the Revised Standard Version (RSV) or the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) must be used for all examinations in Biblical Studies.

Students for whom English is a second language.
Students for whom English is a second language may take extra time for each written examination. In the first year of study, students are allowed fifty percent extra time. In subsequent years of study, students are allowed twenty five percent extra time. Such students may take a dictionary into the examination.

6. ARK: OUR LEARNING MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

In 2014, the University introduced a Learning Management System for use across all the Colleges of the University. The name given to the Learning Management System is ARK.

ARK is both a portal to access a variety of digital and online resources and the platform on which those resources reside. Every student is able to access the resources for the units in which they are enrolled through a password provided to them in conjunction with their enrolment. Most units will now provide the copies of tutorial readings, and other resources as well through ARK. Assignments and essays will be submitted for grading through ARK (and thereby through Turnitin, our plagiarism detection software).

Further details how to access and use ARK are available on the YTU website at www.ytu.edu.au
MAKING SURE WHAT YOU SUBMIT IS ACTUALLY YOUR OWN WORK

The online program Turnitin was introduced across the University in 2013. Primarily it is a tool to help both student and teacher be sure that what is in an essay is the student’s own work, and not copied from another source without referencing. It is thus both a teaching and learning tool and a tool for the detection of plagiarism. Students are required to submit their assignments through ARK, the university’s learning management system, which automatically submits your work through Turnitin. Each student is able to view an originality report upon submission showing those parts of their assignment taken from other sources. Where they see the need to acknowledge quotes or re-paraphrase, they have the opportunity to upload their assignment again up until the due date.

Full instructions concerning the lodgement of assignments via ARK & Turnitin are provided in the unit outline, and on the YTU website.

In the place of the official cover sheet students are required to include a title page to their assignments with their details of their assignments and their own details. The student’s name should also be included in the header (top left). Submission online constitutes agreement with the declaration of originality on the official cover sheet.
An extension form cannot be attached to your paper when you submit online via Turnitin.

Extension forms should be completed in the normal manner. Once signed by the lecturer or Dean, the original is given to the student and a copy will be held by the lecturer or Dean.

Plagiarism

An essay must be your own work and largely written in your own words. Plagiarism comes from the Latin plagiarus/kidnapper. Plagiarism is considered serious academic misconduct. No part of the work may be copied in whole or part from another student’s work, or from any other source (e.g., published books, periodicals or internet) without due acknowledgement of the source.
A student who is found to have sought to gain an unfair advantage by submitting for assessment a piece of written work which either in whole or in part makes unacknowledged use of, or reference to, the work of others, including Internet sources or by taking into an examination room unauthorised material, or by copying the work of another candidate in an examination, shall be liable to:
• failure of the unit for which the written work or examination was undertaken, or
• the loss of all marks for the written work or examination, or
• suspension of candidature for the degree.
UNDERGRADUATE ACADEMIC AWARDS

As one of the colleges of University of Divinity, YTU teaches the required units for a number of Undergraduate Awards:

- Diploma in Theology
- Advanced Diploma in Theology and Ministry
- Bachelor of Ministry
- Bachelor of Theology

For information on Postgraduate Awards see pages 89 onwards.

REGULATIONS
All of these awards are recognised by legislation of the Parliament of Victoria under terms of the Melbourne College of Divinity Act (1910). The detailed regulations of each award may be found on the university website: www.divinity.edu.au

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS
To enter the degree programs (B Theol, B Min etc) you must have qualified for admission to a Victorian University. Satisfactory completion of a Year 12 programme of study at a secondary school normally fulfils this requirement.

The old Probationary Entry Scheme is now only available to enter the Diploma in Theology. Students wishing to use this to access the degree programs must enter the Dip Theol complete this award and the Adv Dip Theol and Min and then access the B Theol in the third year of the program.

Probationary Entry to the Diploma in Theology:
Persons who are not qualified to enrol as candidates in accordance with Regulation 33, but have attained the age of twenty-one years prior to the commencement of the semester in which they would be first enrolled, may apply to enrol as probationary candidates for the Diploma in Theology. Such candidates will be required to complete a probationary period of study for the degree, and having successfully completed 60 credit points, will then be permitted to proceed as an ordinary candidate for the award. Candidates who fail more than 15 credit points of units during their probationary candidature will have their candidature terminated.

FIELDS OF STUDY
There are four fields of study for the awards:

- Field A  Humanities
- Field B  Biblical Studies
- Field C  Christian Thought and History
- Field D  Theology: Mission and Ministry.

(For disciplines within Fields see pp. 40, 45, 56, 71)

ASSESSMENT
At YTU the assessment requirements for units taken towards Diplomas, and Advanced Diplomas are the same as for units taken towards a Bachelor of Theology.
DIPLOMA IN THEOLOGY

In accord with the requirements outlined in Regulation 33, and drawing upon already accredited Bachelor of Theology units, YTU offers this Diploma Course consisting of 120 credit points (usually 8 units) of study, and must include at least 30 points in each of Fields B and C. The award must be completed in not less than one year and not more than three years.

ADVANCED DIPLOMA IN THEOLOGY AND MINISTRY (AdvDipTheol & Min)

In accord with the requirements outlined in Regulation 34, and drawing upon already accredited Bachelor of Theology units, YTU offers this Advanced Diploma Course consisting of 240 credit points (usually 16 units) of study. It must be completed in not less than two years and not more than six years. Students must complete 15 points of study (1 unit) in each of Old Testament, New Testament, Church History and Systematic Theology. This is normally achieved at YTU by completing the following units or their equivalent:

- BN1000Y Gospel of Mark and Exegetical Method
- BA1000Y Old Testament: Survey and Method
- CH1002Y A Survey of Early Modern and Modern Church History (1450 – present)
  - Or CH1001Y A Survey of Early & Medieval Church History (100-1450)
- CT1000Y Faith, Revelation and Theology.

In addition, two further units in Biblical Studies, Systematic Theology or Church History must be completed.

The Advanced Diploma in Philosophy may be undertaken at Catholic Theological College.
This degree must be completed in not less than three years and not more than nine years.

The Bachelor of Ministry consists of 360 points comprised of:

a) 60 points in a discipline or disciplines in Field B (Biblical Studies) which must include at least 15 points in each Testament;
b) 30 points in the discipline of Church History;
c) 60 points in the discipline of Systematic Theology;
d) 30 points in a discipline or disciplines in Field D (Theology: Mission and Ministry);
e) 60 points of praxis units in a discipline or disciplines in Field D (Theology: Mission and Ministry); and
f) A further 120 points.

Each course of study for the Bachelor of Ministry:

a) must not include more than 180 points at level 1; and
b) must include at least 90 points at level 3 including 30 points at level 3 in a discipline or disciplines in Field D (Theology: Mission and Ministry).

CREDIT

A maximum of eight units may be obtained in credit for completed degree level work done at other recognised tertiary institutions. A completed degree automatically carries four units of general credit, normally in field A. Up to four units further credit may be granted if the units concerned, in the judgement of UD, closely parallel the content and standard of Bachelor of Ministry studies. Transfer credits are also possible. The total number of credits and transfer credits shall not exceed 240 points.

The Learning and Teaching Committee of UD normally limits the granting of credit for individual subjects to those which were completed not more than ten years ago.
REGULATIONS
This degree was reviewed and a new regulation (No. 4 of the University Regulations) was approved in 2015. Students who began their degree under the previous regulation will be encouraged to complete the requirements of the new regulation but are not required to do so. Details of the requirements under the old regulations are available from the Academic Dean.

This degree must be completed in not less than three years and not more than nine years.

The Bachelor of Theology consists of 360 points comprised of:
   a) 60 points in a discipline or disciplines in Field B (Biblical Studies) which must include at least 15 points in each Testament;
   b) 30 points in the discipline of Church History;
   c) 60 points in the discipline of Systematic Theology;
   d) 30 points in a discipline or disciplines in Field D (Theology: Mission and Ministry);
      and
   e) A further 180 points.

Each course of study for the Bachelor of Theology:
   a) must not include more than 180 points at level 1; and
   b) must include at least 90 points at level 3 including 30 points at level 3 in either a discipline or disciplines in Field B (Biblical Studies) or in the discipline of Systematic Theology.

CREDIT
A maximum of eight units may be obtained in credit for completed degree level work done at other recognised tertiary institutions. A completed degree automatically carries four units of general credit, normally in field A. Up to four units further credit may be granted if the units concerned, in the judgment of University of Divinity, closely parallel the content and standard of Bachelor of Theology studies. Transfer credits are also possible. The total number of credits and transfer credits shall not exceed 240 points.

The Learning & Teaching Committee of UD normally limits the granting of credit for individual subjects to those which were completed not more than ten years ago.

RECOGNITION
The degree has been recognised by a number of tertiary institutions in Victoria and interstate for the purpose of credit towards their degrees. It is the responsibility of those institutions to determine the grounds on which such credit will be given and, in particular, the equivalence or otherwise of subjects completed in the BTheol degree to those offered in their degree.

The degree is also recognised by the Secondary Teachers’ Registration Board for the purpose of registration as a secondary teacher in the State of Victoria. In order to obtain such registration, an appropriate qualification in education must be completed in addition to a recognised degree such as the BTheol.
The main reason for the numbering system is to indicate the levels of the various units, i.e. Level One, Level Two and Level Three.

To explain more fully by means of examples:

BN1000Y  Gospel of Mark and Exegetical Method

B indicates that the unit is in Field B.

N = New Testament.

The first figure '1' indicates that it is a Level One unit.

The second, third and fourth figures are the proper numbers for the unit itself.

Y indicates that the unit is taught at YTU. [Other Colleges are indicated by different letters.]

CT2011Y  Who is this Christ?

In Field C, and under the discipline of Systematic Theology (C+T = CT), this is a Level Two unit.

CH9011Y  Foundations of Australian Catholicism

In Field C, and under Church History (C+H=CH), this is a Postgraduate (level 9) unit.

DT2340/3340Y  Human Sexuality and Marriage

In Field D, and under the discipline of Moral Theology (D+T =DT), this unit can be taken at Level Two or Level Three.

On pages 180-187 the units offered at YTU in 2016 are listed under their respective disciplines.

Minimum Number: Where "(Min. No. 8)" accompanies a unit description this means that the unit will be offered if the minimum number of students is enrolled.

Coordinator: MICHAEL KELLY CSsR
NN0310Y ART OF THE ICON (NON-CREDIT)

1st and 2nd semesters Thursdays 10am to 12 noon (Max. No. 10)

A prayer experience
Learn to paint icons the traditional way

CONTENT
This class will include direction in the making of an icon: writing/painting of the icon with gauche; gluing on the board; positioning of the linen on the board. Learning the "gesso method"; placing 12 coats of gilders whiting; the final sanding to take the “line drawing”. Then students will learn the use of the Stylus to incise the plaster ready to receive the colours. Students’ first icon will be Christ Pantocrator.

At the completion of icon classes for the year there will be a Eucharist and blessing of icons.

The following materials are supplied: wood (pine), linen cloth, glue and gesso. Students supply their own brushes (Sable 0, 00, 000). A colour chart is provided for paints (Gauche). Handouts are also supplied.

Total Cost: $120.00 to be paid to the YTU Registrar (Cheques payable to YTU)

LEARNING OUTCOMES

To develop an understanding of what icons are, what their meaning and function is. The writing/painting of icons is approached with prayer and quiet so the student can benefit in his or her prayer life. “Icons are open books to remind us of God.”

CONTENT
The unit will focus on four primary sources from the early Church which are Christian Classics either because of their content or the author. These will be: The Passion of SS. Perpetua & Felicity; The Life of St. Martin (of Tours) by Sulpicius Severus; On Loving God by Bernard of Clairvaux; The Dialogue by Catherine of Siena. It is hoped that the student will have time to read the entire work or at least a major portion of it so that all can share in their understanding of the work and its significance for them. The last part of each meeting the lecturer will introduce the following work to be read and put it in its historical context.

PREREQUISITES
None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon completion of this unit, it is hoped that the students will be able to:
1. identify the context of each of the classics
2. articulate at least one major insight gleaned from each of the classics
3. evaluate its contribution to the Christian tradition.

ASSESSMENT
None

BIBLIOGRAPHY
The shorter pieces can be found in collections in most of the University of Divinity Libraries. The work cited can be found in St. Paschal Library.

On Loving God, by Bernard of Clairvaux, found in Bernard of Clairvaux, Selected Works, translated by G. R. Evans (Mahwah: Paulist Press; 1987)
The Dialogue, by Catherine of Siena, translated by Susanne Noffke (Mahwah: Paulist Press; 1980)

BA2018Y/3018Y JUSTICE, MERCY AND THEODICY IN THE OLD TESTAMENT

2nd semester Wednesday morning (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
This unit will examine how the Old Testament portrays God as just and merciful and the criteria whereby Israel is called to be the just and merciful society. It will consist of an analysis of the terms Justice and Mercy and associated terminology within their literary, historical and theological contexts. It will consider how these terms and the contexts in which they are used contribute to Theodicy—the notion of the just God.

PREREQUISITES
Level 2: BA1000Y and BN1000Y or the equivalent
Level 3: At least one unit of Old Testament at level two

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:

Level 2
1. apply exegetical skills to the understanding of key theological terms in the Old Testament
2. demonstrate an ability to grasp the meaning of texts and terms
3. discuss the relationship between terminology in different contexts with a view to constructing a theology of mercy and justice
4. demonstrate a broad knowledge of the relevant background material
5. present papers in the context of seminar discussions.

Level 3
1. apply exegetical skills to the understanding of key theological terms in the Old Testament
2. demonstrate an advanced ability to grasp the meaning of texts and terms
3. critically assess the relationship between terminology in different contexts with a view to constructing a theology of mercy and justice
4. demonstrate a broad knowledge of the relevant background material
5. present papers and lead seminar discussions.

ASSESSMENT
Level 2: 1500 word exegetical paper (35%); 3000 word major essay (65%)

Lecturer: MARK O’BRIEN OP
CONTENT
This unit will initially offer a general overview of the book of Jeremiah, and then focus on the call narrative in chapter 1, the oracles in chapters 2–6, the Temple sermon in chapters 7 and 26, the confessions of Jeremiah, the so-called ‘scroll of consolation’ in chapters 30–31, and the narrative of the fall of Jerusalem in chapters 37–44, 52. The unit will also consider the difference between the MT and LXX versions, true and false prophecy, prophetic signs, the prophet as intercessor, and prophetic charisma.

PREREQUISITES
Level 2: BA1000Y and BN1000Y or the equivalent
Level 3: At least one unit of Old Testament at level two

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:

Level 2
1. demonstrate a broad knowledge of the geo-political, religious and ideological context of Jeremiah’s prophecy,
2. outline the message of Jeremiah and clearly state the key themes of his preaching,
3. show evidence of the integration of key skills in the interpretation of biblical texts,
4. demonstrate the use of secondary literature, electronic databases and other scholarly literature in student research,
5. clearly identify significant passages in the text, and reflect theologically on the Book of Jeremiah in relation to other prophetic literature in the Old Testament.

Level 3
1. demonstrate an advanced knowledge of the geo-political, religious and ideological context of Jeremiah’s prophecy,
2. analyse the message of Jeremiah and clearly state the key themes of his preaching,
3. show evidence of the integration of key skills in the interpretation of biblical texts,
4. demonstrate the skilled use of secondary literature, electronic databases and other scholarly literature in student research,
5. clearly identify significant passages in the text and reflect theologically on the Book of Jeremiah in relation to other prophetic literature in the Old Testament.

GOSPEL OF MARK AND BIBLICAL INTERPRETATION

1st semester Tuesday evening

CONTENT
The unit will commence with a brief study of the historical setting and literary forms of the New Testament writings, with special emphasis on the origin, literary character and theology of the Markan narrative. The methodology of biblical exegesis will be explained and illustrated in relation to the Gospel, with some reference to the other Synoptic Gospels.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. outline the contents and structure of the New Testament, and describe the types of literature and literary forms found in the New Testament
2. analyse the geographic and historical background to the New Testament texts and discuss the social and political world in which they emerged
3. identify the structure, content and key theological themes of the Gospel of Mark, the purpose for which it was written, the literary and narrative techniques that are used and its relationship to the other Synoptic Gospels
4. analyse the relationship between the Gospel of Mark and the OT, and articulate implicit and explicit intertextual references
5. identify and utilise the materials that assist NT interpretation, particularly by writing exegetical papers and an exegetical essay.

ASSESSMENT
Two exegetical exercises (750 words each) (20% each); two short revision exercises (250 words each) (10% each); 2000 word essay (40%)

BIBLIOGRAPHY
* NRSV Bible with the Apocryphal/Deuterocanonical Books. [RSV is acceptable]

THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

This unit offers a critical scholarly study of the theological, literary, and pastoral significance of The Gospel of John within its First-Century context. It will include a study of the emergence of Johannine Christianity and its relationship to Judaism following the destruction of Jerusalem, and the distinctive Johannine response to this event. Using narrative-critical methods the unit will follow the text of the Gospel, particularly in its structural and symbolic elements, in order to elucidate the particular theology of this Gospel.

PREREQUISITES
Level 2: BA1000Y and BN1000Y or equivalent
Level 3: BA1000Y and BN1000Y plus two units of Biblical Studies at level two

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:

Level 2:
1. describe the background, structure, themes, literary forms and terminology of the Gospel
2. gather information from the primary and secondary sources relevant to this subject and effectively communicate it in both oral and written form
3. write an exegetical paper on a specific text demonstrating appropriate skills in biblical interpretation
4. explain the unique theology of John’s Gospel in relation to its first-century context.

Level 3:
1. research and discuss the background, structure, themes, literary forms and terminology of the Gospel
2. appraise information from the primary and secondary sources relevant to this subject, particularly through the use of databases, and effectively communicate it in both oral and written form
3. identify the characteristics of narrative critical methods as distinct from historical critical methods
4. write an exegetical paper on a specific text demonstrating advanced skills in biblical interpretation
5. evaluate the unique theology of John’s Gospel in relation to the pastoral needs of its first-century context

ASSESSMENT
Level 2: 2000 word exegetical paper (40%); 3000 word essay or 45 minute taped oral exam (60%)
Level 3: 2500 word exegetical paper (40%); 3500 word essay or 45 minute taped oral exam (60%)

BN3015Y  BIBLICAL LAND AND THE GOSPELS
May 29 - June 26 2016 Intensive Travel Unit

CONTENT:
This unit will have several components. Students will travel to Israel. They will follow a four week course, based at Ecce Homo Convent in the Old City of Jerusalem, on one of the Synoptic Gospels which involves lectures on a Synoptic Gospel, on Judaism, and the many religious traditions present. The course is entitled ‘Rediscover Jesus in the Land with Matthew/Mark/Luke. In 2016 it will be the Gospel according to Matthew. Lectures will be accompanied by excursions to many biblical sites in Jerusalem, Bethlehem and especially in the Galilee. Experienced guides will explore the historical and archaeological links with the Gospels. There will be some opportunity to meet with members of several religious traditions in the context of the Land.

For more information see www.biblicalformationcentre.com
It is necessary to enrol with the Program in Jerusalem.

PREREQUISITES
One Unit of New Testament at level two

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. discuss the interplay between the geography of the biblical land and the text of the Gospel
2. articulate the significance of the land in relation to the Gospel’s presentation of Jesus and his ministry
3. explain the influence of the Galilee on the life of Jesus as reflected in the Gospel studied
4. demonstrate knowledge of the Jewish background to the Gospel studied
5. assess the contribution of archaeology to the study of the Gospel
6. apply the knowledge gained concerning the Gospel and the Galilean influence to preaching or teaching the Gospel in the coming liturgical year
7. discuss the relationship between the various Christian communities encountered in Jerusalem to Christian Ecumenism in Australia.

ASSESSMENT:
An homily or class presentation equivalent to 2500 words on one of the Sunday Liturgical texts studied in Jerusalem (50%); A 2500 word essay – which takes a text from the Gospel of Matthew and explores the significance of studying it in the Biblical land (50%)

BS3016Y PASSEOVER AND EASTER IN THE BIBLICAL LAND

March 8th - April 4th  Intensive Travel Unit

CONTENT:
This Unit combines a study of the Biblical texts associated with the feasts of Passover & Easter (Exodus, Servant Songs & John’s Gospel) with an experience of the Biblical Land and the celebration of these feasts in Jerusalem. (This Program is situated in Jerusalem. The students will study: Exodus, the Servant Songs in Isaiah and the Gospel of John. The lens through which this study will be focused are the feasts of Passover and Easter. The celebration of Easter in the Holy Land offers an experience of a variety of Christian celebrations of Holy Week and Easter. It will also allow some participation, with Jewish people, in Passover. There will be excursions to sites where events in the life of Jesus are commemorated.)

It is necessary to enrol with the Program in Jerusalem.

PREREQUISITES
BA1000Y& BN1000Y

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. exegete the text of the Gospel of John within the context of the First Testament and in a manner which does not promote anti-Jewish sentiment
2. examine the relationship between the feasts of Passover and Easter as found in the selected biblical traditions
3. present the texts of Exodus and Isaiah (Servant Songs) in non supersessionist modes
4. demonstrate familiarity with the role of Jerusalem and the land in the celebration of the feasts of Passover and Easter
5. explore the use of Biblical texts within a liturgical context.

ASSESSMENT:
Exegesis of a text within John 13-20 (35%); Preparation of an “Easter” Liturgy with a strong Biblical component (35%); A reflective paper on the relationship between the feasts of Passover and Easter in light of the 4 weeks experience (30%)

CH1001Y A SURVEY OF EARLY AND MEDIEVAL CHURCH HISTORY (100-1450CE)

1st semester Wednesday evening  (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
This unit is designed to fulfill two major functions. Firstly to introduce students to modern methodologies for reading and writing history, historiography, historical consciousness, the skills of research, critical use of sources, interpretation methodologies, and presentation of evidenced historical arguments. Secondly, the unit introduces students to the broad sweep of church history from the end of the apostolic era (c.100CE) to the Gutenberg Printing Press (c.1450). Particular emphasis is given to the development of the fundamental doctrines and structures of Christianity, the mutual relationships between Church, State and Culture, the Crusades, and challenges to the Church’s authority in the High Middle Ages, leading to the growth of movements towards reform.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate understanding of the dynamic meaning of church history in the modern era
2. analyse critically both primary and secondary historical sources
3. present a critical evaluation of selected historical documents from the period
4. engage with debates surrounding major historiographical issues of the period in question
5. complete a structured research project that evidences their interpretations of a key event in the early and medieval church history periods
6. identify and discuss the inter-relationship between history and theology

ASSESSMENT
1000 word critical document study (30%); 3000 word research essay (70%)

A SURVEY OF EARLY MODERN AND MODERN CHURCH HISTORY (1450 – PRESENT)

2nd semester Wednesday evening (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
This unit develops the students’ historical methodology and research skills, building on fundamental learnings from the first survey (CH1001Y). Applying these skills, it surveys the history of the Church from the fall of Constantinople in 1453 to the period immediately following the Second Vatican Council (1962 – 1965). Particular emphasis is given to the current historiography of the Long Reformation (14th to 18th Centuries) and its aftermaths, to the Enlightenment, the Age of Revolutions, and the Religious developments of the 19th Century in church authority structures and ‘Social Christianity’, as a preface to interpreting twentieth century conflicts, reforms and renewal.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate understanding of the dynamic meaning of church history in the modern era
2. apply their understanding to the key events of early modern and modern church history
3. analyse critically both primary and secondary historical sources
4. present a critical evaluation of key historical documents from the period
5. engage with debates surrounding major issues of the period in question
6. complete a structured research project that evidences their interpretations of a key event in the early modern and modern church history periods.

This unit will explore the history of the Catholic Church in Australia. It will examine its foundations and its development phases through lay beginnings, the Benedictine 'Dream', the rise of the Irish Hierarchy and the eventual 'Australianisation' of its clerical leadership, to its current leadership crisis. Among key issues studied will be the influence of 'Sectarianism', encroaching secularisation, the Church in the colonial political and social environments, the influence of the religious orders and the Church’s stance regarding education. The unit will also consider the changing face of Catholicism following two Vatican Councils (1869-1870 and 1962 – 1965). It will also examine the significance of women in the Australian Catholic Church, its relations with the Vatican Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, relations with other Christian traditions, missions to indigenous cultures and the impacts of migration.

PREREQUISITES
One unit in Church History at level one

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. read critically the key primary and secondary sources of Australian Church History
2. articulate the main phases of the Australian Catholic Church’s development
3. critique the various perspectives on sectarianism as a major impact on Australian religion
4. evaluate Catholic attitudes to the marginalised (women, indigenous peoples, poor)
5. discuss the impacts of critical events in the life of the Australian Catholic Church
6. (level 3) evaluate the contributions of major figures of the Australian Catholic Church.

ASSESSMENT
Level 2: 1500 word tutorial (40%); 2500 word research essay (60%)

DEATH, DYING AND GRIEF: THROUGH THE LENS OF ART AND SPIRITUALITY

2nd semester cross listed as DS2/3214Y (Min. No. 8)
The first and last class will meet face to face on a Wednesday evening; the remaining classes will be on-line.

CONTENT
This unit applies insights drawn from Christian spirituality, and material culture to study a variety of responses to death, dying and bereavement. Students will be expected to engage with historical and contemporary theories and practices dealing with death and grieving. Theological reflection on and critical assessment of these practices will acquaint students with an understanding of the needs of the terminally ill and the bereaved.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. articulate the foundational beliefs that underlie two Christian rituals surrounding death and dying
2. identify how a work of art (of your choice) expresses cultural and spiritual attitudes to death and dying
3. demonstrate familiarity with several theories of grieving
4. identify (with visual examples) how art in the past might have enhanced pastoral care of the dying and the bereaved
5. (Level 3 only) Critically assess two or three themes that have emerged in recent literature on how Christian spirituality relates to death, dying and bereavement.

ASSESSMENT
Level 2 1000 word critical review and comparison of two carefully selected scholarly articles (30%); 1000 words on the historical context of an art work to death, dying or bereavement (30%):Either 2500 word research essay OR a 2500 word critical reflection on a personally developed art work (40%)
Level 3 1500 word critical review and comparison of two carefully selected scholarly articles (30%); 1500 words on the historical context of an art work to death, dying or bereavement (30%):Either a 3000 word research essay OR a 3000 word critical reflection on a personally developed art work (40%)

CH2230Y/3230Y  CATHOLIC SOCIAL THOUGHT IN AUSTRALIA AND OVERSEAS

1st semester Monday evening  Crosslisted as DT2/3230Y (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
This unit will examine Catholic social and political ideas and movements in Europe and elsewhere, and evaluate their impact and interpretation in Australia. It will consider key issues in Catholic social movements in Europe, outline the backgrounds to the papal social encyclicals, and trace their development internationally to Popes John Paul II, Benedict XVI and Francis.

PREREQUISITES
A foundational unit in Church History or moral Theology

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. show competence in reading and interpreting the main social encyclicals
2. demonstrate familiarity with key social concepts: the common good, solidarity, social and distributive justice, capitalism, communism, socialism, corporatism
3. describe key debates about Catholic social movements, and analyse various views
4. demonstrate in written form a critical appropriation of some aspect of the subject
5. display understanding of the cultural origins and development of social justice traditions in the Church
6. level 3 only: Critically evaluate aspects of Church social teaching.

ASSESSMENT
Level 2: 1500 word essay (40%); 2500 word essay (60%)
Level 3: 2000 word essay (40%); 3000 word essay (60%)

CONTENT
The unit investigates the foundations of theology. It is a unit in fundamental theology. The unit considers faith simultaneously as a graced and universal human phenomenon. A distinction is made between the originating faith experience and the beliefs which express this faith and give it a specific focus. The role of the Judaeo-Christian scriptures in `informing' faith is addressed. Revelation, to which faith responds, is presented as simultaneously theocentric and a universal human phenomenon with a variety of historical manifestations. The theocentric focus of revelation provides the broader context in which Christian revelation is situated, especially as it has been manifested through the Scriptures. Finally, with faith and revelation as the originating experiences out of which theology emerges, the unit concludes with a consideration of the nature and methods of contemporary theologies.

PREREQUISITES
None (but highly recommended that students have taken NN1000Y and one unit in biblical studies)

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. articulate the universal and particular nature of Faith
2. demonstrate a familiarity with the central elements of the Christian faith
3. demonstrate a basic understanding of a theology of revelation—how revelation occurs universally and in specific historical mediation
4. identify the relationship between Faith and Revelation
5. outline the functions of theology, its strength and limitations
6. identify the method and sources, both written and non-written, for doing theology.

ASSESSMENT
Weekly summary of the readings (total equivalent to 1000 words) (25%);
1000 word theological reflection paper (25%); 2000 word essay (50%)

WHO IS THIS CHRIST?

1st semester Thursday evening

CONTENT
This unit involves systematic reflection on the life, person, mission and ministry of Jesus Christ. It focuses on Jesus’ central message: the Reign of God. The unit commences with a reflection on the relationship between the Jesus of history and the Christ of faith. This leads to an inquiry into the scope, achievements and limits of the quest for the historical Jesus. In turn this opens into a consideration of the following themes: the Jewish world of Jesus; the Reign of God in his mission, message and actions; his sufferings, crucifixion and death; his resurrection and its impact on the Jesus movement; New Testament interpretations; Jesus’ identity in history and tradition; some special questions, including his role as liberator and saviour, and his continuing relevance for individuals, the Church, and the world.

PREREQUISITES
Level 2: CT1000Y and BN1000Y, or equivalent
Level 3: As above plus one unit of Systematic Theology at level two

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. express the relationship between the Jesus of history and the Christ of faith
2. demonstrate an understanding of the issues involved in the quest for the historical Jesus
3. articulate and explain the significance of the Reign of God as the core of his public life and ministry
4. explain the Christian teaching that his death and resurrection is the culmination of his life and mission
5. articulate an understanding of his continuing presence and activity in the Church.

ASSESSMENT
Level 2: 1500 word essay on the Reign of God (40%); 2500 word essay (60%)
Level 3: 2000 word essay on the Reign of God (40%); 3000 word essay (60%)

This unit aims to present with ecumenical sensitivity the origin, meaning and purpose of the Christian sacraments. It begins by outlining foundational concepts upon which contemporary sacramental theology rests, including the importance of symbol, ritual, Jesus as primordial sacrament and the Church as fundamental sacrament. Using this framework, the unit then undertakes a survey of the seven sacraments, paying particular attention to their historical, symbolic, liturgical and pastoral dimensions. Finally, the unit explores and evaluates more recent directions within sacramental theology as a discipline.

PREREQUISITES
Level 2: CT1000Y or equivalent and two units in Biblical Studies at level one Level 3: As above plus one unit of Systematic Theology at level two

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. articulate the importance of foundational concepts such as symbol and ritual in defining and describing sacraments
2. discuss the importance of Jesus Christ as primordial sacrament and the Church as fundamental sacrament in defining and describing sacraments
3. identify significant developments in the historical evolution of the sacraments
4. analyse the sacraments in terms of their key historical developments, symbolic meanings, and liturgical expression
5. (Level 3) explain how the sacraments manifest the presence and work of the Holy Spirit.

CT3012Y  THE CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE OF GOD: THE HOLY TRINITY

2nd semester Thursday morning  (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
This unit aims to explore the meaning and centrality of the doctrine of the Trinity in Christian faith and doctrine. From its biblical sources through its development in East and West and its later decline, it is examined in its contemporary exposition in theologians of different traditions. Further study will include the trinitarian shaping of other major doctrines and the bearing of the Trinity on some important questions in contemporary discussion.

PREREQUISITES
CT1000Y and CT2011Y/3011Y and one further unit at level two.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. describe the scriptural origins of Christian faith in God as the Holy Trinity
2. identify the main developments that have occurred in the Church’s trinitarian doctrine
3. analyse and evaluate historical and contemporary approaches to trinitarian theology
4. articulate some practical ramifications of trinitarian faith for spirituality and Christian praxis

“Where there is salvation, its name is Jesus; its grammar is the cross and resurrection” (Rowan Williams). This unit explores the key theological questions in the doctrine of salvation: what are we saved from? What are we saved for? What is the means by which we are saved? How wide is the scope of salvation? Drawing on a variety of ways in which the Christian community has spoken of salvation, the unit will undertake a critical evaluation of a range of classical and modern approaches to salvation.

PREREQUISITES
CT 1000Y and a unit of Christology

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. identify the biblical roots for Christian understandings of salvation
2. analyse and compare at least two approaches to salvation from within the Christian tradition
3. describe and evaluate the consequences of these approaches or images for an understanding of the means of salvation
4. critically engage with the issue of the scope of salvation.

Feminist theology has made a significant contribution in its critique of patriarchal suppositions underlying Christian doctrine. This has raised questions about the centrality of sexuality, male and female, and the gendered nature of human relationships to God. This unit will consider some of the issues raised by feminist theologians for theology in the life of the Christian community. It will also examine and critique feminist theological perspectives on God, humanity, Church, spirituality and ecology.

PREREQUISITES
Two units of Christian Thought and History, preferably including a unit on Christology

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. critically assess the major Christian doctrines in the light of feminist theological scholarship
2. develop a critical awareness of issues pertaining to the diversity of feminist theologies
3. demonstrate a critical understanding of the writings of at least one feminist theologian.

ASSESSMENT
3000 word literature review (50%)
3000 word research essay (50%)

CONTENT
This unit serves as an introduction to the canon law of the Catholic Church. Emphasis will be placed on the historical development of canon law and its relationship with theology. The basic content of the unit will be found in the 1983 Code of Canon Law and it is designed to provide an overview of this document with particular attention being paid to the basic principles of interpretation of the law and their pastoral application in areas of general relevance such as, for example, the People of God and the Sacraments. Topics covered will include General Norms, Persons in the Code of Canon Law and the Sacraments, except Orders.

PREREQUISITES
At least one unit in Moral Theology or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate a basic knowledge and understanding of the history and development of law in the Church
2. discourse critically on the inter-relationship of theology and canon law
3. critically apply principles of interpretation of canon law to concrete situations
4. demonstrate familiarity with the overall structure and general content of the 1983 Code of Canon Law
5. demonstrate detailed knowledge of the major aspects of the laws relating to the People of God and the Sacraments and the ability to interpret and apply them.

ASSESSMENT
Three pieces of written work are required at both levels:
Level 2: Two 1000 word tutorial papers (40%); 2000 word essay (60%)
Level 3: Two 1000 word tutorial papers (40%); 3500 word essay (60%)

BIBLIOGRAPHY  * = set texts recommended for purchase

Lecturer: ROSEMARIE JOYCE CSB
CONTENT
This unit provides further examination of the 1983 Code of Canon Law with emphasis on selected topics relevant to an understanding of the role of law in the life of the Church. Topics to be covered include: the supreme authority of the Catholic Church; Particular Churches and their Groupings; the internal ordering of Particular Churches; governance; Orders; Sacred Ministers or Clerics; the Teaching office of the Church; and temporal goods. Sanctions in the Church and processes will be covered as required.

PREREQUISITES
Canon Law A

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. apply the principles of interpretation of canon law to concrete situations
2. integrate principles of law within the hierarchical structure and general governance of the Catholic Church
3. discuss the laws of the Church relating to the Sacrament of Orders
4. demonstrate understanding of major aspects of the laws relating to governance, particular churches, the teaching office of the Church and temporal goods.

ASSESSMENT

DL1430Y        DOING AND LIVING THE CHURCH’S LITURGY

Crosslisted as DP1430Y (Pastoral Theology) and DS1430Y (Spirituality)

1st Semester
Sun 14 Feb, 2-5pm Rite of Election, St Patrick’s Cathedral;  (One week before beginning of semester); Sat 12 March, 10-4pm (at YTU); Mondays, 6-9pm on the following dates:
22 & 29 Feb,7 March; 4, 11, 18 & 25 April; 9, 16 & 23 May

CONTENT
This unit examines the liturgy as pivotal to the life of the baptised and as a celebration of faith that gives their lives gospel shape and calls them to mission. It explores a theological and pastoral understanding of the rites and examines their symbolic actions, languages, patterns and corporate nature through the lens of the church’s liturgical praxis. A core component of the unit will be ‘doing’ and reflecting on short rituals from the liturgy of the church, normally elements of the rites of Lent, the Triduum and Easter.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. identify the components of the principle rites of the Christian liturgy
2. explain the core principles governing liturgical celebration
3. discuss a basic theology of Christian liturgy deriving from the Paschal Mystery
4. articulate an understanding of Christian liturgy as a dynamic complex of word – sung and spoken – symbol and rite
5. discuss the relationship between liturgy and mission

ASSESSMENT
Summary of four key articles, 1000 words (20%) 1000 word seminar paper (20%); 2000 word essay (60%)

2nd semester Tuesday morning

CONTENT
Building on prior studies and/or experience in Liturgy, this unit comprises three continuous and contiguous elements which overlap and interweave throughout the unit: information relating to the spirit and structure of liturgical celebrations as essentially communal and participatory; reflection on these as developed in the Liturgical books and commentaries, and as experienced in a variety of situations; experience which prepares presiders, particularly, for their role in a variety of Liturgical celebrations in the Catholic tradition

PREREQUISITES
Prior studies and/or experience in liturgical celebration

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate understanding of the spirit and structure of Liturgical celebration in the Christian community as outlined in the basic Catholic Liturgical texts
2. reflect critically on the implications for the way Liturgical celebration is, and should be, experienced in Christian communities
3. preside and participate in Liturgical celebrations professionally and proficiently
4. evaluate the service of ministry implied in 'full, conscious and active participation' in Liturgical celebrations as determined by the Second Vatican Council.
5. (level 3) design and compose liturgical celebrations appropriate for selected ecclesial occasions.

ASSESSMENT
Level 2: Weekly Journal Reflections: Reading & Praxis (2000 words) (40%); Practicum and Critical Reflection (2500 words) (60%)
Level 3: Weekly Journal Reflections: Reading & Praxis (3000 words) (40%); Practicum and Critical Reflection (2500 words) (60%)

INTRODUCTION TO THE THEOLOGY OF MISSION

1st semester Monday morning  (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
The unit will begin with the conceptual clarification of the terms mission and missiology followed by an analysis of the biblical foundations of mission and its historical developments leading to the contemporary issues. It will also examine the key Catholic documents on mission.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. discuss the meaning of the terms mission and missiology
2. interpret the biblical foundation of mission
3. describe the missionary nature of Christian vocation
4. analyse the impact of colonialism on mission

ASSESSMENT
A 1500 word tutorial presentation and discussion of a case study in mission (40%);
2500 word essay describing the missionary nature of the church and critically examining how it can be practiced in contemporary Australia (60%)

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Lecturer: JACOB KAVUNKAL SVD
CONTENT
The unit explores understandings and realities of the meeting between cultures and the gospel. Past and more recent examples from Africa, Australia and the South Pacific are examined. By examining Thomas Grenham’s writings on theological inculturation, and Kathryn Tanner’s work on ‘Theories of Culture’ the students are challenged to move towards a ‘process’ rather than static based approach to, and description of, gospel contextualisation, by becoming more attuned to the developing sociological and theological understandings of both ‘mission’ and ‘culture’.

PREREQUISITES
Level two: DT1330Y or equivalent.
Level three: DT1330Y or equivalent, plus one unit of Missiology at level two

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. describe understandings and theories of ‘culture’ in human life
2. from selected texts, identify and evaluate the contribution of the social sciences to ‘mission’ and ‘culture’
3. identify and describe pre- and post- Vatican II understandings of mission
4. demonstrate understandings of intercultural dialogue and gospel inculturation
5. demonstrate the ability to effectively use relevant primary sources.

ASSESSMENT
Level two: 1000 word tutorial report (30%); 3500 word essay (70%)
Level three: 1000 word tutorial report (30%); 4500 word essay (70%)

DM2015Y/3015Y  RECENT APPROACHES TO MISSION

2nd semester Thursday morning

(Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
The unit begins with a description of the new world order with its characteristics of violence, migration and globalisation, and showing how the bible is a narrative of a God of life. This is followed by a presentation of some of the current mission practices like fighting exclusion and inequality through the practise of human rights, reconciliation and advocacy to lead the students to reflect on discipleship today.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. discuss three challenges human society faces today
2. discuss how Christian mission is a service to life
3. illustrate two relevant mission expressions
4. compare these interpretations of mission with former missiologies which gave priority to baptism
5. analyse the understanding of mission in Evangelii Gaudium (level 3 only)

ASSESSMENT
Level 2: 1500 word essay, tutorial presentation and discussion about one of the challenges to mission in Australia (40%); 3000 word essay on Lk 4:19 critically presenting any one of the recent approaches to mission (60%)
Level 3: 2000 word essay, tutorial presentation and discussion about one of the challenges to mission in Australia (40%); 3000 word essay on Lk 4:19 critically presenting any one of the recent approaches to mission (60%)

DM3014Y  INTER-RELIGIOUS DIALOGUE IN A MULTI-RELIGIOUS SOCIETY

1st semester Thursday evening  (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
The unit is designed to explore the significance of inter-religious dialogue in a multi-religious context. It will underline the theological unity based on the common origin and destiny of all, the divine Mystery, Who is in dialogue with humanity. The unit will examine biblical and theological foundations for inter-religious dialogue. It will also address related challenges and opportunities as well as engage in some actual dialogue leading to a harmonious society in the Australian context and beyond.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. articulate an understanding of interreligious dialogue
2. characterise interreligious dialogue as an expression of the church’s mission
3. Illustrate how interreligious dialogue is an experience of rootedness and openness drawing on their own experience of interreligious dialogue
4. compare interreligious dialogue with the mission of proclamation
5. identify interreligious dialogue as an expression of the divine reign

ASSESSMENT
2000 word tutorial presentation (40%); 3000 word essay on world peace (60%)

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Lecturer: JACOB KAVUNKAL SVD
CONTENT
This unit will explore two important areas of understanding underpinning good pastoral practice: human development theory, and theological notions of the self. After exploring theories of human psychological development, the unit will explore how we come to understand the self within a pastoral setting. This will involve developing a theological understanding of the person within context: personal, familial, social and global. This unit will explore key concepts in developmental theory as well as selected theological works that bridge the gap between pastoral psychology and pastoral practice.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate an understanding of the main theories of and approaches to human development
2. compare and contrast selected theoretical positions (both theological and psychological) on human development and the theology of the self
3. identify key notions of the self within different social and cultural contexts
4. demonstrate an understanding of the place of human development theory, and a theological understanding of the self, within pastoral practice
5. formulate a pastoral practice strategy with this understanding in mind.

ASSESSMENT
1000 word essay demonstrating a clear understanding of human development theory (20%);
1000 word seminar paper on one specific cultural understanding of the self (20%);
2000 word essay demonstrating how human development theory, and theological perspectives on the self, are relevant to a pastoral practice environment. (60%)

Lecturer: DAVID LEARY OFM
CONTENT
Following on from Counselling: Theory and Practice I, this unit will begin by exploring, in broad terms, the process of assessment, referral and counselling practice within a pastoral care environment. The unit content will then focus on, and explore, a number of therapeutic models for pastoral care and counselling intervention. Based on current research, this will allow the student to explore and assess the therapeutic theories, key concepts and constructs, and therapeutic systems most appropriate for the pastoral care environment. The unit material will lead the student to an understanding of evidence-based practice: what works, and for whom, in pastoral counselling. The unit will then explore the ethical and professional issues involved with engaging in pastoral counselling and pastoral care.

NO PREREQUISITES
DP2/3011Y Counselling: Theory and Practice I

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate understanding of the overall approach and process of pastoral care and pastoral counselling in the contemporary pastoral setting
2. articulate the key concepts and constructs of pastoral counselling and therapeutic work
3. analyse the main schools of thought regarding counselling in the pastoral setting
4. evaluate the available research on evidence-based counselling practice
5. develop a synthesis of theory and practice in respect of pastoral counselling
6. Construct and describe appropriate pastoral counselling interventions using case material to illustrate a clear understanding.

ASSESSMENT
Level 2: 1000 word essay 25%; 1500 word essay 30%; 2000 word essay (45%)

DP2011Y/3011Y  COUNSELLING: THEORY AND PRACTICE

1st semester Tuesday morning (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
Foundational counselling skills are also life skills. This unit explores a model of professional counselling and its attendant skills into which other models can be integrated. It also challenges the student to reflect on and enrich the many relationships of everyday life.

PREREQUISITES
Each student will be asked to fill in an application form at the time of registration and have an interview with the lecturer. Successful applicants will be notified immediately. The lecturer reserves the right to limit entry into the unit.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. articulate the sequential steps of an overall counselling model
2. commence a counselling session and connect with the client
3. explore beyond the telling of the story to ask what changes are sought
4. demonstrate competency to plan the first small steps of the change process
5. engage in self-critique to see where are the blind spots in the helping process
6. demonstrate the basics of a clinical interview.

ASSESSMENT
Level 2: Weekly 15 minute tests (30%); recorded counselling session (student-to-student) with critical self-critique (70%)
Level 3: Weekly 15 minute tests (20%); recorded counselling session (student-to-student) with critical self-critique (60%); 1500 word essay (20%)
At all levels students must achieve a pass in all sections of the assessment.

Lecturer: PETER CANTWELL OFM
AIM AND CONTENT
Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) is recognised as an educational experience and a dimension of Christian pastoral ministry. Through supervised encounters with people, and the feedback from peers and the people to whom ministry is offered, students develop new awareness of their own humanity and of the needs of those to whom they minister. From theological reflection on specific human situations, they gain new understanding of the human situation.

PREREQUISITES:
One unit in Biblical Studies, Systematic theology and pastoral Theology & Ministry Studies

ADMISSION
At present CPE programmes are available in several centres in Victoria:
  Alfred & Community CPE Centre – 9076 3138;
  Austin Hospital CPE Centre –
    Based at Heidelberg Repatriation Hospital – 9496 2895;
  Barwon Health, Geelong Hospital – 5222 4212 or 0409 255 146;
  Mercy Centre – Mercy Hospital for Women – 8458 4688;
  Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre – paula.donnoli@petermac.org 9656 1301
  Royal Melbourne Hospital – 9342 2155
  Southern Health CPE Programme –
    Monash Clayton, Pastoral Care Office – 9594 2332
    Casey Berwick – 8768 1583
  Uniting CPE - the John Paver Centre – 9251 5489
    Email: andy.calder@victas.uca.org.au

Contact should be made to the association of supervisors in other States or New Zealand for alternatives outside Victoria.

Admission to these units is by selection on the basis of written application and personal interview. Preference may be given to students who have completed two or three years of theological education. Concurrent enrolment in the unit through YTU, as well as through the CPE provider is essential for credit to be obtained.

Contact for application forms should be made to individual Centres. Further information is available on website www.aspea.org.au.

METHOD
Each unit consists of 400 hours of supervised learning in pastoral ministry for a group of between three and six peers, including ten hours of individual supervision, sixty hours of peer group supervision and 150 hours in the practice of pastoral ministry. 60 hours are allocated for personal written reflection on experience and written unit requirements. The unit can be completed over a minimum of ten and a maximum of forty-four weeks.

ASSESSMENT
Progress is assessed by the Clinical Supervisor and will include written reports, case studies, evaluations and theological reflections.
CONTENT
The unit addresses understandings of spirituality and various approaches to its study, e.g. (i) historical, (ii) theological and (iii) anthropological. Traditional Christian spiritualities, both apostolic and mystical are examined, as well as other selected spiritualities, including indigenous and eco-spiritualities. The unit includes a transformational perspective, inviting students to relate the study of spirituality to their own personal contexts.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. Articulate the fundamental nature and the methods of spirituality
2. Discourse on the development of spirituality over time
3. Give a critical reflection on a selected aspect of Christian spirituality
4. Make a critical personal response to a specific selected aspect of the unit.

ASSESSMENT
1000 word tutorial presentation (25%); 2000 word essay 50(%); 1000 word integrative assignment (25%)

INTRODUCTION TO MORAL THEOLOGY: THE GOD I BELIEVE IN IS THE GOD I RESPOND TO

1st Semester Wednesday morning (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
Taking its direction from Scripture and Church Tradition, this unit explores the essential components for understanding and appreciating Moral Theology as a theological discipline, and its integration with Systematic Theology, Philosophy, Church History, Pastoral Ministry, Spirituality and Church Law.
Particular emphasis is given to Covenant relationship: the human person made in the image and likeness of God and transformed in the new life of the Risen Christ, and consequently on the principles and processes for making responsible moral choices as a Christian in the context of everyday life.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. describe the development of universal ethics, western moral philosophy and the Judeo-Christian moral tradition
2. identify the sources, tradition and principles of Catholic Moral Theology
3. discuss the key moral concepts of conscience, conversion, discipleship, reconciliation, and other fundamental concepts of Catholic Moral Theology
4. demonstrate an ability to apply Catholic moral principles to life situations
5. discourse critically on issues of current ethical concern in society and Christian moral responses appropriate to these issues.

ASSESSMENT
Reflection on weekly readings (2000 words total) (40%); 2500 word essay (60%)

CONTENT
Inspired by the social encyclical of Pope Francis, Laudato Si’, this unit investigates the global crises in economics, social inequality and climate change, and responses from Christian social traditions. It explores debates about sustainability in the light of global warming, and what this will mean for economic development, particularly for the alleviation of hunger and poverty through the Sustainable Development Goals. It will explore the relationships between religious belief, economics and the environment, and the role of values in these debates.

PREREQUISITES
One foundational unit in Moral Theology, DT1000Y, or its equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. describe key debates about sustainability and economic development
2. critically evaluate arguments examined in the unit
3. demonstrate understanding of the moral principles involved in economic activity and the environment
4. discuss the moral dimensions of these issues and their consequences
5. outline the responsibilities of the churches in affirming values needed for equitable development and sustainability.
6. Level 3 critically evaluate major moral aspects in current economic and environmental issues.

BA9018Y JUSTICE, MERCY AND THEODICY IN THE OLD TESTAMENT

Elective unit
2nd semester Wednesday morning (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
This unit will examine how the Old Testament portrays God as just and merciful and the criteria whereby Israel is called to be the just and merciful society. It will consist of an analysis of the terms Justice and Mercy and associated terminology within their literary, historical and theological contexts. It will consider how these terms and the contexts in which they are used contribute to Theodicy—the notion of the just God.

PREREQUISITES
Successful completion of BA8000Y or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. apply their exegetical skills to the understanding of key theological terms in the Old Testament
2. demonstrate an ability to grasp the meaning of texts and terms
3. critically assess the relationship between terminology in different contexts with a view to constructing a theology of justice and mercy
4. demonstrate a broad knowledge of the relevant background material
5. present papers in the context of seminar discussions
6. compare and evaluate contemporary insights in the study of the topic.

ASSESSMENT
2000 word exegetical paper (35%); 4000 word major essay (65%)

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Lecturer: MARK O’BRIEN OP
CONTENT
This unit will initially offer a general overview of the book of Jeremiah, and then focus on the call narrative in chapter 1, the oracles in chapters 2–6, the Temple sermon in chapters 7 and 26, the confessions of Jeremiah, the so-called ‘scroll of consolation’ in chapters 30–31, and the narrative of the fall of Jerusalem in chapters 37–44, 52. The unit will also consider the difference between the MT and LXX versions, true and false prophecy, prophetic signs, the prophet as intercessor, and prophetic charisma.

PREREQUISITES
Successful completion of BA8000Y or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate a critical grasp of the historical, literary and theological issues associated with the book of Jeremiah and its interpretation
2. demonstrate a critical knowledge of the theological themes in the book of Jeremiah
3. exegete passages from the book of Jeremiah
4. make critical use of secondary sources, e.g., commentaries
5. critically discuss the issue of the continuing relevance of the book of Jeremiah
6. demonstrate the necessary skills to research and write an exegetical paper and essay on a text or topic in the book of Jeremiah.

BN9013Y  THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

1st semester Saturdays Elective Unit (Min. No. 8)
Feb 6th & 20th Mar 5th & 19th April 16th & 30th 9.30 am – 4.30 pm

CONTENT
This unit offers a critical scholarly study of the theological, literary, and pastoral significance of The Gospel of John within its First-Century context. It will include a study of the emergence of Johannine Christianity and its relationship to Judaism following the destruction of Jerusalem, and the distinctive Johannine response to this event. Using narrative-critical methods the unit will follow the text of the Gospel, particularly in its structural and symbolic elements, in order to elucidate the particular theology of this Gospel.

PREREQUISITES
At least one foundational unit in Biblical Studies, preferably two units

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. examine and explain the background, structure, themes, literary forms and terminology of the Gospel
2. evaluate information from the primary and secondary sources, particularly by using databases relevant to this subject and effectively communicate it in both oral and written form
3. identify the characteristics of narrative critical methods as distinct from historical critical methods
4. write an exegetical paper on a specific text demonstrating appropriate skills in biblical interpretation
5. synthesise and explain the unique theology of John’s Gospel in relation to its first-century context
6. support their arguments by using biblical dictionaries, lexicons and key Hebrew and Greek words.

ASSESSMENT
2000 word exegetical paper (40%); 4000 word essay or 1hour taped oral exam (60%)

BN9015Y  BIBLICAL LAND AND THE GOSPELS
Elective unit
May 29 - June 26 2016 Intensive Travel Unit

CONTENT
This unit will have several components. Students will travel to Israel. They will follow a four week course, based at Ecce Homo Convent in the Old City of Jerusalem, on one of the Synoptic Gospels which involves lectures on a Synoptic Gospel, on Judaism, and the many religious traditions present. The course, entitled ‘Rediscover Jesus in the Land with Matthew/Mark/Luke’ (whichever is the Gospel for the following liturgical year), will be accompanied by excursions to many biblical sites in Jerusalem, Bethlehem and especially in the Galilee. Experienced guides will explore the historical and archaeological links with the Gospels. There will be some opportunity to meet with members of several religious traditions in the context of the Land.

For more information see www.biblicalformation.org
It is necessary to enrol with the Program in Jerusalem.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. discuss the interplay between the geography of the biblical land and the text of the Gospel
2. articulate the significance of the land in relation to the Gospel’s presentation of Jesus and his ministry
3. explain the influence of the Galilee on the life of Jesus as reflected in the Gospel studied
4. demonstrate knowledge of the Jewish background to the Gospel studied
5. assess the contribution of archaeology to the study of the Gospels
6. apply the knowledge gained concerning the Gospel and the Galilean influence to preaching or teaching the Gospel in the coming liturgical year
7. critique a contemporary presentation of Jesus’ setting within his Jewish context.

ASSESSMENT
A 3000 word critical review of Sean Freyne, Jesus, a Jewish Galilean: A New Reading of the Jesus Story. London: T&T Clark, 2004. (50%); A 3000 word essay – which takes on text from the Gospel studied and explores the significance of studying it in the Biblical land. (50%)

CONTENTS
This unit presents a study of selected turning points in the history of the Western Church from apostolic times to the close of the second millennium. Through the prism of major traditions and methods of historical enquiry, in their application to church history as a specific discipline, it examines the key events, processes and personalities which have shaped and coloured the narrative of western Christianity. An exploration of the social, political and cultural worlds that have affected the life of the Church will provide a basis and a methodology for further more critical historical study of the Christian faith in its various doctrinal, spiritual, artistic and social expressions.

PREREQUISITES
None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. articulate the scope and methodology of church history as a specific discipline
2. identify the principal epochs of the history of the Western Church
3. analyse and evaluate the diverse cultural expressions of Western Christianity
4. demonstrate the ability to find, use and interpret a range of historical sources
5. demonstrate advanced proficiency in historical research and writing.

ASSESSMENT
2000 word primary source study (35%); 4000 word research essay (65%)

Lecturer:  RICHARD BLANDFORD
Foundations of Australian Catholicism

Elective unit
1st semester Tuesday evening (Min. No. 8)

Content
This unit will explore the history of the Catholic Church in Australia. It will examine its foundations and its development phases through lay beginnings, the Benedictine 'Dream', the rise of the Irish Hierarchy and the eventual 'Australianisation' of its clerical leadership, to its current leadership crisis. Among key issues studied will be the influence of 'Sectarianism', encroaching secularisation, the Church in the colonial political and social environments, the influence of the religious orders and the Church's stance regarding education. The unit will also consider the changing face of Catholicism following two Vatican Councils (1869-1870 and 1962 – 1965). It will also examine the significance of women in the Australian Catholic Church, its relations with the Vatican Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, relations with other Christian traditions, missions to indigenous cultures and the impacts of migration.

Prerequisites
One unit in Church History at level one

Learning Outcomes
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. read critically the key primary and secondary sources of Australian Church History
2. articulate the main phases of the Australian Catholic Church's development
3. critique the various perspectives on sectarianism as a major force in Australian religion
4. evaluate Catholic attitudes to the marginalised (women, indigenous peoples, poor)
5. discuss the major impacts of critical events in the life of the Australian Catholic Church
6. evaluate the contributions of major figures of the Australian Catholic Church
7. analyse current trends to identify possible futures for Australian Catholicism

Assessment

CH9214Y  DEATH, DYING AND GRIEF THROUGH THE LENS OF ART AND SPIRITUALITY

2nd semester  Elective Unit  Crosslisted DS9214Y (Min. No. 8)
The first and last class will meet face to face on a Wednesday evening; the remaining classes will be on-line.

CONTENT
This unit applies insights drawn from Christian spirituality, and material culture as well as pastoral practice to study a variety of responses to death, dying and bereavement. Students will be expected to engage with historical and contemporary theories and practices dealing with death and grieving. Reflection on, and critical assessment of, these practices will acquaint students with an understanding of the needs of the terminally ill and the bereaved.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. identify how a work of art (of your choice) expresses cultural and spiritual attitudes to death and dying
2. articulate the foundational beliefs that underlie two Christian rituals surrounding death and dying
3. critically assess several theories of grieving
4. identify (with visual examples) how art in the past might have enhanced pastoral care of the dying and the bereaved
5. critically assess two or three themes that have emerged in recent literature on how Christian spirituality relates to death, dying and bereavement.

ASSESSMENT: Choose One of the following alternatives:
1. Provide a personally developed art work in any medium which displays your engagement with one or more themes studied in this unit. The work will be accompanied by a critical reflection. 6000 words (100%)
OR
2. 6000 word Research essay (100%)

CATHOLIC SOCIAL THOUGHT IN AUSTRALIA AND OVERSEAS

Elective Unit (Min. No. 8)
1st semester Monday evening Crosslisted as DT9230Y

CONTENT
This unit will examine Catholic social and political ideas and movements in Europe and elsewhere, and evaluate their impact and interpretation in Australia. It will consider key issues in Catholic social movements in Europe, outline the backgrounds to the papal social encyclicals, and trace their development internationally to Popes John Paul II, Benedict XVI and Francis.

PREREQUISITES
A Foundational unit in Church History or Moral Theology

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. show competence in reading and interpreting key social encyclicals
2. demonstrate the importance of key Catholic social concepts: the common good, solidarity, social and distributive justice, capitalism, communism, socialism, corporatism
3. analyse debates about Catholic social movements, with an ability to analyse and critique various views
4. critique the strengths and weaknesses in the development of Catholic social thought
5. evaluate the social and political contexts in the development of social justice traditions in the Church

INTRODUCTION TO THEOLOGY IN A GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

1st Semester Wednesday evening

Foundation unit

(Min. No. 8

CONTENT

This course is an introduction to Catholic systematic theology from a global perspective. The first part of the course treats the nature of Revelation, Faith and Theology and reflects on several contemporary understandings of Anselm’s classic definition of theology--faith seeking understanding--in the light of global theological consciousness. The second part treats the communal, ecclesial nature of theology, first as a source for doing theology, secondly as a source and parameters of theology in tradition, and third as setting the parameters of theology through the church’s teaching office. The third part of the course deals with theological method from the perspective of procedure (historical theology and theological reflection, theology as critical reflection on praxis) and starting point (models of contextual theology, Catholic method). The final part of the course is a survey of the history of theology from a global perspective, including theologians from the East, women, recognizing early theologians from North Africa, and--in the twentieth century--recognizing theology as being done from all parts of the world.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. identify and describe the sources of theology
2. critically assess the history of theological development in the Catholic tradition
3. analyse and assess attempts at contextual theologies in the global Church
4. compose a theological statement using a particular theological method
5. discuss the strengths and limitations of the role the magisterium plays in the development of theology

Elective Unit (Min. No. 8)
1st semester Thursday evening

CONTENT
This unit involves systematic reflection on the life, person, mission and ministry of Jesus Christ. It focuses on Jesus’ central message: the Reign of God. The unit commences with a reflection on the relationship between the Jesus of history and the Christ of faith. This leads to an inquiry into the scope, achievements and limits of the quest for the historical Jesus. In turn this opens into a consideration of the following themes: the Jewish world of Jesus; the Reign of God in his mission, message and actions; his sufferings, crucifixion and death; his resurrection and its impact on the Jesus movement; New Testament interpretations; Jesus’ identity in history and tradition; some special questions, including his role as liberator and saviour, and his continuing relevance for individuals, the Church, and the world.

PREREQUISITES
BN8000Y and a foundation unit in Systematic Theology (CT)

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. express the relationship between the Jesus of history and the Christ of faith
2. demonstrate an understanding of the issues involved in the quest for the historical Jesus
3. articulate and explain the significance of the Reign of God as the core of his public life and ministry
4. explain the Christian teaching that his death and resurrection is the culmination of his life and mission
5. articulate an understanding of his continuing presence and activity in the Church
6. critique the Chalcedonian definition of the identity of Jesus Christ
7. demonstrate the ability to engage with relevant contemporary literature in Christology.

ASSESSMENT

CT9012Y THE CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE OF GOD: THE HOLY TRINITY

Elective unit
2nd semester Thursday morning (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
This unit aims to explore the meaning and centrality of the doctrine of the Trinity in Christian faith and doctrine. From its biblical sources through its development in East and West and its later decline, it is examined in its contemporary exposition in theologians of different traditions. Further study will include the trinitarian shaping of other major doctrines and the bearing of the Trinity on some important questions in contemporary discussion.

PREREQUISITES
CT8000Y and CT9011Y

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. describe the scriptural origins of Christian faith in God as the Holy Trinity
2. identify the main developments that have occurred in the Church’s trinitarian doctrine
3. critically evaluate the resurgence of trinitarian theology in the twentieth century, including social and feminist theologies.
4. articulate some practical ramifications of trinitarian faith for spirituality and Christian praxis
5. analyse and evaluate a variety of approaches to trinitarian theology, both historical and contemporary
6. demonstrate development of research and argumentation skills appropriate to study at postgraduate level.

CHURCH: SIGN AND SACRAMENT OF GOD’S KINGDOM

Elective unit
2nd semester Tuesday evening (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
This unit examines the theology of the church grounded in Jesus’ preaching of God’s kingdom and oriented to the mission of that kingdom. Topics covered will include: the origin of the church in Jesus Christ and his mission from God; the Holy Spirit as the life and soul of the church; New Testament images and metaphors for the church; historical and contemporary models of church and mission, and especially that of sign and sacrament; contextualisation and inculturation; the relation between the church and the world; the relation between the local church and the wider church; the marks of the church; church order, organisation, authority and reform; ecumenical issues.

PREREQUISITES
Three foundational units, including one unit in Systematic Theology

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate an understanding of the relationship between the Kingdom of God and the church
2. critically evaluate a variety of theological approaches to church and mission
3. critically evaluate the ecclesiological significance and contribution of Lumen Gentium and Gaudium et Spes
4. articulate a theology of the nature and mission of the church
5. apply a theology of the church and its mission to a particular contemporary context.

“Where there is salvation, its name is Jesus; its grammar is the cross and resurrection” (Rowan Williams). This unit explores the key theological questions in the doctrine of salvation: what are we saved from? What are we saved for? What is the means by which we are saved? How wide is the scope of salvation? Drawing on a variety of ways in which the Christian community has spoken of salvation, the unit will undertake a critical evaluation of a range of classical and modern approaches to salvation.

PREREQUISITES
A foundational unit in CT Systematic Theology

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. identify the biblical roots for Christian understandings of salvation
2. analyse and compare at least two approaches to salvation from within the Christian tradition
3. describe and evaluate the consequences of these approaches or images for an understanding of the means of salvation
4. critically engage with the issue of the scope of salvation.
5. Demonstrate a critical awareness of at least one classical and one modern treatment of salvation.

HUMAN PERSON: ORIENTED TO COMMUNION

Elective unit
2nd semester Tuesday evening (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
Communion with God defines who we are as human persons, as we respond to God’s call, revealed fully in Jesus Christ. This unit explores the dynamic of communion as essential and constitutive in being human persons. It is a theology of communion that permeates any understanding of grace and the activity of the Spirit. Topics investigated within this context of communion include: humanity created in the image of God; human freedom; sin; individuality and community; body, soul and grace; nature and grace; spirit and grace; and justification.

PREREQUISITES
At least one foundational unit in Systematic Theology; Two foundational units in Biblical studies highly recommended.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. articulate and assess a theology of communion in relation to the human person
2. identify and evaluate the theological understanding of grace in relation to persons
3. critically assess the biblical foundations to a communion anthropology
4. describe and evaluate the shift in the theological tradition from a individualistic concept of person to persons-in-relationship
5. assess and articulate a theological understanding of the dynamic tension revealed in nature/grace; body/soul; individuality/community
6. critically evaluate the theological understanding of sanctification and justification within a communion anthropology
7. demonstrate advanced research skills appropriate to study at graduate level.

CONTENTS
This unit aims to present with ecumenical sensitivity the origin, meaning and purpose of the Christian sacraments. It begins by outlining foundational concepts upon which contemporary sacramental theology rests, including the importance of symbol, ritual, Jesus as primordial sacrament and the Church as fundamental sacrament. Using this framework, the unit then undertakes a survey of the seven sacraments, paying particular attention to their historical, symbolic, liturgical and pastoral dimensions. Finally, the unit explores and evaluates more recent directions within sacramental theology as a discipline.

PREREQUISITES
One foundational unit in Systematic Theology

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. articulate the importance of foundational concepts such as symbol and ritual in defining and describing sacraments
2. discuss the importance of Jesus Christ as primordial sacrament and the Church as fundamental sacrament in defining and describing sacraments
3. identify significant developments in the historical evolution of the sacraments
4. analyse the sacraments in terms of their key historical developments, symbolic meanings, and liturgical expression
5. explain how the sacraments manifest the presence and work of the Holy Spirit
   1. articulate the eschatological, missiological and ethical dimensions of the sacraments
   2. evaluate recent research and directions within sacramental theology as a discipline.

CONTENT
This unit serves as an introduction to the canon law of the Catholic Church. Emphasis will be placed on the historical development of the Canon Law and its relationship with theology. The basic content of the unit will be found in the 1983 Code of Canon Law and the unit is designed to provide an overview of this document with particular attention being paid to the basic principles of interpretation of the law and their pastoral application in areas of general relevance such as the People of God and the Sacraments. Topics covered will include General Norms, Persons in the Code of Canon Law, Consecrated Life and the Sacraments, except Orders.

PREREQUISITES
At least one unit in moral theology or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate a basic knowledge and understanding of the history and development of law in the Church
2. discourse critically on the inter-relationship between theology and canon law
3. critically apply the principles of interpretation of canon law to concrete situations
4. demonstrate familiarity with the overall structure and general content of the 1983 Code of Canon Law
5. demonstrate detailed knowledge of the major aspects of the laws relating to the People of God and the sacraments and the ability to interpret and apply them
6. utilise those sections of the 1983 Code of Canon Law that apply to specific pastoral situations.

ASSESSMENT
Two 1000 word tutorial papers (20% each); 4000 word essay (60%)

DC9012Y  CANON LAW B
Elective unit
2nd semester Monday morning (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
This unit provides further examination of the 1983 Code of Canon Law with emphasis on selected topics relevant to an understanding of the role of law in the life of the Church. Topics to be covered include: the Supreme Authority of the Catholic Church; Particular Churches and their Groupings; the Internal Ordering of Particular Churches; Governance; Orders; Sacred Ministers or Clerics; the Teaching Office of the Church; and Temporal Goods. Sanctions in the Church and processes will be covered as required.

PREREQUISITES
Canon Law A

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. apply the principles of interpretation of Canon Law to concrete situations
2. articulate the principles of law relating to the hierarchical structure and general governance of the Catholic Church
3. discuss the laws of the Church relating to the Sacrament of Orders
4. demonstrate understanding of major aspects of the laws relating to governance, particular churches, the teaching office of the Church and temporal goods
5. critically apply the laws of the church to everyday pastoral situations in parish and diocesan life.

ASSESSMENT
Two tutorial papers of 1000 words each (20% each); 4000 word essay (60%)

Lecturer: ROSEMARIE JOYCE CSB
CONTENT
This unit examines the liturgy as pivotal to the life of the baptised and as a celebration of faith that gives their lives gospel shape and calls them to mission. It explores a theological and pastoral understanding of the rites and examines their symbolic actions, languages, patterns and corporate nature through the lens of the church’s liturgical praxis. A core component of the unit will be ‘doing’ and reflecting on short rituals from the liturgy of the church, normally elements of the rites of Lent, the Triduum and Easter.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. identify the components of the principle rites of the Christian liturgy
2. explain the core principles governing liturgical celebration
3. discuss a basic theology of Christian liturgy deriving from the Paschal Mystery
4. articulate an understanding of Christian liturgy as a dynamic complex of word – sung and spoken – symbol and rite
5. discuss the relationship between liturgy and mission
6. engage in informed and constructive evaluation of particular celebrations

ASSESSMENT
Summary of four key articles – 1000 words (20%); 1000 word seminar paper (20%); 4000 word essay (60%)

Lecturer: MARGARET SMITH SGS
Elective unit
2nd semester Tuesday morning (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
Building on prior studies and/or experience in Liturgy, this unit comprises three continuous and contiguous elements which overlap and interweave throughout the unit:
- information relating to the spirit and structure of liturgical celebrations as essentially communal and participatory;
- reflection on these as developed in the Liturgical books and commentaries, and as experienced in a variety of situations;
- experience which prepares presiders, particularly, for their role in a variety of Liturgical celebrations in the Catholic tradition.

PREREQUISITES
Prior studies and/or experience in liturgical celebration

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate understanding of the spirit and structure of Liturgical celebration in the Christian community as outlined in the basic Catholic Liturgical texts
2. reflect critically on the implications for the way Liturgical celebration is, and should be, experienced in Christian communities
3. preside and participate in Liturgical celebrations professionally and proficiently
4. evaluate the service of ministry implied in ‘full, conscious and active participation’ in Liturgical celebrations as determined by the Second Vatican Council.
5. design and compose liturgical celebrations appropriate to selected ecclesial occasions.
6. form lay ministers to preside effectively at Sunday Services of Word and Communion in the absence of an ordained minister.

ASSESSMENT
Weekly Journal Reflections: Reading & Praxis (2500 words) (40%); Practicum and Critical Reflection (3500 words)(60%)

INTRODUCTION TO THE THEOLOGY OF MISSION

Foundational Unit
1st semester Monday morning

CONTENT
The unit will begin with the conceptual clarification of the terms mission and missiology followed by an analysis of the biblical foundations of mission and its historical developments leading to the contemporary issues. It will also examine the key Catholic documents on mission.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. Discuss the meaning of the terms mission and missiology
2. discuss the biblical foundation of mission
3. describe the missionary nature of Christian vocation
4. analyse the impact of colonialism on mission
5. demonstrate the origin of mission in the nature of God
6. evaluate the approach to mission which sees it as the vocation of all the baptised

ASSESSMENT
2000 word tutorial presentation and case study in mission (40%); 4000 word essay describing the missionary nature of the church and critically examining how it can be practiced in contemporary Australia (60%)

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Lecturer: JACOB KAVUNKAL SVD
Elective Unit
1st semester Thursday evening (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
The unit is designed to explore the significance of inter-religious dialogue in a multi-religious context. It will underline the theological unity based on the common origin and destiny of all, the divine Mystery, who is in dialogue with humanity. The unit will examine biblical and theological foundations for inter-religious dialogue. It will also address related challenges and opportunities and engage in some actual dialogue, leading to a harmonious society in the Australian context and beyond.

PREREQUISITES
At least one foundational unit in Missiology or Systematic Theology

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. articulate an understanding of interreligious dialogue
2. characterise it as an expression of the church’s mission
3. compare interreligious dialogue with the mission of proclamation
4. Illustrate how interreligious dialogue is an experience of rootedness and openness drawing on their own experience of interreligious dialogue
5. identify interreligious dialogue as an expression of the divine reign
6. discuss the relation between world peace and interreligious dialogue.

ASSESSMENT
2000 word tutorial presentation (40%); 4000 Word essay on religions and world peace (60%)

DM9015Y  RECENT APPROACHES TO MISSION
Elective Unit  (Min. No. 8)
2nd semester Thursday morning

CONTENT
The unit begins with a description of the new world order with its characteristics of violence, globalization and migration, and showing how the bible is a narrative of a God of life. This is followed by a presentation of some of the current mission practices like fighting exclusion and inequality through an insistence on human rights, reconciliation and advocacy. This can lead the students to reflect on discipleship today.

PREREQUISITES
An introductory unit in Missiology/Theology

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. discuss three challenges human society faces today
2. discuss how Christian mission is a service to life
3. illustrate two relevant expressions of mission
4. compare these interpretations of mission with former missiologies which gave priority to baptism
5. analyse the understanding of mission in Evangelii Gaudium
6. draw up two relevant mission practices for Australia

ASSESSMENT
2000 word essay and tutorial presentation and discussion (40%); 4000 word essay on Lk 4:19, “The Acceptable Year of the Lord,” critically presenting any one of the recent approaches to mission as an expression of the acceptable year of the Lord. (60%)

Lecturer:  JACOB KAVUNKAL SVD
LIBERATING MISSION: WHEN GOSPEL MEETS CULTURE

Elective Unit 1st semester Tuesday morning (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
The unit explores understandings and realities of the meeting between cultures and the Gospel. By examining Thomas Grenham’s writings on theological inculturation and Kathryn Tanner’s work on ‘Theories of Culture’, the students are challenged to move towards a ‘process’ rather than static based approach to, and description of Gospel contextualisation, by becoming more attuned to the developing understandings of both ‘Mission’ and ‘Culture’. Unit content draws on the understanding and experience of the student while aiming to describe a spirituality for mission in today’s inter-religious and inter-cultural world.

PREREQUISITES
DT8330Y or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. describe understandings and theories of culture in human life
2. explore aspects of cultural anthropology and of church teaching and practice that related to mission historically
3. identify biblical and theological texts which provide key learning for missionary spirituality
4. present a critical reflection on a selected aspect of ‘liberating mission’
5. evaluate situations and experiences of intercultural dialogue and gospel inculturation
6. demonstrate an ability for personal critical reflection in terms of a spirituality for mission in today’s world

ASSESSMENT
1500 word Tutorial Paper (30%); 4500 word essay (70%)

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Lecturer: ROBYN REYNOLDS OLSH
CONTENTS
This unit will explore two important areas of understanding underpinning good pastoral practice: human development theory, and theological notions of the self. After exploring theories of human psychological development, the unit will explore how we come to understand the self within a pastoral setting. This will involve developing a theological understanding of the person within context: personal, familial, social and global. This unit will explore key concepts in developmental theory as well as selected theological works that bridge the gap between pastoral psychology and pastoral practice.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate an understanding of the main theories of, and approaches to, human development
2. compare and contrast selected theoretical positions (both theological and psychological) on human development and the theology of the self
3. identify key notions of the self within different social and cultural contexts
4. demonstrate an understanding of the place of human development theory, and a theological understanding of the self, within pastoral practice
5. formulate pastoral practice strategies with this understanding in mind
6. demonstrate how this understanding can apply in complex and challenging pastoral situations.

ASSESSMENT
1500 word essay demonstrating a clear understanding of human development theory (20%);
1500 word seminar paper on one specific cultural understanding of the self (20%);
3000 word essay demonstrating how human development theory, and theological perspectives on the self, are relevant to a pastoral practice environment. (60%)

Lecturer: DAVID LEARY OFM
DP9003Y PASTORAL COUNSELLING: THEORY AND PRACTICE II

Elective Unit  2nd semester Tuesday morning  (Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
Following on from Counselling: Theory and Practice I, this unit will begin by exploring, in broad terms, the process of assessment, referral and counselling practice within a pastoral care environment. The unit content will then focus in on, and explore, a number of therapeutic models for pastoral care and counselling intervention. Based on current research, this will allow the student to explore and assess the therapeutic theories, key concepts and constructs, and therapeutic systems most appropriate for the pastoral care environment. The unit material will lead the student to an understanding of evidence-based practice: what works, and for whom, in pastoral counselling. The unit will then explore the ethical and professional issues involved with engaging in pastoral counselling and pastoral care.

PREREQUISITES
DP9011Y Counselling: Theory and Practice

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. understand the overall approach and process of pastoral care and pastoral counselling in the contemporary pastoral setting.
2. articulate the key concepts and constructs of pastoral counselling and therapeutic work.
3. explore, compare and contrast the main schools of thought regarding counselling in the pastoral setting.
4. analyse and appraise the available research on evidenced-based counselling practice.
5. construct and describe appropriate pastoral counselling interventions using case material to illustrate a clear understanding.
6. articulate and critically evaluate a synthesis of theory and practice in respect of pastoral counselling within a complex pastoral environment, demonstrating an ability to implement theory into practice.

ASSESSMENT
1500 word essay (25%); 2000 word essay (30%); 2500 word essay (45%)

Elective Unit  (Min. No. 8)
1st semester Tuesday morning

CONTENT
Foundational counselling skills are also life skills. This unit explores a model of professional counselling and its attendant skills into which other models can be integrated. It also challenges the student to reflect on and enrich the many relationships of everyday life.

PREREQUISITES
Each student will be asked to fill in an application form at the time of registration and have an interview with the lecturer. Successful applicants will be notified immediately. The lecturer reserves the right to limit entry into the unit.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. articulate the sequential steps of an overall counselling model
2. demonstrate how to begin a counselling session and to connect to the client
3. move beyond the telling of the story to ask what changes are sought
4. plan the first small steps of the change process
5. engage in self-critique to see where are the blind spots in the helping process
6. explore critically other models on the basis of knowledge gained of this model
7. demonstrate the basics of doing an initial interview, and continuing into a second interview.

ASSESSMENT
Weekly 15 minute tests (20%); recorded counselling session (student-to-student) with critical self-critique (60%); 1500 word essay (20%)

AIM AND CONTENT
Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) is recognised as an educational experience and a dimension of Christian pastoral ministry. Through supervised encounters with people, and the feedback from peers and the people to whom ministry is offered, students develop new awareness of their own humanity and of the needs of those to whom they minister. From theological reflection on specific human situations, they gain new understanding of the human situation.

PREREQUISITES:
One unit in Biblical Studies, Systematic theology and pastoral Theology & Ministry Studies

ADMISSION
At present CPE programmes are available in several centres in Victoria:
  Alfred & Community CPE Centre – 9076 3138;
  Austin Hospital CPE Centre –
    Based at Heidelberg Repatriation Hospital – 9496 2895;
  Barwon Health, Geelong Hospital – 5222 4212 or 0409 255 146;
  Mercy Centre – Mercy Hospital for Women – 8458 4688;
  Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre – paula.donnoli@petermac.org 9656 1301
  Royal Melbourne Hospital – 9342 2155
  Southern Health CPE Programme –
    Monash Clayton, Pastoral Care Office – 9594 2332
    Casey Berwick – 8768 1583
  Uniting CPE - the John Paver Centre – 9251 5489
    Email: andy.calder@victas.uca.org.au

Contact should be made to the association of supervisors in other States or New Zealand for alternatives outside Victoria.

Admission to these units is by selection on the basis of written application and personal interview. Preference may be given to students who have completed two or three years of theological education. Concurrent enrolment in the unit through YTU, as well as through the CPE provider is essential for credit to be obtained.

Contact for application forms should be made to individual Centres. Further information is available on website www.aspea.org.au.

METHOD
Each unit consists of 400 hours of supervised learning in pastoral ministry for a group of between three and six peers, including ten hours of individual supervision, sixty hours of peer group supervision and 150 hours in the practice of pastoral ministry. 60 hours are allocated for personal written reflection on experience and written unit requirements. The unit can be completed over a minimum of ten and a maximum of forty-four weeks.

ASSESSMENT
Progress is assessed by the Clinical Supervisor and will include written reports, case studies, evaluations and theological reflections.
CONTENT
The unit addresses understandings of spirituality and various approaches to its study (e.g. (i) historical, (ii) theological and (iii) anthropological). Traditional Christian spiritualities, both apostolic and mystical are examined, as well as other selected spiritualities, including indigenous and eco-spiritualities. The unit includes a transformational perspective, inviting students to relate the study of spirituality to their own personal contexts.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. Articulate the fundamental nature and the methods of spirituality
2. Discourse on the development of spirituality over time
3. Give a critical reflection on a selected aspect of Christian spirituality
4. Analyse traditional and contemporary approaches to spirituality
5. Make a critical personal response to selected aspects of the unit.

ASSESSMENT
1500 word tutorial presentation (20%); 1500 word integrative assignment (20%);
3000 word essay (60%)

Saturdays 9.30-4.30 August 6th, September 17th & 24th

CONTENT
This unit aims to build on the introductory unit in moral theology by exploring a range of important theories and practical issues in moral theology today. The areas to be explored include issues such as major trends in contemporary theological ethics, authority in the Church and the problem of theological dissent, moral issues concerning human life, reproductive technologies, abortion, surrogacy, euthanasia, the Church’s role in the arena of politics and public life, problems of divorce/remarriage, the public agenda on gay/lesbian marriage/union, human migration, corporate social responsibility, and capital punishment.

PREREQUISITES
One foundational unit in Moral Theology or its equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. critique the key literature, both secular and religious, on a number of current ethical questions
2. identify the foundations and developments in the Catholic tradition regarding its positions on a range of ethical issues
3. critically evaluate the ethical positions of both secular and religious sources on a chosen topic
4. apply Christian ethical methodology to current debates on key ethical issues
5. present a cogent and sustained argument for a position taken on a specified issue
6. use prime sources for a research essay, present their positions accurately, and critique them
7. analyse and evaluate practical and complex moral questions from human experience that will be given during the course.

ASSESSMENT
2000 word tutorial paper (30%); 4000 word essay (70%); or for those not opting to do the tutorial presentation a 6000-word research essay (100%)

EQUITY AND SUSTAINABILITY
Elective Unit
2nd semester Tuesday evening
(Min. No. 8)

CONTENT
Inspired by the social encyclical of Pope Francis, Laudato Si’, this unit investigates the global crises in economics, social inequality and climate change, and responses from Christian social traditions. It explores debates about sustainability in the light of global warming, and what this will mean for economic development, particularly for the alleviation of hunger and poverty through the Sustainable Development Goals. It will explore the relationships between religious belief, economics and the environment, and the role of values in these debates.

PREREQUISITES
One foundational unit in Moral Theology or its equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. Identify and analyse key factors in the debates over economics and/or sustainable development
2. evaluate and critique the arguments examined in the unit
3. demonstrate understanding of the moral principles involved in economic and social development
4. analyse the moral dimensions of one or more economic or environmental issues and their consequences for human development
5. critically evaluate major moral aspects in current economic and/or environmental issues
6. evaluate the responsibilities of the churches in relation to current issues in economic policy and environmental sustainability.

CONTENT:
The Siloam program is recognised by the Australian Ecumenical Council for Spiritual Direction (www.spiritualdirection.org.au), as meeting its guidelines for the formation of spiritual directors. Siloam is committed to the standards for formation set by AECSD and to the norms for ethical practice set by AECSD. Initial issues in spiritual direction formation and practice are outlined in the documents of AECSD – for example, the nature of the relationship between director and directee, confidentiality, protocol for spiritual direction meetings, ethical practice, the place of supervision. These issues are basic to the Siloam program.

Siloam is an integrated program. The study and practice of spiritual direction are based on anthropological, psychological and theological teachings found in Bernard Lonergan’s theory Operations of Conscious Intentionality and Luigi Rulla’s theory of Theocentric Self-transcendence. The content of the program, then, includes modules on the human person, personal vocation, personal dynamics and the dynamics of ministerial relationships, the interconnectedness of relationships, ethics and professional standards in ministry, grace and conversion, religious experience (including religious experience as the focus of spiritual direction), prayer and the human experience of God, the discernment of spirits, and spiritual direction practice.

The transformative process of integrating one’s ministry as a spiritual director and one’s personal development is facilitated further by Siloam’s ongoing individual supervision and group interaction.

FOUNDATIONAL CONCEPTS IN SPIRITUAL DIRECTION I

This unit can be undertaken as full time (DS8701Y) or part time (DS8711Y) and (DS8721Y)

CONTENT
The unit explores a theology of religious experience and the experience of grace. Beginning with students’ spiritual autobiographies, the unit develops an understanding of the nature of religious experience through appreciation and interpretation of their own personal experience. Students will also reflect on the place of revelation in the theology of religious experience.

PREREQUISITES
Enrolment in Graduate Diploma in Spiritual Direction at Heart of Life Centre

COREQUISITES
Full Time = DS8703Y and DS8705Y
Part Time = DS8713Y and DS8715Y

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate a critical understanding of the theological underpinnings of the ministry of spiritual direction
2. interpret the varieties of religious experience they encounter in their ministry as spiritual directors
3. identify the movement of grace in their own personal experience and the experience of those to whom they minister and
4. develop a theology of grace on the basis of their experience.

ASSESSMENT
1500 word paper on Goal Setting (25%); 1500 word reflection paper / Personal Grace (25%); 3000 word assignment / Religious Experience (50%)

BIBLIOGRAPHY  * = set texts recommended for purchase

Lecturers: PAUL BEIRNE, MARY COLOE PBVM and ROBYN REYNOLDS OLSH
This unit can be undertaken as full time (DS8702Y) or part time (DS8712Y) and (DS8722Y)

CONTENT
The unit explores relationships and interdependence as foundational concepts in the practice of spiritual direction. It explores the deep connectedness of all life, drawing on the insights of modern science, Christian theology and biblical scholarship. As well, the influence of the visual and narrative arts, images and imagination, on our religious experience and ministry is explored experientially. The unit also covers the discernment of spirits identifying the workings of God’s Spirit and spirits not-of-God, resulting in consolation and desolation. The implications of discernment for Christian decision-making are also explored.

PREREQUISITES
Enrolment and acceptance at Heart of Life Centre

COREQUISITES
Full Time = DS8704Y and DS8706Y
Part Time = DS8714Y and DS8716Y

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate a critical knowledge of the biblical and theological underpinnings of the ministry of spiritual direction
2. articulate an understanding of the process of discerning the spirits (towards God and away from God) informed by their own and others’ experience and the wisdom of the tradition
3. demonstrate an ability to apply this understanding to the actual practice of the ministry of spiritual direction
4. articulate their understanding and their responses to others’ story-telling and images, and apply this to their ministry
5. demonstrate awareness of the interconnectedness of all life and the relevance of ecological theology to the contemplative practice of spiritual direction.

ASSESSMENT
Written Assignment/Discernment (3000 words) (50%); Ecological Spirituality Project (1500 words) (25%); Stories and Images Project (1500 words) (25%)

BIBLIOGRAPHY * = set texts recommended for purchase

Lecturers: SUE RICHARDSON PBVM, MARY COLOE PBVM, and PETER MALONE MSC
This unit can be undertaken as full time (DS8703Y) or part time (DS8713Y) and (DS8723Y)

CONTENT
The unit covers the experience of conversion – turning points in one’s life, true and false self, Lonergan’s understanding on conversion – and psychological aspects of spiritual direction – a Christian anthropology of the human person and Luigi Rulla’s theory of self-transcendent consistency.

PREREQUISITES
Enrolment in Graduate Diploma in Spiritual Direction at Heart of Life Centre

COREQUISITES
Full Time = DS8701Y and DS8705Y
Part Time = DS8711Y and DS8715Y

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate an understanding of the anthropological, psychological and pastoral underpinnings of the ministry of spiritual direction
2. discuss the various ways of expressing the human encounter with God
3. identify how Lonergan’s understanding of the conversion processes can enhance the practice of spiritual direction
4. analyse critically the different theories of anthropology and their impact on approaches to spiritual direction ministry.

ASSESSMENT
2000 word reflection paper / Conversion (33%);
A take-home examination of 4000 words / Psychological Aspects of Spiritual Direction (66%)

INTERPERSONAL DYNAMICS IN SPIRITUAL DIRECTION II

This unit can be undertaken as full time (DS8704Y) or part time (DS8714Y) and (DS8724Y)

CONTENT
The unit covers both the human experience of God – a detailed study of God’s working in personal experience and consequent approaches to prayer -- and ethics and professional standards in ministry, with particular application to the ministry of spiritual direction. Each student will direct a retreat under supervision as part of this unit.

PREREQUISITE
Enrolment in Graduate Diploma in Spiritual Direction at Heart of Life Centre

COREQUISITES
Full time = DS8702Y and DS8706Y
Part time = DS8712Y and DS8716Y

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate an understanding of the anthropological, psychological and pastoral underpinnings of the ministry of spiritual direction
2. discuss the various ways of expressing the human encounter with God
3. critically evaluate different traditions of spirituality and their different approaches to the practice of prayer
4. integrate the ethics of spiritual direction in their own practice.

ASSESSMENT
3000 word reflection paper / Human Experience (50%); 1500 word reflection paper/ Ethics (25%); 1500 word critical reflection on the experience of leading a retreat under supervision (based on a journal) (25%)

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION PRACTICUM I

This unit can be undertaken as full time (DS8705Y) or part time (DS8715Y) and (DS8725Y)

CONTENT
The unit provides students with the opportunity to undertake spiritual direction under appropriate supervision and to reflect critically on that experience. Students are inducted into the processes and ministry of spiritual direction through focus on:

- the nature and boundaries of the relationship of direction
- confidentiality and appropriate consent
- procedures for referral
- the environment and protocols for spiritual direction
- the nature and boundaries of the supervisory relationship
- the different theories and praxis of spiritual direction and psychological counselling.

The unit includes individual and group supervision, individual and group evaluations, group interaction, and leadership of group prayer.

PREREQUISITES
Enrolment in Graduate Diploma in Spiritual Direction at Heart of Life Centre

COREQUISITES DS8701Y and DS8703Y

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. reflect critically on their relationship with another in spiritual direction
2. articulate clearly the impact of accompaniment on human and spiritual development
3. participate constructively in group supervision processes
4. articulate the integration of their theoretical learning, their ministerial practice, and their personal development.

ASSESSMENT
Ten critical reflections of at least 300 words each on issues of spiritual direction based on verbatim accounts of ministry, (50%); 1500 word case study (25%); 1500 word self-evaluation (at end of unit) (25%)

This unit introduces students to contemporary approaches to qualitative and quantitative research methodologies, with a particular focus on those that are most often used in research in the different disciplines within theology and ministry. It provides students with tools to select and apply those methodologies in the formulation of a research proposal. The unit outlines the methodological challenges, hermeneutical questions, and new directions for recent theological research, and the responses across various disciplines to those new developments. Students will be introduced to the skills, competencies and technical methods that are needed to conduct and present high quality research, including identifying a research topic, citation and bibliographical protocols, and obtaining ethics clearances.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. Demonstrate a working knowledge of terms, assumptions and approaches to research that are current in selected theological disciplines
2. Critically evaluate key research methodologies and identify those that are most relevant to their own research topics
3. Demonstrate a familiarity with research methods and protocols
4. Demonstrate an appreciation of the nature, purpose, ethical responsibilities and limitations of research in theological disciplines
5. Critically review scholarly literature relevant to their own research topics.

ASSESSMENT

Under the new regulations for the Master of Arts, the Master of Theological Studies, and the Master of Divinity, students must complete a capstone unit of at least 15 points value.

Capstone units are designed to be undertaken in the final stages of the degree program, and prompt the student to gather together the learning achieved in the degree. This may be focussed in a research essay, an integrative seminar, a ministry project, or a theological synthesis.

CAPSTONE UNITS AVAILABLE IN 2016

XS9992Y  Pastoral Leadership

CAPSTONE UNITS AVAILABLE IN OTHER YEARS

units not offered in 2016, but normally offered in alternate years

XS9991Y  A Faith to Live By
CONTENT
This unit focuses on the fact that graduates will, in many ways, assume positions of leadership within the Christian community. The roles will differ but this unit will help students develop principles and practices of leadership that are coherent with their personal faith commitment and their theological studies. Drawing on the sources of faith (Scripture, Tradition, experience) and the literature on leadership, students will develop methods for theological reflection, an understanding of the relationship between faith and community, an examination of qualities of leadership, pastoral planning skills, and creative approaches to the challenges that confront all who are called to leadership.

PREREQUISITES: At least 75 points of elective units (i.e., 5 units)

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate an understanding of biblical and theological approaches to leadership
2. evaluate Christian appropriations of contemporary leadership models
3. demonstrate creativity and initiative in the integration of the various disciplines of theology and their application to pastoral situations
4. develop approaches to theological reflection and pastoral planning
5. articulate a comprehensive approach to leadership in a faith community.

ASSESSMENT  6000 word assignment (100%)

Curriculum Objective

This capstone unit provides an opportunity for a student to integrate the knowledge and skills in the various disciplines of theology acquired during their course of study, and to apply these in a substantial focussed research project. The student will be expected to demonstrate advanced skills in exegesis, historical and theological methodologies as appropriate to the research topic, and skilled use of electronic databases, journals and other scholarly literature. As the capstone of a master’s programme, the student’s work will display a critical awareness of issues pertaining to the study of theology as an academic discipline.

Procedures for 12,000 Word Research Essays

Admissions and approvals

- Students indicate their intention to enrol in the 12,000 word research essay by including the unit ‘Research Essay’ on the standard University of Divinity admission or re-enrolment form for the relevant year. Students may elect to take the 12,000 word research essay in a single semester, or across two consecutive semesters.
- Students should discuss their proposed research topic with the Research Coordinator at their college, who can assist the student in finding a suitable supervisor.
- Students must complete a ‘12,000 word research essay: Unit outline’ form, including an outline of the topic to be researched, learning outcomes and the assessment schedule.

  This must be signed by the student, the College Research Coordinator, and the nominated supervisor and must be lodged with the University of Divinity Director of Research no later than the census date of the semester in which the essay will be written. Incomplete applications will be returned and will not be processed. The University of Divinity Director of Research will assess each application and, where the application is satisfactory, confirm the enrolment.
- The University of Divinity Director of Research will forward each completed ‘12,000 word research essay outline’ form to the appropriate Chair of Examiners for approval or amendment. Once an essay outline is approved, the University of Divinity Director of Research shall appoint examiners, in consultation with the supervisor and appropriate Chair of Examiners.

Ethics Clearance

Where the approved topic requires human subject research, or material not in the public domain, or for any other reason requires an ethics clearance, the student shall submit an application to the University of Divinity Human Research Ethics Committee, which shall exercise an expedited review process, in which the University of Divinity Director of Research and no more than two other members of HREC are involved.
The Graduate Certificate in Teaching Religious Education is principally, although not exclusively, designed to enable teachers to gain accreditation to teach Religious Education in a Catholic school. It is designed to fulfil the requirements of the Catholic Education Commission of Victoria Policy 1.7 Accreditation to Teach Religious Education in a Catholic School.

The Graduate Certificate allows those who have an undergraduate, or higher, qualification in another discipline to pursue theological and educational units that will enhance their ability to reflect on and communicate the Catholic faith.

It introduces students to contemporary scholarship in scripture, theology and religious education, so as to assist them in the planning, implementation and evaluation of programs of religious education.

STRUCTURE

Four (4) units of study (each worth 10 points) are taken normally over a two year period. These units are usually taught intensively over four days: either two Saturdays and two days in the school term holidays; or two consecutive days twice during the semester. The course is taught at Box Hill, Mildura and Ballarat with the latter two venues having different unit code numbers.

The required units are usually taken in the following order:

- DR8601Y Introduction to Scripture for Religious Educators
- DR8602Y Jesus Christ Today: In Church, Mission and Sacraments
- DR8603Y Foundations of Religious Education
- DR8604Y Making (Christian) Choices in Life: Value Added Approach

In addition one 5 point unit (DR8605Y Integrative Exercise) is taken concurrently over the duration of the course.

FUNDING

Many students are sponsored by the relevant Catholic Education Office. Enquiries related to funding should initially be directed to the Accreditation Officer at Catholic Education Melbourne or the teacher’s principal in the Ballarat Diocese.

PREREQUISITE

Undergraduate degree or equivalent to enrol in the course.

Normally, successful completion of the first year units is a prerequisite for undertaking the second year units. The reason is that the units are sequenced as part of the curriculum for the course.
INTRODUCTION TO SCRIPTURE FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATORS

DR8601Y Box Hill; DR8621Y Mildura; DR8641Y Ballarat
(Min. No. 8)
Course: GCTRE
Unit Value: 10 points
See page 164 for schedule of dates

CONTENT
This unit introduces teachers to the Scriptures by focussing on particular sections of the First (Old) and Second (New) Testaments and how these are interpreted within the Catholic tradition. It provides an overview of: the relationship between Scripture and Revelation, principles and methods of biblical interpretation, the significance of the Exodus and the Sinai covenant within Judaism and Christianity, the social, political and religious context of first century CE Judaism, and the formation of the Gospels. Passages will be chosen from Genesis 1-11, Exodus 1-14, Mark’s Gospel and Matthew 1-2 and Luke 1-2.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. recognise and describe the role of Scripture as witness to God’s revelation for members of the Jewish and Christian faiths
2. understand and explain why Scripture was written, and is read, in particular social, political and religious contexts
3. demonstrate an understanding that the Gospels present different ‘portraits’ of Jesus
4. identify methods of interpretation and engage in basic literary analysis of texts
5. apply learnings to support a position on the appropriate uses of Scripture in religious education

ASSESSMENT
2000 word exegetical exercise (50%); 2000 word essay (50%)

BIBLIOGRAPHY  * = set texts recommended for purchase

Lecturers: ROSE MARIE PROSSER, MARY COLOE PBVM and MARY REABURN NDS
CONTENT
This unit seeks to present with ecumenical sensitivity a general introduction to the origin, nature and development of the Church of Jesus Christ as the community of his followers. This entails an examination of the question ‘who is Jesus?’ On this foundation the unit presents the Church itself as the sign and instrument of Jesus Christ today, for the coming of the reign of God on earth. It is in this context that sacraments are understood as signs of the loving presence and self-giving of God in Christ. In developing this point the unit sketches the origin, nature and development of the Church’s ritual sacraments in reflecting and sustaining the Church in its mission. The unit’s consistent focus is on the whole Church as the Spirit-filled People of God and Body of Christ, and on the presence of the Holy Spirit in the life, sacraments, mission and ministries of the Church.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. outline the origin of the Church from the person of Jesus Christ and his early disciples
2. describe how the mission of the Church in the world today continues the mission of Jesus Christ
3. identify particular human experiences as possible signs and paths to the mystery of God
4. outline how the early Christians understood themselves as communities of Christ and their sacraments as celebrating their shared commitment to Christ and his mission.
5. explain how the Church’s ritual sacraments originate in both the Christ-event and in the Church’s response
6. describe the role of the Holy Spirit as the life and soul of the Church, its mission, its ministries, and its sacraments

ASSESSMENT
Two 2000 word essays (50% each)

Lecturers: GREG BRETT CM and MICHAEL A KELLY CSsR
CONTENT
This unit examines foundational issues concerning the nature, purpose, context and practice of religious education in the Catholic Christian tradition. The focus is on Catholic schooling in Australia and is informed by church documents, clarification of current terminology used in regard to religious education, and an explanation of the sources of revelation. Participants are introduced to the history of Catholic schooling in Australia and to the work of contemporary theorists of religious education. While emphasising the importance of Catholic identity and the roles of prayer, ritual, liturgy and social justice in the maintenance of that identity, there is also an exploration of the possibilities of enrichment through interfaith dialogue.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. articulate an understanding of the nuances of meaning in the term “religious education” and of the critical role played by context in the delivery of religious education
2. identify and explain the roles of scripture, tradition and experience in the processes of religious education
3. demonstrate knowledge of the social, political and religious context that gave rise to Catholic schools and of their evolution to the present
4. recognise, explain and assess the possibilities of some contemporary approaches to “religious education”
5. develop and critically evaluate a unit of work in religious education for delivery to a specific group of students
6. identify the roles of prayer, ritual, liturgy and social justice in the maintenance of Catholic identity and the possibilities of enrichment through interfaith dialogue

ASSESSMENT
2000 word essay 50%; a unit of work (2000 words) 50%

CONTENT
This unit has a threefold purpose. Drawing on scripture and Catholic theological tradition, the unit aims to provide a framework for understanding the nature and place of moral decision making in Christian living. It will explore methods and strategies for teaching Christian morality in Catholic schools, and provide opportunities for teachers to integrate their study of the scriptures, tradition and the sacraments into their own faith and professional development. Areas to be studied include the meaning of Christian morality, sources of moral knowledge, human freedom, sin and redemption, conscience formation, meaning and function of Church authority, and a strategy for making moral decisions in accordance with Church teaching.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. identify the process of moral decision making in regard to current ethical questions
2. articulate the Catholic moral tradition on relevant issues
3. discuss current moral issues objectively, critically, and intelligently
4. apply Catholic moral methodology to the making of Christian moral choices
5. critique different perspectives on contemporary moral issues.
6. communicate in an age appropriate manner with students about the importance and relevance for (Christian) living of making (Christian) moral choices. 2,3,4,5

ASSESSMENT
1500 word written presentation (30%); 2500 word essay (70%)

Lecturers: PHILIP MALONE MSC and BERNARD TEO CSsR
CONTENT
This unit is taken concurrently with the other units in the GCTRE program. It provides the student with an opportunity for personal appropriation, synthesis and integration of content, skills and formative experiences provided in these units.

COREQUISITES
DR8601Y, DR8602Y, DR8603Y, DR8604Y

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. articulate the personal and professional learning that has occurred
2. discuss the implications for this learning in their delivery of religious education in a Catholic school.

ASSESSMENT
Each of the four integrative exercises will require the student to write a 500 word reflection paper (25% each) which will be graded as Pass/Fail. When the four integrative exercises have been successfully completed the student will have earned the final five points required for the award of the Graduate Certificate in Teaching Religious Education.

SUPERVIS ED READING UNITS

The unit should be in some area of the discipline not already covered by the unit offerings at YTU, or, if covered, not being offered in the year the reading unit is done.

In consultation with her/his supervisor, the student shall prepare a bibliography for the Reading Unit and complete the required application form. These will be forwarded by the Academic Dean, or the Postgraduate Coordinator of YTU, who will in each case approve the supervisor, the program of study and the assessment task(s). The student is to maintain regular (weekly or fortnightly) contact with the supervisor.

A SUPERVIS ED READING UNIT (6,000 words) MAY BE ARRANGED IN THE FOLLOWING DISCIPLINES.

“Graced Friendship and Being Oneself: Releasing Excellence.” In Essays in Honor of Fred Lawrence, from his grateful students, edited by M.Shawn Copeland and Jeremy D Wilkins, with a Foreward Tribute by Frederick E. Crowe, S.J. Milwaukee WI: Marquette University Press, 2015 (publication in process).

Norman Young
Unless otherwise indicated by the lecturer, the following guidelines should be used when writing essays and assignments.

The University of Divinity has adopted the following as its preferred style guide: Kate L. Turabian, A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations: Chicago Style for Students and Researchers, 8th ed. Revised by Wayne C. Booth, Gregory G. Colomb, Joseph M. Williams and the University of Chicago Press Editorial Staff. (Chicago: The University of Chicago Press, 2013). There are two basic documentation systems in the text, notes-bibliography style (or simply bibliography style) and parenthetical citations (reference list style). We have adopted the bibliography style.

This text is available from most major book stores and is priced from $30.00-$35.00.

Research students can also utilise the UD license for the software package called Endnote. This is available for overnight upload from St Paschal Library.

LAYOUT
- Essays are to be typed on A4 paper
- Essays may be printed on both sides of the paper provided that the paper used is at least 80 g/m²
- Typing should be spaced, at least, at 1.5 between lines
- Text is in 12 point font
- Allow a left margin of three centimetres for the comments of the marker
- A hand written paper requires permission from the lecturer

COVER PAGE
- A title sheet is available outside the Office of the Academic Dean, or from www.ytu.edu.au under the heading ADMIN go to YTU forms. This cover sheet must be attached to each piece of work submitted for assessment.
- If the submission is electronic through ARK, then the first page should state: Unit Code and Name, Lecturer’s Name, Assessment Title, Student Name, Student Number. (All pages are to be numbered).

SYNOPSIS
- A synopsis of the essay on a separate page is to precede the work proper. This requirement does not apply to short papers.

CHAPTERS / SECTIONS
- If the essay is divided into distinct sections or chapters, there should also be a list of contents, giving page references.

PAGE NUMBERS
- Pages should be numbered in the top right corner. The first page of the essay is counted, but not usually numbered.
QUOTATIONS

- Quotations included in the text of the essay should be indicated by quotation marks for shorter pieces. Lengthy quotations (four lines or more) should be indented and single spaced so that they stand separate from the text. Quotation marks are then unnecessary.

- Scriptural references are given in brackets in the text of the essay, e.g., (Jer 1:4-9).

- Details of references are given either in a footnote (at the bottom of the page) or gathered together at the end of the essay as endnotes. Either form may be used. Word processing referencing tools automatically elevate the reference number one space above the text (superscript).

- Footnotes and endnotes are single spaced, and should be numbered consecutively throughout the assignment.

- When a footnote or endnote note is exactly the same as the preceding one put Ibid. (Ibidem is Latin for "in the same place"). In notes, Ibid. should be capitalised but not italicised. Since Ibid. is an abbreviation, it must end with a full stop. If the citation includes a page number, put a comma after Ibid. If the page number of a reference is the same as the previous note, do not include a page number after Ibid. Do not use Ibid. after a note that contains more than one citation, and avoid using Ibid. to refer to footnotes that do not appear on the same page.

- Where a note refers to a work quoted earlier, it is sufficient to give the author's name, an abbreviated title of the work, and the page, e.g., Westermann, Genesis, 2,169-181. This usage is to be followed rather than op.cit. or art.cit.

PUNCTUATION.

As well as the normal rules of punctuation, the following should be used:

- ." (full stop inside quotation marks at end of quotation).
- "," (comma always inside quotation marks).
- ":,": (semi–colon and colon remain outside quotation marks.
- "?" (when the quotation itself is a question).
- ""? (if the student is questioning the actual quoted material).
- "," (matter omitted from within a quotation).
- ‘...’ (quotation within a quotation, use single quotation marks for the inner set of quoted words)

FOREIGN WORDS

- Foreign words should be italicised, except those in their proper script such as Greek and Hebrew.

APPENDICES

- Appendices are added at the end of the essay, before the bibliography.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

- A bibliography, appropriately set out, completes the essay.
1. Inclusive Language
   It is the policy of YTU to use inclusive language at all times. However, in quotations one must use the words that have been used in the original text (e.g., ‘man’, ‘mankind’, and ‘He’ in reference to God). In assignments, students are expected to use inclusive terms such as ‘person’, ‘human being’, ‘humanity’, ‘God’ rather than ‘man’, ‘men’, ‘mankind’, ‘He’, etc. As far as possible, the generic use of ‘he’, ‘him’, and ‘his’, should be avoided. This may be accomplished by using ‘he’, or ‘she’, ‘one’, the plural or the passive. This will sometimes require careful thought and the recasting of sentences to express gender neutrality.

2. Numbers
   Unless specific guidelines are proposed for a piece of quantitative research the following guidelines apply:
   - Write the “twentieth century” not the “20th century”
   - Never begin a sentence with a numeral, either spell the number or recast the sentence (“Fifty days after the resurrection the Church celebrates the feast of Pentecost.”)
   - If a number under a hundred occurs on its own, spell it (there are four not 4 canonical gospels)
   - Write in Arabic numerals (1,2,3) when you have series of numbers over a hundred in a sentence (105 cows, 575 sheep and 7 horses)

3. Foreign Words
   Italicise isolated words and phrases in foreign languages that are technical, or unlikely to be familiar to readers of English.
   - e.g., Paolo Freire coined the term conscientização to speak of the process of developing critical consciousness.
   - e.g., Ressentiment was first used as a philosophical term by Friedrich Nietzsche.
   Do not italicise foreign words that are so familiar that they appear in standard English dictionaries: e.g., de facto, de gustibus, vis-à-vis.

4. Abbreviations
   Abbreviations generally have a full stop/period after them: for e.g., Ibid., etc., Conventional abbreviations for books of the Bible are an exception to this rule (see below). The full stop may be followed by a comma as in ibid., but it may never be followed by a second full stop.
   - Truncations which give only the first part of an abbreviated word are indicated by a concluding period (Prof., Rev., ed., trans., vol,); contractions, which give the beginning and end of an abbreviated word, in British and English usage do not have a concluding period the first and last letter of a word, do not have full stops (e.g., Fr, Revd, Dr, St, vols).
   - The abbreviations ‘don’t’, ‘can’t’, ‘won’t’ etc. should not be used in essays, except in quoted conversations. (We wouldn’t say you can’t say won’t but don’t).
SCRIPTURAL REFERENCES
Abbreviations of biblical books are not followed by a full stop. In regard to the appropriate abbreviations our style guide follows the conventions of the Journal of Biblical Literature, 107 (1988): 582-583. Accordingly:

Gen  Hos  Ps (pl. Pss)  1-2-3-4 Kgdms  Sus  Eph
Exod  Joel  Job  Add Esth  Tob  Phil
Lev  Amos  Prov  Bar  Wis  Col
Num  Obad  Ruth  Bel  1-2 Thess
Deut  Jonah  Cant  1-2 Esdr  Matt  1-2 Tim
Josh  Mic  Eccl / Qoh  4 Ezra  Mark  Titus
Judg  Nah  Lam  Jdt  Luke  Phlm
1-2 Sam  Hab  Esth  Ep Jer  John  Heb
1-2 Kgs  Zeph  Dan  1-2-3-4 Macc  Acts  Jas
Isa  Hag  Ezra  Pr Azar  Rom  1-2 Pet
Jer  Zech  Neh  Pr Man  1-2 Cor  1-2-3 John
Ezek  Mal  1-2 Chr  Sir  Gal  Jude
Rev

For scriptural references, a different style guide may apply at another College.

1. References are written with a colon between chapter and verse(s), and a semi–colon separating one reference from another: e.g., Matt 16:16; Mark 8:29; Luke 9:20. Sometimes, when a part only of a verse is referred to, ‘a’ or ‘b’ may be added according as to whether the first or second part is concerned: e.g., Matt 16:16b; Rom 5:12a.

FOOTNOTES/ENDNOTES and BIBLIOGRAPHY

While footnotes/endnotes and bibliographical entries are similar in appearance, the following details of variation should be noted and followed. Name inversion (surname first, given name second, e.g., Smith, John.) is used in a bibliography as names are ordered alphabetically. In a footnote the bibliographic data is given in a continuous sequence, so commas and parentheses are used to separate the various elements. In a bibliography, on the other hand, the data are given as discrete elements and are therefore separated by periods.

FOOTNOTES /ENDNOTES

Footnotes are used to acknowledge the sources of information for an essay or assignment. Footnotes allow the reader of an assignment to note the research that underlies an essay and, if desired, to retrieve the reference for their own use or to check the accuracy of a quotation.

Footnotes must be used to indicate the source for:
- direct quotations
- any paraphrase or summary of an author’s ideas or arguments
  (a paraphrase is your own rendition of essential information and ideas expressed by someone else)

Information taken from the internet or an electronic source must be acknowledged in a properly formatted note (See style in ONLINE PUBLICATIONS below).

All word processing software allows you to insert references into your text. A footnote is marked by a superscript number at the end of a sentence or quotation to which the note refers. At the bottom of the page, the number is repeated, followed by the citation.
Footnotes are single-spaced and numbered consecutively throughout the essay. Normally, they are in the same font as the remainder of the essay and they are not italicised (except for book titles etc.) unless there are italics in the original. They may be in a smaller font size than that which is used in the body of your assignment.

Footnotes/Endnotes. Order: initial(s) [full stop] or given name(s), surname [comma], book title (italicised) followed by publishing details in parentheses (place of publication [colon]: publisher [comma], date) followed by appropriate volume and page reference [full stop]. Other information — name of series, editor, number of particular volume used, edition — is included between title and publishing details, each followed by a comma. (See examples given below).

Basic Format: Note number. Author’s First and Last Names, Title of Book: Subtitle of Book (Place of Publication: Publisher’s Name, Date of Publication), XX-XX.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

The bibliography lists the works that have been consulted in researching the essay, and must include all works cited in footnotes.

The bibliography is single-spaced and arranged alphabetically by the surname of the author. A blank line is left between each entry.

If your bibliography contains two or more works written, edited, or translated by the same individual arrange the entries chronologically by publication date. For all entries after the first, replace the individual’s name with a long dash called a 3-em dash (six dashes) (e.g., ____ , ____ ).

Bibliography. Books are listed alphabetically, according to authors’ surnames. Order: surname of author, initial(s), or given name(s) [full stop]. Book title (italicised) [full stop]. Place of publication [colon]: publisher [comma], date [full stop]. Other information — name of series in which work is found, editor, total number of volumes, edition - is included between title and place of publication, each followed by a full stop. (See examples given below).

Basic Format: Author’s Last Name, Author’s First Name. Title of Book: Subtitle of Book. Place of Publication: Publisher’s Name, Date of Publication.

Newspapers
In most cases, cite articles and other pieces from daily newspapers only in notes. You do not need to include them in your bibliography unless a specific article is critical for your paper. Page numbers are usually not necessary as a paper may have several editions and items can appear on a different page or be dropped altogether.

Footnote

ONE SOURCE QUOTED IN ANOTHER

Researchers normally avoid repeating quotations that they have not actually seen in the original. If one source includes a useful quotation from another text, you are expected to obtain the original to verify not only that the quotation is accurate, but also that it fairly represents what the original meant.

If the original is unavailable, however, cite it as “quoted in” the secondary source in your note.
