UNIVERSITY OF DIVINITY

We seek to promote and resource the participation of all people in the mission of God, for the building up of a healthy church and for the transformation of the world.

The Yarra Theological Union 2017 Prospectus is intended as an introductory guide to students who may wish to apply to study at the College.

Interested students should first seek an appointment with the Yarra Theological Union Dean to discuss what is the best program of studies to suit their needs.

Students who are ready to enrol may either fill out an application in person at the initial interview, or download a form from the University of Divinity website (divinity.edu.au) and return the completed form with the relevant documentation to the Yarra Theological Union office.

Potential students who wish to find out more about theological education at the University of Divinity, or who would like to discuss their application, are encouraged to contact the Yarra Theological Union Office.

About Yarra Theological Union

Yarra Theological Union (YTU) is a College of the University of Divinity, Australia's only specialised university.

YARRA THEOLOGICAL UNION IS

- a centre for theological education and ministerial formation for men and women and seminarians, especially religious and lay people;
- a College in the Catholic tradition, under the auspices of eight religious orders;
- open to all who would wish to enrol from any church background;
- a place of hospitality and welcome;
- committed to being a community of scholarship, prayer and pastoral care.

Yarra Theological Union was originally founded in 1971 by the Carmelites, the Franciscans, the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart and the Passionists. Over the years other orders joined: the Redemptorists (Australian and New Zealand Provinces), Pallottines, Dominicans, Divine Word Missionaries, the Discalced Carmelites and the Blessed Sacrament Congregation. Graced by the generosity of the Franciscan Friars YTU is located at St. Paschal Friary.

On 18th January 1973, YTU was granted formal recognition as an institute of priestly formation by the then Archbishop of Melbourne, James Cardinal Knox. In September 1973, YTU, together with the Catholic Theological College in Clayton and the United Faculty of Theology in Parkville, was approved by the University of Divinity (then MCD) as a College with the right to teach for the degree of Bachelor of Theology. This was extended to approving the right to teach towards the postgraduate degrees of Master of Theology and Doctor of Theology in 1975.

Over recent years YTU, together with the other colleges of the University of Divinity (UD), has extended its teaching program to provide postgraduate units for candidates for the degrees of Master of Theological Studies and, from 2000, Graduate Diploma in Theology, Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy.

Why study theology?

People study theology for all sorts of reasons. Some study theology to train for ministry whether lay or ordained. Some study theology to help clarify where God is calling them to be. Some study theology to gain a deeper personal understanding of their faith, of the scriptures, or of the traditions of the church. For some people, theological study is like study in the liberal arts, providing a training in thinking and argumentation, and in the breadth and depth of Christian culture. All of these are valid reasons to study theology, and this list is not exhaustive!

Theological graduates use their qualifications as preparation for ministry, as further qualifications to enrich careers in teaching, pastoral care, educational leadership, mission, welfare and many other roles within the churches and beyond.

Whatever your reasons for wanting to study theology I encourage you to come and have a chat with us about how YTU can help you achieve your goals in theological studies.

Revd Dr Ross Fishburn (Academic Dean)

What our students say

“Studying theology feeds my need to understand the Christian faith I live, to give words to it and to help me recognise the transformation that it affects in my life and the life of my community. YTU is a great place to study theology because over the semester each class becomes a small inclusive learning community that respects, encourages and challenges me in my learning.”

-- Matthew Tonini O Carm

“When I started studying theology I realized how awesome the whole concept of faith is. Theology changed my very life! YTU has a sense of family and community, of journeying together, of sharing our faith questions.”

-- Erick Niyiragira CP

“I study theology because it gives me enjoyment and pleasure. I’ve always had a faith and I’d like to explore that faith further. YTU is not a hurried place. It’s relaxed and allows for me to get to know other students.”

-- John Varney

“I wanted to inform my faith after going through the RCIA programme before baptism. I want my faith to be well-informed, to be challenged and grow, and to make sense in today’s world. My study is helping me to be more confident, practical and loving as a Christian.”

-- Elissa Roper

“YTU is a very friendly place and lecturers are very helpful. There is a sense that we walk together here.”

-- Agedo Bento O Carm

“From the extensive help we received for our applications, to being heartily greeted and oriented on our first day in college; from the provoking theological discussions in the classrooms, to the casual banter in the common room; the vibrancy and spirit of hospitality has made our college experience a standout one. YTU has been for us a life-giving, expansive and inclusive learning community.”

Libraries

Yarra Theological Union has access to no less than five libraries in Melbourne. The principal campus library is St Paschal Library, located underneath the main friary chapel on site. It is the provincial library of the Franciscans and also houses the YTU collection. As well as providing specialist resources in Franciscan studies, the collection is strong in patristic and medieval studies, ancient languages, contemporary theology and art history.

In addition, the libraries of the Carmelites, the Redemptorists and the Divine Word Missionaries provide added resources and may be accessed by YTU students by appointment. The Carmelite Library in Middle Park has a special strength in spirituality. The Redemptorist Library has a special social justice collection housed in the YTU Study Centre, as well as a library in Kew. The Divine Word Missionaries missiology collection is housed within the St Paschal Library. [Further details can be found in our Handbook, and on the YTU website.] The libraries of the other University of Divinity Colleges may also be used by YTU students enrolled in University of Divinity courses. Recently we have been able to take advantage of the University's Library Hub to provide electronic resources.

The Librarians at St Paschal Library conduct introduction sessions to that library, and to the services offered through the University of Divinity Library Hub at the start of each academic year.
