UNIVERSITY OF DIVINITY

Founded by an Act of the Victorian State Parliament on December 17, 1910, University of Divinity is the oldest ecumenical institution in the world offering academic degrees and awards in theology and divinity. At its founding as Melbourne College of Divinity (MCD), the college represented the Church of England, the Baptist, Congregational, Methodist, and Presbyterian churches, and by co-optation the Churches of Christ. It was later enlarged to include the Roman Catholic Church and the Salvation Army. From 1993 to 2011 MCD, while retaining its autonomy and degree conferring status, was affiliated with the University of Melbourne; academic programs are also available in conjunction with Monash University. At the beginning of 2012 the Melbourne College of Divinity was inaugurated as the first university of specialisation in Australia as MCD University of Divinity. Since 2014 it has been called simply University of Divinity.

Today University of Divinity includes nine denominational Colleges representing the Anglican, Baptist, Churches of Christ, Lutheran, Roman Catholic and Uniting churches, and the Salvation Army, and has one specialist institute, Jesuit College of Spirituality, and one research-only college (Morling College). By its very nature University of Divinity is fundamentally committed to ecumenical co-operation in theological education. Each College of the University, while encouraged to be true to its own heritage and commitments, is enriched by membership in a theologically diverse community of scholars and scholarship. Students, faculty, alumni and friends of the University are proud participants in a collaborative effort that seeks to achieve collectively what member institutions could not accomplish individually.

The Code of Conduct applies to all members of the University of Divinity as defined in Regulation 82 (from 1 January 2020).

While on University or College premises, using University or College facilities and services, or engaging in University or College activities related to my duties or responsibilities as a member of the University of Divinity, I must

1. Strive to act with honesty and integrity
   This includes
   1. a) refusing to initiate or engage in cheating, plagiarism or fraud
   2. b) complying with ethical standards in research and academic practice
   3. c) disclosing conflicts of interest
   4. d) being willing to report academic misconduct

2. Promote the responsible exercise of academic freedom and academic judgement
   This includes
   1. a) applying structured argument and critical thought
   2. b) forming an opinion or making a decision on the basis of evidence
   3. c) respecting the integrity and diversity of theological traditions represented in the Colleges of the University
   4. d) pursuing excellence

3. Be courteous towards all persons in my behaviour and communication
   This includes
   1. a) complying with reasonable directions issued by responsible persons
   2. b) respecting the privacy of others and information given in confidence
   3. c) being willing to engage with views different from my own

4. Protect from harm myself and others, especially children, young people and vulnerable adults
   This includes
   1. a) refraining from and refusing to participate in abuse, harassment, bullying and assault
   2. b) supporting activities that ensure the University is a safe and healthy environment
   3. c) being willing to report general misconduct

5. Use University resources responsibly
   This includes
   1. a) making judicious use of staff time, library collections, physical spaces, and technology
   2. b) supporting activities that promote environmental and economic sustainability

6. Comply with University policies and procedures and applicable Australian laws
   This includes
   1. a) complying with applicable policies and procedures of my home College
   2. b) complying with any contractual arrangements I have entered into with the University or with one of its Colleges

As a member of the University I have the right
1. a) to seek a review of, or to appeal, a decision made by an officer of the University
2. b) to make a complaint if I believe in good faith that a breach of this Code of Conduct may have occurred

KEY DATES

1st Semester 24 February-29 May
Non-teaching period 6 April-17 April

Mid-year vacation 12 June-24 July

2nd Semester 27 July-30 October
Non-teaching period 21 September-2 October
Yarra Theological Union (YTU) was originally founded in 1971 by the Carmelites, the Franciscans, the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart and the Passionists. Over the years other orders joined: the Redemptorists (Australian and New Zealand Provinces), Pallottines, Dominicans, Divine Word Missionaries, the Discalced Carmelites and the Blessed Sacrament Congregation. Graced by the generosity of the Franciscan Friars YTU is located at St. Paschal Friary.

On 18th January 1973, YTU was granted formal recognition as an institute of priestly formation by the then Archbishop of Melbourne, James Cardinal Knox. In September 1973, YTU, together with the Catholic Theological College in Clayton and the United Faculty of Theology in Parkville, was approved by University of Divinity (then MCD) as a College with the right to teach for the degree of Bachelor of Theology. This was extended to approving the right to teach towards the postgraduate degrees of Master of Theology and Doctor of Theology in 1975.

Over recent years YTU, together with the other college members of University of Divinity (UD), has extended its teaching program to provide postgraduate units for candidates for the degrees of Master of Theological Studies and, from 2000, Graduate Diploma in Theology, Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy.

VISION STATEMENT
We are an inclusive and welcoming community for theological education and ministerial formation, open to those who seek educational and personal transformation in changing contexts. As a College of the University of Divinity, which is Catholic in tradition and ecumenical in spirit, we seek to promote and resource the participation of all people in the mission of God for the building up of a healthy church and for the transformation of the world.

MISSION STATEMENT
We fulfil our vision by:
• offering undergraduate and postgraduate awards of the University of Divinity and other educational experiences
• engaging in critical theological inquiry, scholarly research and publication in theology
• equipping people (professed and lay) for various ministries in the churches: parishes, schools, hospitals, church agencies and in the world at large
• being a forum for comment and dialogue with the wider society on those matters which fall within our competence.

VALUE STATEMENT
Our Core Values are:
1. Service to church and world.
2. Faithfulness in interpreting the Catholic Tradition.
3. Dialogue and collaboration.
4. Inclusive hospitality to persons and traditions.
5. Commitment to being a community of scholarship, prayer and pastoral care.

ALL STUDENTS NEED TO ENROL PERSONALLY BY APPOINTMENT through the YTU Office – Phone 03 9890 3771

All Coursework Students (except GCTRE students) need to make an appointment to see the Academic Dean.

GCTRE Students and Higher Degree by Research students need to make an appointment to see Associate Professor Michael Kelly.

Domestic Coursework student’s admission and re-enrolment periods:
- Monday 25 November – Friday 13 December 2019
- Tuesday 28 January – Thursday 13 February 2020
- Monday 22 June – Thursday 9 July 2020
- Monday 23 November 2020 – Friday 11 December 2020 for Enrolments for the 2021 year

Overseas Coursework Students re-enrolment periods: as above

Domestic Higher Degrees by Research admission deadlines:
- 15 November 2019: for first semester 2020
- 15 April 2020: for second semester 2020
- 15 November 2020: for first semester 2021

Overseas Students: Applications for international admissions (coursework) deadlines:
- 15 November 2019: for first semester 2020
- 15 April 2020: for second semester 2020
- 15 November 2020: for first semester 2021

NEW Domestic Students need to bring the following to the interview:
- Academic Transcripts (VCE Certificate or equivalent and other tertiary transcripts). If the transcript is a copy it needs to be certified.
- Proof of Australian Citizenship (Current passport OR Birth Certificate and name-change documents)
- Domestic Sponsor Statement, and/ or sponsorship documentation
- For Upfront Fees a cheque or credit card details is required (If not paying by Bpay or through FEE-HELP)
- For FEE-HELP a Tax File Number is required (applications are completed online)

ALL Students must enrol by the above dates.
Only in exceptional circumstances would a student be permitted to enrol in a unit after the classes in that unit have begun.

Student ID Cards:
A University of Divinity Student ID Card will be issued by YTU once the student has officially been enrolled. YTU will take a photo at your interview meeting and then issue the card.

The College reserves the right to alter or cancel unit offerings when circumstances warrant, especially if an insufficient number is enrolled.

YTU reserves the right to use its discretion in accepting applications for enrolment and re-enrolment
Students wishing to take units at other colleges must enrol through the Academic Dean of YTU.

Any change in enrolment must be authorised, in writing using the appropriate form, by the Academic Dean or Research & Education Coordinator of YTU. These changes must occur BEFORE the Census Date in each semester (normally, three weeks into the semester).

OVERSEAS STUDENTS

Overseas students should additionally be familiar with The National Code of Practice for Registration Authorities and Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students (The National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018) published by the Australian Federal Government.

While all students are invited to attend the Orientation for new students, there are particular requirements for overseas students. All students on an overseas student visa must attend the orientation session that directly addresses their welfare while studying in Australia and the responsibilities that accompany this particular visa. The dates for the General Orientation event and the Overseas Student Orientation are included in the Academic Calendar at the front of the Handbook.

English Language Studies for Pastoral Ministry

English Language Studies for Pastoral Ministry, ELSPM, began on the YTU campus in June 2015. It endeavours to contextualise Second Language English Learning within a student body, who are committed to all the shared values of a pastoral ministry enterprise.

ELSPM aims to cater especially for the Asia–Pacific church, particularly the Dioceses and Religious Orders within the region. We specialise our courses for students who are committed to the vocation of pastoral ministry in today’s church: - seminary students, candidates for priesthood, Ministry of the Word, pastoral care workers, nurses and teachers in church institutions as well as those preparing for ministry experiences in English speaking countries. The Language Centre aims to help students communicate in English as quickly and efficiently as possible. The courses are designed to develop listening, speaking, reading and writing skills and are carefully structured to improve student’s fluency and accuracy.

After completing courses at ELSPM a number of students go onto further studies at YTU. They enjoy the proximity and support of their English language teachers and other students. They already have a familiarity with the premises that can sometimes be daunting for new students to a College of Divinity.

The school has had a number of students return to their countries with a renewed confidence in communicating, reading and writing in the English Language. In fact one of the students is teaching English to candidates in Ecuador in South America in a religious formation program and others are working within their own Congregations or have gone onto further studies. ELSPM’s English courses are all accredited through the Australian Government and are registered to it, through the National ELICOS Accreditation Scheme (NEAS).
FEES AND OTHER COSTS

BTheol (and Diploma courses): $1704.00 per 18 point unit of study
Postgraduate Courses $2640.00 per 24 point unit of study
GCTRE units $1760.00 per 16 point unit of study
GCTRE Integrative unit $880.00 per 8 point unit of study
Audit (unit taken without assessment): $500.00 per 18 point unit of study
Not for Credit Units $500.00 per unit

Fees for academic documents (as approved by the University Council):
- Academic Transcript (3 copies): $50
- Australian Higher Education Graduation Statement (1 copy): $30
- Combination (2 transcripts and 1 AHEGS): $50
- Additional copy of transcript or AHEGS (per copy): $10
- Replacement Testamur [conditions apply]: $200

For more information on academic records go to University of Divinity Website: http://www.divinity.edu.au/alumni/academic-records/
Contact Rose Allinson. Email RAllinson@divinity.edu.au

No refund of fees applies after the stated Census Dates for 2020: 17 March for first semester and 18 August for second semester.

Fees for not for credit units and audit units are invoiced by YTU after enrolment and payable by census date.

Fees for Undergraduate and Postgraduate Courses are paid directly to University of Divinity (UD) which will issue an itemised invoice when the enrolment is processed. When a student applies for FEE-HELP at enrolment, the fees owing will be paid by the government through the UD office.

UD regulations require accounts to be paid in full before the start of classes.

All tuition and any library fines must have been paid before results are released or the next semester’s enrolment is confirmed. This also applies to a student’s ability to graduate.

Student Representative Council
Email address: src@ytu.edu.au
The SRC of YTU provides tea and coffee facilities in the Common Room during semester. No fee is payable for this service. However, the SRC does ask that students make a voluntary donation of at least $20 per semester to the SRC to cover this cost.

Bursaries for Tuition
Fees for all UD awards are set by UD, and must be equal across each student group, to accord with recent Commonwealth legislation. To assist students, a UD Bursary Fund has been established. It has limited funds available, but further donations are being sought (these are tax deductible). The criteria to be used when allocating bursaries include sources of support available to students and each student’s progress thus far, as well as a student’s need for tuition fee support. Applications are treated in strict confidence.

To apply for assistance, contact the Academic Dean
Fee reductions can also be negotiated in cases of need or hardship.
Students in any University of Divinity course who are Australian citizens, or hold a permanent humanitarian visa, can have their tuition fees met by a loan from the Commonwealth Government. The scheme – brought in under the Higher Education Support Act (HESA, 2003) – is called the Higher Education Loan Program (HELP) for short.

To apply for a FEE–HELP loan, you must check the request for FEE–HELP box on their enrolment form, and provide current evidence of Australian citizenship. After the processing of that enrolment, an email will be sent to the student with a link to the FEE–HELP website and login details so that the eCAF application may be completed. This process must be completed before the stated Census Dates (Semester One: 17th March 2020, Semester Two: 18th August 2020). Students who do not complete their FEE-HELP application process by Census day will be charged fees directly.

Before you apply for a loan, please note carefully, the following:

a) From January 1st 2019, for all students, only the amount borrowed is subject to repayment. The former practice of charging interest for undergraduate students has been abolished. Only take out a loan for complete units for which you are enrolled (e.g., request a loan for one, two or three units but not fractions).

b) You must have a Tax File Number to apply for a FEE–HELP loan.

c) Your loan is repaid through the tax system. When your income reaches the threshold of $45,881 you will be required to pay a proportion back with your tax from the 2019/20 Tax Year. (Please note the threshold amount has decreased from $51,957 last financial year). The higher your income, the higher the repayment proportion, starting at 1.0%. Voluntary repayments are in addition to the compulsory repayments made through your tax return. Your FEE–HELP tax liability goes up by CPI on 1st June each year. If someone with a FEE–HELP debt dies, only the repayment due in that tax year is billed; the rest is cancelled.

d) The Government requires that, before you sign the FEE–HELP form, you must read the FEE–HELP Information booklet so that you are aware of your obligations under the scheme. You will receive a Commonwealth Higher Education Student Support Number (CHESSN), which remains unique to you for life. If you have been provided a CHESSN number previously you need this for your FEE –HELP application.

e) Eligible students can borrow up to the FEE-HELP limit to pay their tuition fees. In 2020, the FEE-HELP limit is $106,319 for most students. The FEE-HELP limit is a lifetime limit and is not reset or ‘topped up’ by any repayments that you make. The FEE-HELP limit is the total amount available to eligible students under the FEE-HELP loan scheme. This means that any amount you borrow under FEE-HELP will reduce your FEE-HELP balance until you have reached the FEE-HELP limit.

For further information:
- Read the FEE–HELP Information Booklet
- Visit the Study assist website at: www.studyassist.gov.au
- Call the FEE–HELP enquiry line on 1800 020 108
Within Yarra Theological Union there are five individual libraries for the use of Faculty and enrolled students. They are the provincial libraries of some of the orders which constitute YTU.

St Paschal Library OFM owned by the Franciscan Province of the Holy Spirit is the main resource centre for Franciscan studies within Australia. Its comprehensive collection of Catholic theological material is also available to faculty and students from the University of Divinity. The collection is strong in patristic and medieval studies, ancient languages, contemporary theology and art history.

University of Divinity Library Information
University ID Cards: All members of the University are entitled to receive a University ID Card which allows access to the University’s Library Hub, to visit and borrow from all libraries which are affiliated with the University of Divinity. Borrowing rights are now also in place with the University of Melbourne libraries. Please note that your card and contact details need to be added to each individual library’s management system. This will generally already be done for you at the primary library associated with your home institution. If you wish to access any other library collections, please remember to register at each additional library before you borrow for the first time.
Please note: You are advised to check your entitlements at Dalton McCaughey Library
https://pydio.calyx.net.au/data/public/dmlmembership

The Library Hub - www.divinity.edu.au/library provides access to an extensive range of online resources and a wealth of other library-related information.

UDCat is a combined library catalogue that allows the simultaneous searching of the catalogues of libraries affiliated with the UD and can still be searched at https://divinity.on.worldcat.org/discovery

Interlibrary loans of resources held by UD-affiliated libraries (with the exception of Dalton McCaughey Library) are available free of charge to all UD faculty and staff.

The purpose of the SRC is to cooperate in and complement the objectives of YTU by representing and serving students enrolled there. It is represented on the Senate and Education Board by the President and Secretary, and in each Faculty Department by representatives from the student body.

The SRC is composed of a President, Secretary, and Treasurer elected from among the whole student body. This election takes place in the second semester, to take effect in the following year. There are elected representatives from the independent students and it is desirable that each member College has a representative, elected at the beginning of each year.

The student body, together with the Faculty, is responsible for organising and advertising events and activities throughout the year, of which the following are significant for 2020:

- February 21: Orientation Programme and BBQ
- February 28: Inaugural Eucharistic Celebration and Supper
- March 9-13: Hospitality Week
- August 14: SRC Evening
- November 20: End of Year Eucharist and Supper

The SRC also has responsibility for:

a) Encouraging students to actively participate as FIRE carrier ambassadors
b) Organising the weekly Eucharists
c) Arranging and promoting the opening and closing Eucharists
d) Providing facilities for the students in the Common Room
e) Managing SRC finances
f) Organising social functions throughout the year
g) Upkeep of the Prayer Room
h) Supporting the work of the Chaplain
i) Managing the election of, and supporting and communicating with, the departmental representatives
j) Electing a representative to the OH&S committee
k) Creating a weekly student bulletin

STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES ON DEPARTMENTS

The election of the student representatives is managed by the SRC. These students represent their peers in Departments A and B, C or D, and will attend Department meetings. They are a voice for students on planning and decision making and may have further opportunities to attend other Boards or working groups. The SRC communicates with and supports the student representatives.

CHAPLAINCY

Chaplain: To be advised

The Chaplain's room is currently situated in the Study Centre. The Chaplain is available for all at YTU and encourages those who wish to make a set time to meet, to call or email.
YOUR RIGHTS AS A UNIVERSITY OF DIVINITY STUDENT

As a student of the University of Divinity you have the rights and responsibilities outlined in the University's Code of Conduct. Please read them carefully. You risk suspension or exclusion if you contravene them.

You have the right to privacy.
The Yarra Theological Union supports and endorses the National Privacy Principles contained in the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000 and will comply with these principles whenever personal information is collected by us. In accordance with the National Privacy Principles
- YTU will only collect personal information from you with your prior knowledge and consent
- YTU will only use personal information provided by you for the purposes for which it was collected
- YTU will not disclose your personal information to a third party without your consent
- YTU will not disclose your personal information to other institutions and authorities except if required by law or other regulation
- YTU will remove personal information from its records when it is no longer required (except where archiving is required)
- YTU will have processes and policies to protect the personal information that it has under its control from:
  - unauthorised access
  - improper use
  - alteration
  - unlawful or accidental destruction and accidental loss

Because YTU students are enrolled in University of Divinity degree and diploma programs, a certain amount of information needs to be exchanged between the YTU office and the Office of the Vice Chancellor, and on occasions other colleges of the University.

You have the right to the highest standards of teaching and learning.
In order to protect the high academic standing of your degree or diploma, all forms of cheating, plagiarism or other academic fraud (including illegitimate use of internet resources) are strictly forbidden, and anyone found engaging in them faces serious consequences. To assist with this, you are required to state on each assignment that it is your own work.

You have the right to be treated fairly in all academic and administrative matters. If you feel this has not happened, you have rights under the appeals policy to lodge an appeal, or in some cases to lodge a grievance under the grievance policy. These policies, and the procedures which go with them, are available on the University website: http://www.divinity.edu.au/university-of-divinity/governance/policies-and-procedures/
You have the right to be safe, and to feel safe, in the university’s environments. Harassment in any form – spiritual, sexual or discriminatory (e.g. on the grounds of race, gender, ethnicity, disability, theological outlook) – is wrong, and is not tolerated. There is provision for dealing confidentially, effectively, and justly with any harassment that may occur within YTU. If you wish to discuss a concern in relation to these matters please contact:

YTU Academic Dean: Ross Fishburn (03) 9890 3771: ext 3
YTU President: Chris Monaghan (03) 9890 3771: ext 2
YTU Chaplain: TBA (Please check YTU website)
Or a Peer contact Officer: Please check YTU website or noticeboard for names.

Any of these people will be able to refer you to an appropriate advisor or support person to assist you to explore and resolve your concern.

Finally, once you have commenced a degree or diploma with University of Divinity, you are assured that university educational and financial resources are in place to see you through to its completion. If the highly unlikely situation arises that the university cannot deliver a course for which you have paid fees, these will be refunded, or you can transfer to another provider, nominated for this purpose by the university.

All University of Divinity policies and procedures (including grievance issues) may be found at www.divinity.edu.au/university-of-divinity/governance/policies-and-procedures/ These include:

- Academic Integrity Policy
- Academic Misconduct Policy
- Appeals Policy
- Assessment Policy
- Fair Treatment Policy
- Grievances Policy

Integrity Statement

In addition to the policies and procedures of University of Divinity, Yarra Theological Union is committed to the code of conduct “Integrity in Ministry” (2004) that outlines the principles and standards for Catholic Clergy and Religious in Australia and “Integrity in the Service of the Church” (2011) for Lay Workers in the Catholic Church in Australia. For more information see: www.catholicreligiousaustralia.org/justice-committee

DISABILITY

Students with disabilities are respectfully asked to make their particular needs known to the YTU Academic Dean or the Research and Education Coordinator either at their initial interview or at enrolment, so that every effort can be made to accommodate these needs.

Students are invited to indicate a disability on the enrolment forms and whether or not they would like further information regarding services provided by YTU in relation to disabilities. This information is provided on request from YTU reception or can be accessed on our website: www.ytu.edu.au (Students who require some form of special consideration in relation to their disability, we respectfully request appropriate documentation to support such consideration.)

For University of Divinity Inclusion Policy see: www.divinity.edu.au/documents/inclusion-policy
1. STUDENTS FOR WHOM ENGLISH IS A SECOND LANGUAGE
   Overseas Students pursuing Undergraduate or Postgraduate coursework Studies at University of Divinity need to have achieved an average International English Language Test Score (IELTS) of at least 6.5, with no band under 6.0.

   Overseas students pursuing Postgraduate Research degrees need to have achieved an average International English Language Test Score (IELTS) of at least 7.0, with a minimum of 6.5 in each area. In the University’s central office, the Office of the Vice Chancellor, overseas student matters are the responsibility of the Overseas Students Officer.

2. INTRODUCTION TO TERTIARY STUDIES IN THEOLOGY
   NN1000Y: Introduction to Tertiary Studies in Theology will be offered in 2020. This unit is offered for one and a half hours per week in both first and second semester, and is strongly recommended for students who have not previously done tertiary study. Normally students undertake the unit only for one semester.

3. STUDY LOAD
   The workload of an undergraduate student shall be a maximum of four (4) units per semester. This is a BTTheol regulation. Any exception to this requirement must be approved by the Academic Dean. As a guide to students and lecturers, YTU accepts a system of demand hours. One class hour is considered as requiring two hours of private study for undergraduate students and three hours of study for postgraduate students.

4. ATTENDANCE AT LECTURES AND TUTORIALS
   Students are expected to attend all lectures and tutorials, as set out in unit outlines. Students should advise the lecturer if they are unable to attend. Attendance at the first lecture is particularly important. An absence of more than 25% of lectures or tutorials in a unit is normally regarded as too great to sustain active engagement in that unit and may impact adversely on the student’s learning.

5. ASSESSMENT
   The University’s Learning and Teaching Committee advises the following regarding assessment:

   Undergraduate Level 1: receipt of early feed-back via a piece of work not substantially counting towards assessment; assessment of more than one piece of work including a component under formal examination conditions; written work 3000 words and not in excess of 3500 words.

   Undergraduate Level 2: written requirement 4000–4500 words

   Undergraduate Level 3: written requirement 4500–5000 words

   Postgraduate Foundational: written requirement 6000- 7,000 words

   Postgraduate Elective & Capstone: written requirement 7000- 8,000 words
Each student will be assessed in the manner indicated in the particular unit outlines in this Handbook, and in accordance with UD regulations where appropriate.

Results are published according to the following grades for all UD degrees:

- High Distinction = 85% +
- Distinction = 75% – 84%
- Credit = 65% – 74%
- Pass = 50% – 64%
- Fail = 0% – 49%
- W = Withdrawal

Assessment Registration

In the first three weeks of the semester, students can withdraw from assessment without penalty. (No mark will appear on their record.)

Up to the end of the ninth teaching week in each semester, students can withdraw from assessment and they will be marked 'W' on their official transcript. Those who withdraw after this date will normally be marked ‘F’ (Fail).

Assignments

Assignments must be submitted by the date determined by the lecturer. The last day for assignments to be handed in is the last day of the examination session at the end of each semester. Any extension of time must be requested from the lecturer at least two days before the date on which the assignment is due. Extension beyond the final day of the examination period cannot be granted by the lecturer, but must be referred to the Academic Dean, and can only be granted on the basis of serious medical or pastoral grounds.

Students should keep a second copy of all assignments submitted. Students should keep copies of all written work for at least three months because all written materials that contribute toward assessment in degree units must be available for possible inspection by a second examiner outside YTU.

All assessment tasks must be submitted through Turnitin via ARK.

Style Guide

Assignments must be presented in the format prescribed in the Style guide.

The University of Divinity is committed to the use of one basic Style Guide. The referencing style observed by the University of Divinity is based on the latest version of the Chicago Manual of Style (17th ed. 2017). See: https://divinity.edu.au/style-guide for more information.

Research students can also utilise the UD license for the software package called Endnote. This is available through the Library Hub https://divinity.libguides.com/endnote
Extensions of time
A lecturer’s extension may be granted for up to two weeks within the semester, if application is made before the due date of the assignment, and on adequate grounds.
Any extension beyond the examination period must be approved by the Academic Dean. The extension is recorded as an “E” on the student's transcript. Other than in exceptional circumstances, as approved by the Academic Dean, students with this designation are required to complete the assigned requirements within 28 days of the conclusion of the examination period.
If a student has not sought an extension but still hands in a piece of work after the due date, and the lecturer accepts the late work, a penalty will be enforced as follows:
1. Work submitted up to one week late without an official extension will normally have its recorded grade reduced by one level (e.g. Distinction to Credit), though such work passed by one examiner must have at least a Pass grade recorded.
2. Work submitted later than one week but up to one month late without an official extension is normally awarded a Pass grade only, unless it fails to reach a Pass standard.
3. For work submitted later than one month or on the last day of semester without an official extension, a Fail grade is normally recorded.

Examinations
Unmarked and unannotated copies of the Revised Standard Version (RSV) or the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) must be used for all examinations in Biblical Studies.

Students for whom English is a Second Language
Students for whom English is a second language may take extra time for each written examination. In the first year of study, students are allowed fifty percent extra time. In subsequent years of study, students are allowed twenty five percent extra time. Such students may take a dictionary into the examination.

6. ARK: OUR LEARNING MANAGEMENT SYSTEM
In 2014, the University introduced a Learning Management System for use across all the Colleges of the University. The name given to the Learning Management System is ARK.

ARK is both a portal to access a variety of digital and online resources and the platform on which those resources reside. Every student is able to access the resources for the units in which they are enrolled through a password provided to them in conjunction with their enrolment. Lecturers upload tutorial readings and other resources for their particular unit(s). Assignments and essays will be submitted for grading through ARK (and thereby through Turnitin, our plagiarism detection software).

Further details how to access and use ARK are available on the YTU website at www.ytu.edu.au or by request via YTU Reception.
MAKING SURE WHAT YOU SUBMIT IS ACTUALLY YOUR OWN WORK

The online program Turnitin was introduced across the University in 2013. Primarily it is a tool to help both student and teacher be sure that what is in an essay is the student’s own work, and not copied from another source without referencing. It is thus both a teaching and learning tool and a tool for the detection of plagiarism. Students are required to submit their assignments through ARK, the university’s learning management system, which automatically submits your work through Turnitin. Each student is able to view an originality report upon submission showing those parts of their assignment taken from other sources. Where they see the need to acknowledge quotes or re-paraphrase, they have the opportunity to upload their assignment again up until the due date.

Full instructions concerning the lodgement of assignments via ARK & Turnitin are provided in the unit outline, the YTU website and through the YTU Office.

In the place of the official cover sheet students are required to include a title page to their assignments with their details of their assignments and their own details. The student’s name should also be included in the header (top left). Submission online constitutes agreement with the declaration of originality on the official cover sheet.
An extension form cannot be attached to your paper when you submit online via Turnitin.

Extension forms should be completed in the normal manner. Once signed by the lecturer or Dean, the original is given to the student and a copy will be held by the lecturer or Dean.

Plagiarism

An essay must be your own work and largely written in your own words. Plagiarism comes from the Latin plagiarus/kidnapper. Plagiarism is considered serious academic misconduct. No part of the work may be copied in whole or part from another student’s work, or from any other source (e.g., published books, periodicals or internet) without due acknowledgement of the source.
A student who is found to have sought to gain an unfair advantage by submitting for assessment a piece of written work which either in whole or in part makes unacknowledged use of, or reference to, the work of others, including Internet sources or by taking into an examination room unauthorised material, or by copying the work of another candidate in an examination, shall be liable to:
• failure of the unit for which the written work or examination was undertaken, or
• the loss of all marks for the written work or examination, or
• suspension of candidature for the degree.
UNDERGRADUATE ACADEMIC AWARDS

As one of the colleges of University of Divinity, YTU teaches the required units for a number of Undergraduate Awards:

Diploma in Theology
Advanced Diploma in Theology and Ministry
Bachelor of Ministry
Bachelor of Theology

For information on Postgraduate Awards see page 90 onwards.

REGULATIONS
All of these awards are recognised by legislation of the Parliament of Victoria under terms of the Melbourne College of Divinity Act (1910). The detailed regulations of each award may be found on the university website: www.divinity.edu.au

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS
To enter the degree programs (BTheol, BMin etc) you must have qualified for admission to a Victorian University. Satisfactory completion of a Year 12 programme of study at a secondary school normally fulfils this requirement.

The old Probationary Entry Scheme is now only available to enter the Diploma in Theology. Students wishing to use this to access the degree programs must enter the DipTheol complete this award and the AdvDipTheol and Min and then access the BTheol in the third year of the program.

Probationary Entry to the Diploma in Theology:
Persons who are not qualified to enrol as candidates in accordance with Regulation 33, but have attained the age of twenty-one years prior to the commencement of the semester in which they would be first enrolled, may apply to enrol as probationary candidates for the Diploma in Theology. Such candidates will be required to complete a probationary period of study for the degree, and having successfully completed 72 credit points, will then be permitted to proceed as an ordinary candidate for the award. Candidates who fail more than 18 credit points of units during their probationary candidature will have their candidature terminated.

FIELDS OF STUDY
There are four fields of study for the awards:

Field A  Humanities (p.39)
Field B  Biblical Studies (p.44)
Field C  Christian Thought and History (p.54)
Field D  Theology: Mission and Ministry (p.68)

ASSESSMENT
At YTU the assessment requirements for units taken towards Diplomas, and Advanced Diplomas are the same as for units taken towards a Bachelor of Theology.
DIPLOMA IN THEOLOGY
DipTheol

In accord with the requirements outlined in Regulation 33, and drawing upon already accredited Bachelor of Theology units, YTU offers this Diploma Course consisting of 144 credit points (usually 8 units) of study, and must include at least 36 points in each of Fields B and C. The award must be completed in not less than one year and not more than three years.

ADVANCED DIPLOMA IN THEOLOGY AND MINISTRY
AdvDipTheolMin

In accord with the requirements outlined in Regulation 34, and drawing upon already accredited Bachelor of Theology units, YTU offers this Advanced Diploma Course consisting of 288 credit points (usually 16 units) of study. It must be completed in not less than two years and not more than six years. Students must complete 18 points of study (1 unit) in each of Old Testament, New Testament, Church History and Systematic Theology. This is normally achieved at YTU by completing the following units or their equivalent:

- BN1000Y  Entering the World of the New Testament
- BA1000Y  Entering the World of the Old Testament: Survey & Method
- CH1001Y  A Survey of Early and Medieval Church History
- CH2002Y  A Survey of Early Modern and Modern Church History
- CT1003Y  Beginning with Jesus

In addition, two further units in Biblical Studies, Systematic Theology or Church History must be completed.

ADVANCED DIPLOMA IN PHILOSOPHY
AdvDipPhil

The Advanced Diploma in Philosophy may be undertaken at Catholic Theological College.
BMin

This degree must be completed in not less than three years and not more than nine years.

The Bachelor of Ministry consists of 432 points comprised of:

a) 72 points in a discipline or disciplines in Field B (Biblical Studies) which must include at least 18 points in each Testament;
b) 36 points in the discipline of Church History;
c) 72 points in the discipline of Systematic Theology;
d) 36 points in a discipline or disciplines in Field D (Theology: Mission and Ministry);
e) 72 points of praxis units in a discipline or disciplines in Field D (Theology: Mission and Ministry); and
f) A further 144 points.

Each course of study for the Bachelor of Ministry:

a) must not include more than 216 points at level 1; and
b) must include at least 108 points at level 3 including 36 points at level 3 in a discipline or disciplines in Field D (Theology: Mission and Ministry).

CREDIT

A maximum of eight units may be obtained in credit for completed degree level work done at other recognised tertiary institutions. A completed degree carries four units of general credit. Up to four units further credit may be granted if the units concerned, in the judgement of UD, closely parallel the content and standard of Bachelor of Ministry studies. Transfer credits are also possible. The total number of credits and transfer credits shall not exceed 288 points.

The Learning and Teaching Committee of UD normally limits the granting of credit for individual subjects to those which were completed not more than ten years ago.
REGULATIONS
This degree was reviewed and a new regulation (No. 4 of the University Regulations) was approved in 2015. Students who began their degree under the previous regulation will be encouraged to complete the requirements of the new regulation but are not required to do so. Details of the requirements under the old regulations are available from the Academic Dean.

This degree must be completed in not less than three years and not more than nine years.

The Bachelor of Theology consists of 432 points comprised of:
- a) 72 points in a discipline or disciplines in Field B (Biblical Studies) which must include at least 18 points in each Testament;
- b) 36 points in the discipline of Church History;
- c) 72 points in the discipline of Systematic Theology;
- d) 36 points in a discipline or disciplines in Field D (Theology: Mission and Ministry);
- e) A further 216 points.

Each course of study for the Bachelor of Theology:
- a) must not include more than 216 points at level 1; and
- b) must include at least 108 points at level 3 including 36 points at level 3 in either a discipline or disciplines in Field B (Biblical Studies) or in the discipline of Systematic Theology.

CREDIT
A maximum of eight units may be obtained in credit for completed degree level work done at other recognised tertiary institutions. A completed degree carries four units of general credit. Up to four units further credit may be granted if the units concerned, in the judgment of University of Divinity, closely parallel the content and standard of Bachelor of Theology studies. Transfer credits are also possible. The total number of credits and transfer credits shall not exceed 288 points.

The Learning & Teaching Committee of UD normally limits the granting of credit for individual subjects to those which were completed not more than ten years ago.

RECOGNITION
The degree has been recognised by a number of tertiary institutions in Victoria and interstate for the purpose of credit towards their degrees. It is the responsibility of those institutions to determine the grounds on which such credit will be given and, in particular, the equivalence or otherwise of subjects completed in the BTheol degree to those offered in their degree.

The degree is also recognised by the Secondary Teachers' Registration Board for the purpose of registration as a secondary teacher in the State of Victoria. In order to obtain such registration, an appropriate qualification in education must be completed in addition to a recognised degree such as the BTheol.
UNIT NUMBERING

The main reason for the numbering system is to indicate the levels of the various units, i.e. Level One, Level Two and Level Three. To explain more fully by means of examples:

BN1000Y  Entering the World of the New Testament
B indicates that the unit is in Field B.
N = New Testament.
The first figure '1' indicates that it is a Level One unit.
The second, third and fourth figures are the proper numbers for the unit itself.
Y indicates that the unit is taught at YTU. [Other Colleges are indicated by different letters.]

CT2310Y  Signs and Gifts of God: Sacraments of Life and Church
In Field C, and under the discipline of Systematic Theology (C+T = CT), this is a Level Two unit.

CH9010Y  Reformation Histories and Theologies
In Field C, and under Church History (C+H=CH), this is a Postgraduate (level 9) unit.

DT2016Y/3016Y  Action for a Fairer World
In Field D, and under the discipline of Moral Theology (D+T =DT), this unit can be taken at Level Two or Level Three.

On pages 186-194 the units offered at YTU in 2020 are listed under their respective disciplines.

Minimum Number: Where "(Min. No. 6)" accompanies a unit description this means that the unit will be offered if the minimum number of students is enrolled.
The University’s Academic Board has approved a major change to the points system used at the University of Divinity to denote the weighting of units in all University awards. This system will take effect on 1 January 2019 (subject to approval of changes to the Regulations by the University Council on 20 June 2018). The new system means that for all units and awards:

- a full-time year of study will be 144 points
- a full-time semester (half-year) 72 points
- a standard postgraduate unit will be 24 points (1/6 of a full-time year)
- a standard undergraduate unit will be 18 points (1/8 of a full-time year)

Why change?
For twenty years, the University has operated the same points systems for undergraduate and postgraduate units. Standard undergraduate units have been valued at 15 points each, but a full-time year’s study requires 8 undergraduate units, or 120 points. Although standard postgraduate units have also been valued at 15 points each, a full-time year’s study has requires 6 undergraduate units, or 90 points. This has created confusion for some students, especially for students transferring into the University from other providers. The change aligns both the undergraduate and postgraduate systems into a single framework without changing the volume of study required for each. The conversion of units will be as follows:

- existing undergraduate points x 1.2 = new undergraduate points
- existing postgraduate points x 1.6 = new postgraduate points

This framework is designed to accommodate all existing unit values, both standard and non-standard, undergraduate and postgraduate. The smallest units accredited by the University are currently 1/18th of the full-time postgraduate load for a year, and 1/16th of the full-time undergraduate load for a year. The new system allows all current standard and non-standard units to be represented using a whole number, without use of decimal points.

How will this affect students?
Students will not experience any change in tuition fees, time commitment or assessment workload for units. Eligibility to graduate will not be affected as study requirements will remain identical. Academic transcripts (the formal record of study completed) will show the new points system for units completed after 1 January 2019, while continuing to show the old points system for units completed prior to 2019. The total points required for completion will be calculated by applying a multiplier to units completed prior to 2019.
NOT FOR CREDIT UNITS

NN1000Y  Introduction to Tertiary Studies in Theology - Fee options: $375 Stand-alone unit or free if studied alongside unit(s) for credit
Non-credit unit
1st semester and 2nd semester: Monday afternoon, nine classes 1:30pm-3:00pm
Fee options: $375 standalone unit or free if studied alongside unit(s) for credit

PRESCRIPTION
This unit is recommended for students who have not previously done tertiary study in Australia, or who have not undertaken tertiary studies in a number of years.

CONTENT
This unit will focus on an understanding of the University of Divinity as a collegiate and specialist university, degree paths, study methods, utilising the library and the library HUB for research, theological language, academic style for footnotes and bibliography, reading skills, note-taking, electronic research resources, skill development in essay writing, time management, plagiarism and paraphrasing, the use of the software program turnitin and a range of academic skills for tertiary study in theology

ASSESSMENT
Two 500 word papers to demonstrate academic skills. These are not for Credit but for student learning.

BN2010Y/BN3010Y THE CORINTHIAN CORRESPONDENCE

2nd semester: Thursday evening (Min. No. 6)

CONTENT
This unit will study the foundation of the Corinthian Community by Paul and the history of its relationship with the Apostle, and its pastoral problems as they emerge from the Corinthian Correspondence. It will include an exegetical and thematic study of 1-2 Corinthians focusing on Paul’s theological and pastoral responses to the issues that arose at Corinth. Paul is in dialogue with his own Jewish tradition, the community of Corinth, the first century world of the Roman Empire, and his own experience. The problems faced in Corinth helped Paul to articulate new maps of time, space and people as these communities learned how to be Christian as they awaited the Lord’s return.

PREREQUISITES: BA1000Y and BN1000Y or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:

Level 2:
1. engage in the exegesis of specific texts from 1-2 Corinthians, making use of appropriate methodologies
2. explain Paul’s response to the specific challenges and problems faced by the Corinthian communities
3. demonstrate understanding of the social, political and religious context of the Corinthian community
4. investigate, analyse, interpret and evaluate relevant secondary literature

Level 3: 1, 2 and 4 see above, and
3. discuss the social, political and religious context of the Corinthian community and how these contexts influence both the community and Paul’s pastoral and theological responses

ASSESSMENT
Level 2: 2000 word exegetical paper (40%); 2500 word essay (60%)
Level 3: 2500 word exegetical paper (50%); 2500 word essay (50%)

CONTENT
The Matthean community stands at the crossroads wrestling with how to preserve and honour their Jewish past while welcoming Gentiles into the Christian community. Matthew articulates an inclusive vision where both Jew and Gentile are welcome, and unity can be found in putting into practice the higher righteousness espoused in the Sermon on the Mount. This unit will undertake a literary, exegetical and theological study of Matthew's Gospel. Special attention will be paid to the manner in which Matthew makes use of his sources (Gospel of Mark, the Q source, and special Matthean material).
PREREQUISITES: BA1000Y and BN1000Y or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
Level 2
1. identify and interpret Matthew’s redaction of Mark’s Gospel and other traditions
2. discuss the context in which this theology arose
3. describe the distinctive theology of Matthew
4. exegete specified texts making use of appropriate methodologies
5. evaluate the significance of the material that is unique to Matthew.
Level 3
1. identify and interpret Matthew’s redaction of Mark’s Gospel and other traditions
2. discuss and evaluate the context in which this theology arose
3. appraise the distinctive theology of Matthew
4. exegete specified texts applying appropriate methodologies
5. identify the material unique to Matthew’s Gospel and demonstrate a critical appreciation of the ways in which these materials have been incorporated

CH1001Y  A SURVEY OF EARLY AND MEDIEVAL CHURCH HISTORY

1st semester: Monday evening  (Min. No. 6)

CONTENT
This unit fulfils two major functions. Firstly, to introduce students to modern skills in the discipline of history: historiography, historical consciousness, research skills, critical use of sources, interpretation methodologies, and presentation of evidenced historical arguments. Secondly, to introduces students to the broad sweep of church history from the end of the apostolic era (c. AD 100) to the end of the era of feudal states and of the first flowerings of the Renaissance in the mid fourteenth century. Particular emphasis is placed on the development of the fundamental doctrines and structures of Christianity, the mutual relationships between Church, State and Culture, the Crusades, the observances of popular religion and challenges to the Church’s authority in the High Middle Ages, leading to the growth of movements towards reform.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate understanding of the dynamic meaning of church history
2. analyse critically both primary and secondary historical sources
3. present a critical evaluation of selected historical evidence from the period
4. engage with debates surrounding major historiographical issues of this period
5. research and assemble evidence for a sustained historical argument on a selected event in early or medieval church history
6. identify and discuss the inter-relationship between history and theology

ASSESSMENT
Material culture study 800 words (20%); document study 1200 words (30%); research essay 2000 words (50%)

CH2002Y  A SURVEY OF EARLY MODERN AND MODERN CHURCH HISTORY

2nd semester: Monday evening (Min. No. 6)

CONTENT
This unit develops the students’ historical methodology and research skills, building on fundamental learnings from the first survey (CH1001Y). Applying these skills, it surveys the history of the Church from the Renaissance to the present. Particular emphasis is given to the current historiography of the Long Reformation (14th to 18th Centuries) and its aftermaths, to the Enlightenment, colonialism, the Age of Revolutions, the great age of mission and the Religious developments of the 19th Century, in church authority structures and ‘Social Christianity’, as a preface to interpreting twentieth century conflicts, reforms and renewal.

PREREQUISITES: CH1001Y or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate understanding of the dynamic meaning of church history
2. analyse critically both primary and secondary historical sources
3. assess and weigh the meaning and significance of selected historical evidence
4. integrate historiographical debates into historical analysis
5. research and assemble evidence for a sustained historical argument on a selected event in early modern or modern church history
6. demonstrate the interrelationship between history and theology

CH2010Y/CH3010Y REFORMATION HISTORIES AND THEOLOGIES

2nd semester: Tuesday evening

CONTENT
This is an examination of the reform movements in the Western European Church during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, with special attention to the interactions between theology and history. Building on religious practice in the late medieval era, this unit moves through the major theological and political issues raised by figures like Martin Luther, Ulrich Zwingli, John Calvin, Thomas Cranmer and Thomas Cajetan, examining in detail their theological positions, writings and the reactions which they sparked. This material will be located in its socio-political contexts to demonstrate the mutual effect of religion and politics upon each other.

PREREQUISITES: CH1001Y or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
Level 2
1. demonstrate basic knowledge of the major theological and political issues of the European Reformation
2. demonstrate an ability to use a range of early modern historical sources, including written material and visual evidence
3. engage with the key historiographical debates on the causes, nature and effect of ‘Reformation’
4. identify causes of division and union in the European Reformation

Level 3
1. demonstrate familiarity with the major theological and political issues of the European Reformation
2. analyse critically a range of early modern historical sources, including written material and visual evidence
3. evaluate and criticise the key historiographical debates on the causes, nature and effect of ‘Reformation’
4. identify patterns and trends of division and union in the European Reformation

ASSESSMENT
Level 2: Document study 1500 words (40%); major essay 2500 words (60%)
Level 3: Document study 2000 words (40%); major essay 3000 words (60%)

INTRODUCTION TO EARLY CHRISTIAN ART AND ARCHITECTURE

CONTENT
This unit studies the origins and growth of Christian art by exploring ways in which liturgy and devotions in the early church found expression in visual culture. Themes and topics to be presented will include: the art of the catacombs; the centrality of monasticism and of the city of Constantinople in Eastern Christianity; the mosaics of Ravenna and Rome; the emergence of new art forms such as the icon; the iconoclastic controversy; the impact of Byzantine art and architecture in the medieval West e.g. Monreale in Norman Sicily and San Marco in Venice.

NO PREREQUISITES OR COREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
Level 2:
1. identify the central iconographic themes of Early Christian and Byzantine art
2. demonstrate ability to use basic vocabulary of visual analysis and historical inquiry in written communication
3. exhibit an understanding of the various lenses (historical, spiritual) through which the interpreter views visual images.
4. engage a range of primary and secondary source material to develop a coherent argument
5. demonstrate basic bibliographic skills (Level 3 only)

DISCIPLES OF HOLINESS

Intensive, (Cross listed as Spirituality DS2216Y/DS3216Y) (Min. No. 6)
1st semester: Saturdays 29 February, 14 March, 2 May, 16 May and 30 May 9.30am – 4.30pm

CONTENT
Christians profess belief in a ‘communion of the saints’; believers are united in Christ to the holy ones of all ages and places. This unit investigates how believers have understood the idea of ‘holiness’ through time. How has holiness found expression, how has it been taught and depicted and how is it expressed in contemporary society. Encountering the saints, these models of holiness, is a key focus of the course.

PREREQUISITES: 15 Points of Church History

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
Level 2:
1. Trace the evolving understandings of ‘holiness’ through Christian history.
2. Identify the ways in which modern Christianity give expressions to holiness.
3. Read and make critical use of hagiographical texts and other sources
4. Articulate the meaning of the doctrine of the communion of the saints.

Level 3:
1. Trace the evolving understanding of ‘holiness’ through Christian history
2. Assess the ways in which modern Christianity gives expression to holiness
3. Read and make critical use of hagiographical texts and other sources
4. Reflect theologically on the doctrine of the communion of the saints

BEGINNING WITH JESUS

2nd semester: Thursday evening

CONTENT
“No-one has ever seen God. It is God the only Son, who is close to the Father’s heart who has made him known” (John1:18). Ultimately, the normative source of our knowledge of God is what God reveals of Godself through Jesus the Christ. This unit introduces the study of theology, its sources and methods, through the study of Christology. It focuses on Jesus Christ, his life and ministry, his death and resurrection, and the subsequent reflection of the Church on his identity.

IN SEARCH OF A HUMBLER CHURCH

1st semester: Thursday evening (Min. No. 6)

CONTENT
What ecclesiological resources do we have for transforming the culture of the church? How can we reclaim the church as a collaborative and vulnerable space? Can we build a church where the mission of serving the reign of God and the relationships of community are more important than the preservation of the institution? In the light of these questions, this unit examines the theology of the church grounded in Jesus' preaching of God's kingdom / reign and oriented to the mission of that kingdom. It will explore New Testament images and metaphors for the church and historical and contemporary models of church and mission. The ecclesiological documents of the Second Vatican Council will be assessed both for what they contribute to the quest for a humbler church, and for what they fail to resolve.

PREREQUISITES: Level 2: one Level 1 CT unit; Level 3: one Level 1 CT unit and one Level 2 CT unit

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate an understanding of the relationship between the Kingdom of God and the church
2. discuss a variety of theological approaches to church and mission (Level 2 only) Assess a variety of theological approaches to church and mission (Level 3 only)
3. discuss the ecclesiological significance and contribution of Lumen Gentium and Gaudium et Spes (Level 2 only) Assess the ecclesiological significance and contribution of Lumen Gentium and Gaudium et Spes (Level 3 only)
4. articulate a theology of the nature and mission of the church

CT2023Y/CT3023Y SALVATION AND THE END OF TIME

1st semester: Tuesday evening (Min. No. 6)

CONTENT
This unit explores key questions in the doctrine of salvation and the Christian understanding of the end times: From what are we saved? How are we saved? Who is saved? What happens after our earthly life? Where do we go? Drawing upon scriptural and theological metaphors for salvation and the end times, the unit undertakes a critical evaluation of classical and modern approaches to the issues in Christian soteriology and eschatology.

PREREQUISITES: 15 points of Christology [Prohibited combinations CT2/3010Y & CT3017Y]

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:

Level 2:
1. identify the biblical roots for the Christian understanding of salvation
2. evaluate critically at least two approaches, from differing time periods, to the Christian understanding of salvation
3. describe and evaluate the consequences of this understanding for eschatology
4. identify the issues around universalism and the scope of salvation
5. demonstrate a critical awareness of at least one classical and one modern treatment of salvation and their consequences for understanding the end times.

Level 3:
1. identify the biblical roots for the Christian understanding of salvation
2. evaluate critically at least two approaches, from differing time periods, to the Christian understanding of salvation
3. describe and evaluate the consequences of this understanding for eschatology
4. analyse critically the issues around universalism and the scope of salvation
5. demonstrate a critical awareness of at least one classical and one modern treatment of salvation and their consequences for understanding the end times.
6. engage with scholarly theological discourse on salvation and the events of the end times.

CONTENT
This unit aims to present with ecumenical sensitivity the origin, meaning and purpose of the Christian sacraments. It begins by outlining foundational concepts upon which contemporary sacramental theology rests, including the importance of symbol, ritual, Jesus as primordial sacrament and the Church as fundamental sacrament. Using this framework, the unit then undertakes a survey of the seven sacraments, paying particular attention to their historical, symbolic, liturgical and pastoral dimensions. Finally, the unit explores and evaluates more recent directions within sacramental theology as a discipline.

PREREQUISITES: Level 2, CT1003Y or equivalent; two units in Biblical Studies at Level 1; Level 3: as per Level 2 plus one unit of Systematic Theology at second Level

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. articulate the importance of foundational concepts such as symbol and ritual in defining and describing sacraments
2. discuss the importance of Jesus Christ as primordial sacrament and the Church as fundamental sacrament in defining and describing sacraments
3. identify significant developments in the historical evolution of the sacraments;
4. analyse the sacraments in terms of their key historical developments, symbolic meanings, and liturgical expression.
5. analyse how the sacraments manifest the presence and work of the Holy Spirit (Level 3 only)

ASSESSMENT
Level 2: 1500 word essay (40%); 2500 word essay (60%). Level 3: 2000 word essay (40%); 3000 word essay (60%)

1st semester: Wednesday evening, cross listed as Church History CH2511Y/CH3511Y (Min. No. 6)

CONTENT
A study of the theology, history, and spirituality of the patristic period from the apostles’ deaths to the pontificate of Gregory the Great (600CE). Through a study of the writings of the key patristic figures, we come to appreciate the diverse cultures and experiences that marked the earliest centuries of the church. These events have enduring relevance to the contemporary church.

PREREQUISITES: 15 points of Systematic Theology at Level 1

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
Level 2:
1. identify the principal themes within patristic theology
2. locate the early development of church doctrine within its wider historical and cultural context
3. employ primary and secondary sources in the analysis of patristic themes
4. assess the enduring impact of patrology upon contemporary theology and spirituality
5. compose a sustained argument on the work and thought of a selected patristic author

Level 3:
1. identify the principal themes within patristic theology
2. locate the early development of church doctrine within its wider historical and cultural context
3. employ primary and secondary sources in the analysis of patristic themes
4. assess the enduring impact of patrology upon contemporary theology and spirituality
5. compose a sustained argument on the work and thought of a selected patristic author
6. demonstrate the mutual influence of historical events and theological developments upon each other in the patristic era

ASSESSMENT
Level 2: 1500 word document study (40%); 2500 word major essay (60%)
Level 3: 2000 word document study (40%); 3000 word major essay (60%)

CONTENT
This unit assumes the central importance of the doctrine of the Trinity in the Christian Church and undertakes an exploration of the reasons – biblical, theological and patristic – for this high status. It will include an estimate of the weight of its biblical foundations and christological presuppositions against the Jewish insistence that God is one. Through influential theologians and key conciliar statements, the unit traces the major landmarks in the development of the doctrine in both the Greek and Latin parts of the church. It also investigates a range of contemporary exposition of the doctrine in theologians of different traditions and concludes with a study of the trinitarian bearing on some other doctrines and contemporary issues.

PREREQUISITES: CT1003Y or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. examine the way biblical material is typically used as support for the Christian doctrine of God as the Holy Trinity
2. identify and explain both the unity and the main differences in the Latin and Greek patristic traditions, including the later church-dividing matter of the Filioque
3. demonstrate a critical appreciation of various influential writers on the Trinity in the last one hundred years, incorporating Catholic, Orthodox and Protestant theologians,
4. evaluate the ways in which the doctrine of the Trinity has influenced developments in Christian spirituality, liturgy, praxis or inter-religious dialogue.

ASSESSMENT
Early exercise of 1000 word (20%): Book Review of 1500 words (30%): Essay of 2500 words (50%)

CT3019Y  HUMAN PERSON: COMMUNITY AND WORLD

2nd semester: Wednesday morning and 2 Intensive Days  (Min. No. 6)
Eight weeks commencing 9:30am 29th July; and two Saturdays, 9:30am-4:30pm: 8 August and 12 September

CONTENT
This unit is a study of Christian reflection on what it means to be human in relation to God and what makes up our humanity. It explores biblical foundations including humanity as created in the image of God, human freedom, grace, nature and grace, sin, persons and community, and how these are embodied through human arrangements such as family, race, work, and the limitations of sickness and disability, ageing and death.

PREREQUISITES: CT1000Y, CT2011Y or equivalent and at least one more unit of Systematic Theology at Level 2; at least one unit in Biblical Studies

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. describe and discuss the main features of Christian teaching on the human person
2. analyse and evaluate the relative contributions of cultures on understanding Christian teaching about the human person
3. identify and assess theological understanding about humanity’s and God’s relationship
4. identify and describe the theological understanding of grace in relation to persons
5. describe and evaluate the shift in the theological tradition from an individualistic concept of person to persons-in-relationship

ASSESSMENT
Two short seminar papers of 1000 words each (50%); one research essay 3000 words (50%)

CONTENTS
This unit serves as an introduction to the canon law of the Catholic Church. Emphasis will be placed on the historical development of the Canon Law and its relationship with theology. The basic content of the unit will be found in the 1983 Code of Canon Law and it is designed to provide an overview of this document with particular attention being paid to the basic principles of interpretation of the law and their pastoral application in areas of general relevance such as the People of God and the Sacraments. Topics covered will include General Norms, Persons in the Code of Canon Law, Consecrated Life and the Sacraments, except Orders.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate a basic knowledge and understanding of the history and development of law in the Church
2. discourse critically on the inter-relationship between theology and canon law
3. critically apply the principles of interpretation of canon law to concrete situations
4. demonstrate familiarity with the overall structure and general content of the 1983 Code of Canon Law
5. demonstrate detailed knowledge of the major aspects of the laws relating to the People of God and the sacraments and the ability to interpret and apply them (Level 3 only)

ASSESSMENT
Level 2: 1000 word tutorial presentation (20%); 1000 word tutorial presentation (20%); 2000 word essay (60%)

CONTENT
This unit examines the liturgy as pivotal to the life of the baptised and as a celebration of faith that gives their lives gospel shape and calls them to mission. It explores a theological and pastoral understanding of the rites and examines their symbolic actions, languages, patterns and corporate nature through the lens of the church’s liturgical praxis. A core component of the unit will be ‘doing’ and reflecting on short rituals from the liturgy of the church, normally elements of the rites of Lent, the Triduum and Easter.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. identify the components of the principle rites of the Christian liturgy
2. explain the core principles governing liturgical celebration
3. discuss a basic theology of Christian liturgy deriving from the Paschal Mystery
4. articulate an understanding of Christian liturgy as a dynamic complex of word – sung and spoken – symbol and rite
5. discuss the relationship between liturgy and mission

ASSESSMENT

DL2010Y/DL3010Y LITURGY: PRESIDING AND PARTICIPATING IN COMMUNITY CELEBRATIONS

2nd semester: Tuesday morning (Min. No. 6)

CONTENT
Building on prior studies and/or experience in Liturgy, this unit comprises three continuous and contiguous elements which overlap and interweave throughout the unit: information relating to the spirit and structure of liturgical celebrations as essentially communal and participatory; reflection on these as developed in the Liturgical books and commentaries, and as experienced in a variety of situations; experience which prepares presiders, particularly, for their role in a variety of Liturgical celebrations in the Catholic tradition.

PREREQUISITES: Prior studies and or experience in liturgical celebration

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate understanding of the spirit and structure of Liturgical celebration in the Christian community as outlined in the basic Catholic Liturgical texts
2. reflect critically on the implications for the way Liturgical celebration is, and should be, experienced in Christian communities
3. preside and participate in Liturgical celebrations professionally and proficiently
4. evaluate the service of ministry implied in ‘full, conscious and active participation’ in Liturgical celebrations as determined by the Second Vatican Council
5. design and compose liturgical celebrations appropriate for selected ecclesial occasions (Level 3 only)

ASSESSMENT
Level 2: Weekly journal reflections: reading and praxis 2000 words (40%); practicum and critical reflection 2500 words (60%). Level 3: Weekly journal reflections: reading and praxis 2000 words (40%); practicum and critical reflection 3000 words (60%)

DM2014Y/3014Y  INTERRELIGIOUS DIALOGUE IN A MULTI-RELIGIOUS SOCIETY

1st semester: Tuesday evening  (Min. No. 6)

CONTENT
This unit is designed to explore the significance and importance of interreligious dialogue in a multi-religious context. It will underline the theological unity based on the common origin and destiny of all, the divine Mystery, who is in dialogue with humanity. This unit will further examine the biblical and theological foundations for interreligious dialogue and address its related challenges and opportunities. It will engage in some actual dialogue, leading to a harmonious society in the Australian context and beyond.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate an understanding of interreligious dialogue
2. analyse interreligious dialogue as an expression of the church’s mission
3. illustrate how interreligious dialogue is an experience of rootedness and openness
4. compare interreligious dialogue with the mission of proclamation
5. critically evaluate interreligious dialogue as an expression of the divine reign (level 3 only)

LIBERATING MISSION: WHEN GOSPEL MEETS CULTURE

1st semester: Wednesday morning

CONTENT

The unit explores understandings and realities of the meeting between cultures and the Gospel. By examining Thomas Grenham’s writings on theological inculturation and Kathryn Tanner’s work on ‘Theories of Culture’, the students are challenged to move towards a ‘process’ rather than static based approach to, and description of Gospel contextualisation, by becoming more attuned to the developing understandings of both ‘Mission’ and ‘Culture’. Unit content draws on the understanding and experience of the student while aiming to describe a spirituality for mission in today’s inter-religious and inter-cultural world.

PREREQUISITES: Level 2: DT1330Y or equivalent; Level 3: DT1330Y or equivalent, plus one unit of Missiology at second Level

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:

1. describe understandings and theories of culture in human life
2. explore aspects of cultural anthropology and of church teaching and practice that related to mission historically
3. evaluate situations and experiences of intercultural dialogue and gospel inculturation
4. demonstrate an ability for personal critical reflection in terms of a spirituality for mission in today’s world
5. critically reflect on a selected aspect of ‘liberating mission’ (Level 3 only)

ASSESSMENT

Level 2: 1000 word tutorial (30%); 3500 word essay (70%)

CONTENT
This unit will explore two important areas of understanding underpinning good pastoral practice: human development theory, and theological notions of the self. After exploring theories of human psychological development, the unit will explore how we come to understand the self within a pastoral setting. This will involve developing a theological understanding of the person within context: personal, familial, social and global. This unit will explore key concepts in developmental theory as well as selected theological works that bridge the gap between pastoral psychology and pastoral practice.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate an understanding of the main theories of and approaches to human development
2. compare and contrast selected theoretical positions (both theological and psychological) on human development and the theology of the self
3. identify key notions of the self within different social and cultural contexts
4. demonstrate an understanding of the place of human development theory, and a theological understanding of the self, within pastoral practice
5. formulate a pastoral practice strategy with this understanding in mind

ASSESSMENT
Short essay focussing on the student demonstrating a clear understanding of human development theory. The essay may utilise both theory and case examples 1000 words (20%); seminar paper on one specific cultural understanding of the self (e.g. Vietnamese, Polynesian, Anglo-Celtic, Indian). 1000 words (20%); essay demonstrating how human development theory, and theological perspectives on the self, are relevant to a pastoral practice environment. The essay will refer to relevant theory and also utilise a case study to demonstrate a clear understanding of the material in the unit 2000 words (60%)

Lecturer: BARRY ROGERS
CONTENT
This unit provides an opportunity for participants to reflect on decreasing interest in institutional religion, but increasing interest in spirituality. Using a range of educational tools, the unit will examine: generational differences in the western post-modern world; the role of religion in traditional and post-traditional societies; an overview of the development theory; biblical, traditional and more modern understandings of faith; the dialogue between institutional religion and personal spirituality; the modern challenges facing individuals and religious communities in our contemporary scientifically oriented society.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. identify the impact of generational and cultural changes on the role of religion, images of God and the understanding of faith
2. exhibit an awareness of theological and developmental theories of human growth
3. discuss cultural and age-related issues in the construction and reconstruction of meaning
4. recognise the relationship between people’s image of God and their ideas about religion and spirituality
5. analyse the challenges and possibilities of reconstructing personal and communal meaning in contemporary scientifically oriented society

ASSESSMENT:
Analysis of major ideas and issues presented in article/s chosen by the lecturer 1500 words (30%); essay on a topic related to the student’s ministry or experience which looks at the challenges facing Church members in meeting the needs of the varying groups in our communities 3000 words (70%)

CONTENT
This unit will explore the experience of trauma as a consequence of: industrial disasters, natural disasters, tragic accidents, domestic violence, child abuse, assaults and murder, terrorism and war. It will begin by helping the student to develop a broad understanding of trauma and its impact on human development and relationships. It will then focus on trauma experiences which are beyond our control, such as natural disasters. It will then explore trauma that arises from domestic conflicts and accidents. This will be followed by an exploration of complex trauma which emerges as a consequence of international conflict and terrorism. The unit will explore theological perspectives on trauma, and of the place of pastoral and spiritual care for victims of trauma.

PREREQUISITES: DP1001Y: Foundations for Pastoral Practice. An interview with the lecturer will be required prior to enrolment in this unit

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. understand and articulate a broad understanding of the complex experience of trauma
2. critically analyse and compare the key elements of a range of traumatic experiences
3. articulate, analyse and reflect psychologically on specific experiences of trauma
4. articulate, analyse and reflect theologically on specific areas of trauma
5. demonstrate an understanding of various intervention strategies in the treatment of trauma and illustrate this through examples of pastorally integrated practice

ASSESSMENT
Critically review two key articles or book chapters 1000 words (20%); essay: an exploration of two key areas of trauma, comparing and contrasting the theory, experience and intervention 1500 words (30%); essay: understanding traumatic experiences, exploring psychological and theological perspectives, and pastoral implications 2500 words (50%)

DP3006Y  PROFESSIONAL ISSUES IN PASTORAL MINISTRY

2nd semester: Thursday morning

CONTENTS
This unit will explore a broad range of personal, professional and ethical issues common in pastoral ministry, offering students an opportunity to engage in a reflexive process on pastoral practice. The unit will emphasise the interrelatedness of theory and practice in ministry, and the intersection of the personal and the professional. It will focus on issues such as: personal calling and discernment; personal virtues and professional skills as foundations to ethical practice; professional ethics; ethical decision making; confidentiality; professional boundaries, power and trust; and potential areas of professional misconduct. The unit will also focus on the significance of reflection, professional consultation and supervision in the maintenance of a compassionate and just ministry, and ministerial and spiritual health and wellbeing.

PREREQUISITES: DP1001Y Foundations of Pastoral Practice

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. compare and contrast various ethical approaches within the “helping professions”
2. analyse, articulate and reflect theologically on professional ethics in a pastoral setting
3. demonstrate and illustrate a clear understanding of ethical standards in pastoral practice
4. critically analyse complex ethical dilemmas within a pastoral setting, demonstrating theory, ethical decision-making and ethical resolutions
5. synthesise the personal, professional and ethical complexities of the pastoral setting

ASSESSMENT
Compare and contrast two different ethical codes 1000 word essay (20%); a focus on two significant elements in one ethical code 1500 word essay (30%); an ethical dilemma within a pastoral practice setting 2500 word essay (50%)

Lecturer: BARRY ROGERS
CONTENT
This unit will invite students to a consideration of issues and concerns in the theology and practice of ministry in contemporary Christian pastoral contexts. It will address the origins of Christian ministry in the Scriptures and the historical developments that have formed and informed the contemporary practice and theology of mission and ministry in both Catholic and ecumenical contexts. Ministry shapes the church but the church shapes ministry so we will examine the role that ecclesiology plays in the theology and practice of ministry. Lay and ordained ministry will be examined in the context of pastoral leadership and the necessity for a ministerial spirituality to sustain and develop the future shape of ecclesial ministry.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. describe and analyse the development of Christian ministry over the centuries
2. identify the different roles of lay and ordained ministry
3. analyse relevant issues in contemporary pastoral leadership
4. articulate a spirituality that will sustain those in ministry
5. Level 3 only demonstrate an understanding of the importance of ecclesiology in pastoral ministry.

ASSESSMENT
Level 2: 1500 word paper and 1000 word review of feedback on a class presentation (50%); 2000 word essay (50%)
Level 3: 1500 word paper and 1000 word review of feedback on a class presentation (50%); 2500 word essay

CONTENT
Spiritual Leaders focuses on personal integration of the theory and practice of a discerning approach to pastoral ministry. It is a year-long, integrated unit for those involved in leadership roles in pastoral ministry: parish priests/ministers, lay ecclesial ministers, chaplains involved in a variety of ministries, educators and community leaders. Utilising a contemplative, experiential approach to learning, the course incorporates individual (monthly) and peer group (weekly) supervision, written and oral verbatims, and seminar work. Spiritual Leaders focuses on growth in self-awareness and sensitivity to the movement of God’s Spirit in oneself, as well as in the person(s) to whom one is ministering. Content areas include the leadership exercised by Jesus, Christian prayer and mysticism, spiritual practices in world religions, the nature and source of interior movements, discernment of spirits and contemplative decision-making.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. identify and articulate interior movements and dynamics within the human person
2. engage in a contemplative approach to pastoral ministry and life experience
3. recognise, articulate and demonstrate awareness of the signs of God’s Spirit (and spirits not of God) present in themselves and others
4. apply the principles of spiritual discernment in pastoral leadership
5. reflect critically on, and articulate, their experience of contemplative listening in spiritual and pastoral leadership and ministry

Lecturer: PAUL BEIRNE
This unit explores the meaning of Christian spirituality using the writings of women throughout history. Emphasis will be placed on the historical context of the primary sources used, the struggles of women in coming to find their own voices within their contexts, and their specific literary genres. This study aims to bring the reader to an appreciation of both the significance of these writings for their own times, as well as their continuing relevance to our life and mission in the Christian Church today.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
Level 2:
1. outline the elements that identify Christian Spirituality particularly in relation to women’s writings throughout history
2. articulate the historical contexts within which women communicate Christian spirituality throughout history
3. identify key features of Christian spirituality within women’s writings
4. interpret a range of literary genres used by women writers in Christian History
5. discuss the implications of the understanding of these texts for ministry in the contemporary Christian church

Level 3:
1-4. see above
5. describe how women did or did not find their voice through their writings in the context of the Church of their times
6. discuss the implications of the understanding of these texts for ministry in the contemporary Christian church

ASSESSMENT

2nd semester: Monday evening

(CONTENT)
Inspired by the social encyclical of Pope Francis, Laudato Si’, this unit investigates the global crises in economics, social inequality and climate change, and responses from Christian social traditions. It explores debates about sustainability in the light of global warming, and what this will mean for economic development, particularly for the alleviation of hunger and poverty through the Sustainable Development Goals. It will explore the relationships between religious belief, economics and the environment, and the role of values in these debates.

PREREQUISITES: DT1000Y or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:

Level 2:
1. describe key debates about sustainability and economic development
2. critically evaluate arguments around sustainability and social equity examined in the unit
3. demonstrate understanding of the moral principles in economic activity and the environment
4. discuss the moral dimensions of these issues and their consequences
5. outline the responsibilities of the churches in affirming values needed for equitable development and sustainability

Level 3:
1-5. as above

6. critically evaluate major moral aspects in current economic and environmental issues

ASSESSMENT
Level 2: 1500 word essay (40%); 2500 word essay (60%)

Foundational unit (Min. No. 6)
1st semester: Tuesday evening

CONTENT
This unit aims to provide students with a comprehensive overview of the formation, socio-historical setting and literary forms of the New Testament literature. Whilst studying the various books of the New Testament, students will be introduced to contemporary methods of critical biblical interpretation. The theological issues of these writings will also be explored.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate an advanced understanding of the social, historical and political milieu of the first century CE
2. analyse the relationship between New Testament texts and the Old Testament and articulate implicit and explicit intertextual references
3. discuss issues associated with the critical attitude towards Judaism in some of these texts
4. describe and discuss the formation of these texts as the source documents of the early Christian communities
5. use contemporary critical methods of biblical interpretation to prepare an exegetical essay
6. use resources, such as commentaries, dictionaries and concordances, for biblical research and communicate their findings in a research essay

ASSESSMENT
2000 word exegetical essay (35%); 4000 word research essay (65%)

Lecturer: GLENDA BOURKE SGS AND FRANCIS OTOBO
BN9010Y THE CORINTHIAN CORRESPONDENCE

Elective unit
2nd semester: Thursday evening

CONTENT
This unit will study the foundation of the Corinthian Community by Paul and the history of its relationship with the Apostle, and its pastoral problems as they emerge from the Corinthian Correspondence. It will include an exegetical and thematic study of 1-2 Corinthians focusing on Paul’s theological and pastoral responses to the issues that arose at Corinth. Paul is in dialogue with his own Jewish tradition, the community of Corinth, the first century world of the Roman Empire, and his own experience. The problems faced in Corinth help Paul to articulate new maps of time, space and people as these communities learn how to be Christian as they await the Lord’s return.

PREREQUISITES: Two foundational units in Biblical Studies or equivalent.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. exegete specific texts from 1-2 Corinthians, making use of appropriate methodologies
2. explain Paul’s response to the specific challenges and problems faced by the Corinthian communities
3. discuss the social, political and religious context of the Corinthian community
4. recognise and analyse Paul’s rhetorical techniques used in 1-2 Corinthians
5. engage in independent research that involves the analytical use of biblical interpretative skills

ASSESSMENT
2500 word exegetical paper (40%); 4500 word essay (60%)

BN9012Y MATTHEW

_{Elective unit (Min. No. 6)}_{1st semester: Wednesday morning}

CONTENT

The Matthean community stands at the crossroads wrestling with how to preserve and honour their Jewish past while welcoming Gentiles into the Christian community. Matthew articulates an inclusive vision where both Jew and Gentile are welcome, and unity can be found in putting into practice the higher righteousness espoused in the Sermon on the Mount. This unit will undertake a literary, exegetical and theological study of Matthew's Gospel. Special attention will be paid to the manner in which Matthew makes use of his sources (Gospel of Mark, the Q source, and special Matthean material).

PREREQUISITES: two foundational units in Biblical Studies or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:

1. identify and interpret Matthew's redaction of Mark's Gospel and other traditions
2. discuss and evaluate the context in which this theology arose
3. assess the distinctive theology of Matthew compared to Mark and Luke
4. exegete specified texts making use of appropriate methodologies
5. evaluate the significance of the material that is unique to Matthew
6. demonstrate their ability to appraise, critique and synthesise both primary and secondary sources

ASSESSMENT

2500 exegetical paper (40%); 4500 word essay (60%)

BIBLIOGRAPHY

BN9018Y  THE GOSPEL OF MARK

Elective unit  (Min. No. 6)
2nd semester: Tuesday evening

CONTENT
The unit will commence with a brief study of the historical setting and literary forms of the New Testament writings, with special emphasis on the origin, literary character and theology of the Markan narrative. The methodology of biblical exegesis will be explained and illustrated in relation to the Gospel – and also in relation to the broader scope of the Synoptic Gospels.

PREREQUISITES: Two Foundational units in Biblical Studies or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. describe the types of literary forms found in the Gospel of Mark and demonstrate how knowledge of these forms aid in the interpretation of specific passages
2. analyse the geographic and historical background to the Gospel of Mark and define the social and political world in which it emerged
3. critically engage with the structure, content and key theological themes of the Gospel of Mark, the purpose for which it was written, the literary and narrative techniques that are used, and its relationship to the other Synoptic Gospels and also The Gospel of Thomas
4. analyse the relationship between the Gospel of Mark and the OT, and articulate implicit and explicit intertextual references
5. identify and utilise the materials that assist NT interpretation
6. demonstrate an understanding of the distinctive theology of Mark

ASSESSMENT
One 2500 word exegetical essay (40%); one 4500 word research essay (60%)

CH8001Y A SURVEY OF EARLY AND MEDIEVAL CHURCH HISTORY

Foundational unit
1st semester: Monday evening

CONTENT
This unit fulfils two major functions. Firstly to introduce students to modern skills in the discipline of history: historiography, historical consciousness, research skills, critical use of sources, interpretation methodologies, and presentation of evidenced historical arguments. Secondly, to introduces students to the broad sweep of church history from the end of the apostolic era (c.AD 100) to the end of the era of feudal states and of the first flowering of the Renaissance in the mid fourteenth century. Particular emphasis is placed on the development of the fundamental doctrines and structures of Christianity, the mutual relationships between Church, State and Culture, the Crusades, the observances of popular religion and challenges to the Church’s authority in the High Middle Ages, leading to the growth of movements towards reform.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate understanding of the dynamic meaning of church history
2. analyse critically both primary and secondary historical sources
3. present a critical evaluation of selected historical evidence from the period
4. engage with debates on major historiographical issues surrounding of this period
5. research and assemble evidence for a sustained historical argument on a selected event in early or medieval church history
6. identify and discuss the inter-relationship between history and theology
7. formulate reasoned historical interpretations of key moments in church’s history

ASSESSMENT
1500 word minor essay (25%); 1500 word document study (25%); 3000 word major essay (50%)

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Lecturer: MATTHEW BECKMANN OFM
CONTENT
This unit develops the students’ historical methodology and research skills, building on fundamental learnings from the first survey (CH8001Y). Applying these skills, it surveys the history of the Church from the Renaissance to the present. Particular emphasis is given to the current historiography of the Long Reformation (14th to 18th Centuries) and its aftermaths, to the Enlightenment, colonialism, the Age of Revolutions, and the Religious developments of the 19th Century in church authority structures and ‘Social Christianity’, as a preface to interpreting twentieth century conflicts, reforms and renewal.

PREREQUISITES: CH8001Y or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. employ fruitfully the dynamic meaning of church history
2. analyse critically both primary and secondary historical sources
3. argue a critical evaluation of selected historical evidence from the period
4. integrate historiographical debates into historical analysis
5. research, arrange and analyse evidence within a sustained historical argument on a selected event in early modern or modern church history
6. identify and demonstrate the inter-relationship between history and theology
7. formulate reasoned historical interpretations of key moments in church’s history

CH9010Y REFORMATION HISTORIES AND THEOLOGIES

Elective unit (Min. No. 6)
2nd semester: Tuesday evening

CONTENT
This is an examination of the reform movements in the Western European Church during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, with special attention to the interactions between theology and history. Building on religious practice in the late medieval era, this unit moves through the major theological and political issues raised by figures like Martin Luther, Ulrich Zwingli, John Calvin, Thomas Cranmer and Thomas Cajetan, examining in detail their theological positions, writings and the reactions which they sparked. This material will be located in its socio-political contexts to demonstrate the mutual effect of religion and politics upon each other.

PREREQUISITES: CH8001Y or equivalent and 15 points of elective units from fields B or C

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate familiarity with the major theological and political issues of the European Reformation
2. analyse critically a range of early modern historical sources, including written material and visual evidence
3. evaluate critically the key historiographical debates on the causes, nature and effect of ‘Reformation’
4. distinguish the theological and socio-political forces at work in the European Reformation
5. articulate historical conclusions drawn from study of primary and secondary historical sources of the Reformation

ASSESSMENT
Document study 3000 words (40%); major essay 4000 words (60%)

Elective Unit (Min. No. 6)
2nd semester: Wednesday evening

CONTENT
This unit studies the origins and growth of Christian art by exploring ways in which liturgy and devotions in the early church found expression in visual culture. Themes and topics to be presented will include: the art of the catacombs; the centrality of monasticism and of the city of Constantinople in Eastern Christianity; the mosaics of Ravenna and Rome; the emergence of new art forms such as the icon; the iconoclastic controversy; the impact of Byzantine art and architecture in the medieval West e.g. Monreale in Norman Sicily and San Marco in Venice.

NO PREREQUISITES OR COREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. identify the central iconographic themes of Early Christian and Byzantine art
2. demonstrate ability to use vocabulary of visual analysis and historical inquiry in written communication at a more advanced level
3. demonstrate a sophisticated understanding of the various lenses (historical, ideological, spiritual) through which the interpreter views visual images
4. engage in critical analysis of a variety of methodological perspectives of art historical scholarship
5. display sophisticated capacity to analyse and synthesise research material and to express findings coherently in written form

CH9216Y  DISCIPLES OF HOLINESS

Elective unit, Intensive (Cross listed to DS9216Y)  (Min. No. 6)
1st semester: Saturdays 29 February, 14 March, 2 May, 16 May, 30 May 9.30 – 4.30pm

CONTENT
Christians profess belief in a ‘communion of the saints’; believers are united in Christ to the holy ones of all ages and places. This unit investigates how believers have understood the idea of ‘holiness’ through time. How has holiness found expression, how has it been taught and depicted and how is it expressed in contemporary society. Encountering the saints, these models of holiness, is a key focus of the course.
PREREQUISITES: At least one unit of Church History or Spirituality

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. account for the evolving understandings of ‘holiness’ through Christian history
2. critically assess the ways in which modern Christianity give expressions to holiness
3. analyse and make critical use of hagiographical and other texts
4. investigate the theological underpinnings to the doctrine of the communion of the saints
5. analyse how contemporary understandings of holiness finds expression in liturgy, prayer and devotion

ASSESSMENT: 5 Essays of 700 words (5 x 10%); Essay of 3500 words (50%)

BIBLIOGRAPHY *set texts recommended for purchase
No set texts. Readings will be provided on line for the students at the commencement of the unit.

Lecturer: BRUCE DUNCAN CSsR
"No-one has ever seen God. It is God the only Son, who is close to the Father’s heart who has made him known" (John1:18). Ultimately, the normative source of our knowledge of God is what God reveals of Godself through Jesus the Christ. This unit introduces the study of theology, its sources and methods, through the study of Christology. It focusses on Jesus Christ, his life and ministry, his death and resurrection, and the subsequent reflection of the Church on his identity.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate an understanding of the issues involved in the quests for the historical Jesus and the fruits of these quests
2. identify the theological issues at stake in a selected topic in Christology
3. critically apply the sources of the Scriptures and contemporary theological writing to the discussion of a selected topic in Christology
4. critically reflect on the identity of Jesus in the light of Scripture and Tradition

Lecturer: ROSS FISHBURN
THE CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE OF GOD:
THE HOLY TRINITY

Elective unit
1st semester: Tuesday morning

CONTENT
This unit assumes the central importance of the doctrine of the Trinity in the Christian Church and undertakes an exploration of the reasons – biblical, theological and patristic – for this high status. It will include an estimate of the weight of its biblical foundations and christological presuppositions against the Jewish insistence that God is one. Through influential theologians and key conciliar statements, the unit traces the major landmarks in the development of the doctrine in both the Greek and Latin parts of the church. It also investigates a range of contemporary exposition of the doctrine in theologians of different traditions and concludes with a study of the trinitarian bearing on some other doctrines and contemporary issues.

PREREQUISITES: CT8003Y or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. analyse the way biblical material is typically used as support for the Christian doctrine of God as the Holy Trinity
2. identify and explain both the unity and the main differences in the Latin and Greek patristic traditions, including the later church-dividing matter of the Filioque
3. demonstrate a critical appreciation of various influential writers on the Trinity in the last one hundred years, incorporating Catholic, Orthodox and Protestant theologians.
4. critically appraise the ways in which the doctrine of the Trinity has influenced developments in Christian spirituality, liturgy, praxis or inter-religious dialogue
6. demonstrate development of research and argumentation skills appropriate to study at postgraduate level

ASSESSMENT
Early exercise of 1500 words (20%); Book review of 2000 words (30%) and Essay of 4000 words (50%)

Lecturer: CHRISTIAAN MOSTERT
IN SEARCH OF A HUMBLER CHURCH

Elective unit
1st semester: Thursday evening

CONTENT
What ecclesiological resources do we have for transforming the culture of the church? How can we reclaim the church as a collaborative and vulnerable space? Can we build a church where the mission of serving the reign of God and the relationships of community are more important than the preservation of the institution? In the light of these questions, this unit examines the theology of the church grounded in Jesus’ preaching of God’s kingdom/reign and oriented to the mission of that kingdom. It will explore New Testament images and metaphors for the church and historical and contemporary models of church and mission. The ecclesiological documents of the Second Vatican Council will be assessed both for what they contribute to the quest for a humbler church, and for what they fail to resolve.

PREREQUISITES: One Foundational unit in both BN and CT

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate an understanding of the relationship between the Kingdom of God and the church
2. critically evaluate a variety of theological approaches to church and mission
3. critically evaluate the ecclesiological significance and contribution of Lumen Gentium and Gaudium et Spes
4. articulate a theology of the nature and mission of the church
5. apply a theology of the church and its mission to a particular contemporary context

ASSESSMENT
Minor essay 2000 words (25%); major essay 3000 words (50%); summative essay: reflection and application 2000 words (25%)

CT9019Y  HUMAN PERSON: COMMUNITY AND WORLD

Elective unit, Intensive  (Min. No. 6)
2nd semester: eight weeks commencing 9:30am Wednesday morning 29 July; and two Saturdays 8 August and 12 September 9:30am-4:30pm

CONTENT
This unit is a study of Christian reflection on what it means to be human in relation to God and what makes up our humanity. It explores biblical foundations including humanity as created in the image of God, human freedom, grace, nature and grace, sin, persons and community, and how these are embodied through human arrangements such as family, race, work, and the limitations of sickness and disability, ageing and death.

PREREQUISITES: 15 points of foundational Systematic Theology CT

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. describe and discuss the main features of Christian teaching on the human person
2. analyse and evaluate the relative contributions of culture and the world on understanding Christian teaching about the human person
3. identify and assess theological understandings about humanity’s and God’s relationship
4. identify and describe the theological understandings of grace in relation to persons
5. describe and evaluate the shift in the theological tradition from an individualistic concept of person to persons-in-relationship
6. assess and articulate a theological understanding of the dynamic tension revealed in nature/grace; body/soul; person/community
7. demonstrate advanced research skills appropriate to study at graduate level

ASSESSMENT
Research essay 4000 words (50%); Two short seminar papers 1750 words each (50%)

CT9023Y  SALVATION AND THE END OF TIME

Elective unit  (Min. No. 6)
1st semester: Tuesday evening

CONTENT
This unit explores key questions in the doctrine of salvation and the Christian understanding of the end times: From what are we saved? How are we saved? Who is saved? What happens after our earthly life? Where do we go? Drawing upon scriptural and theological metaphors for salvation and the end times, the unit undertakes a critical evaluation of classical and modern approaches to the issues in Christian soteriology and eschatology.

PREREQUISITES: A Foundational Unit in CT

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. apply the biblical understanding of salvation to contemporary soteriological discourse
2. synthesise at least two approaches to the understanding of salvation
3. argue clearly the consequences of this undertaking for eschatology
4. analyse critically the issues around universalism and the scope of salvation
5. employ successfully at least one classical and one modern treatment of salvation in reasoning their consequences for understanding the end times
6. engage with scholarly theological discourse on salvation and the events of the end times

ASSESSMENT
Soteriological essay 4500 words (60%); Summative essay 1200 words (15%); Eschatology essay 1800 words (25%)

Lecturer: MATTHEW BECKMANN OFM
This unit aims to present with ecumenical sensitivity the origin, meaning and purpose of the Christian sacraments. It begins by outlining foundational concepts upon which contemporary sacramental theology rests, including the importance of symbol, ritual, Jesus as primordial sacrament and the Church as fundamental sacrament. Using this framework, the unit then undertakes a survey of the seven sacraments, paying particular attention to their historical, symbolic, liturgical and pastoral dimensions. Finally, the unit explores and evaluates more recent directions within sacramental theology as a discipline.

PREREQUISITES: One foundational unit in Systematic Theology

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. articulate the importance of foundational concepts such as symbol and ritual in defining and describing sacraments
2. discuss the importance of Jesus Christ as primordial sacrament and the Church as fundamental sacrament in defining and describing sacraments
3. identify significant developments in the historical evolution of the sacraments
4. analyse the sacraments in terms of their key historical developments, symbolic meanings, and liturgical expression
5. analyse how the sacraments manifest the presence and work of the Holy Spirit
6. articulate the eschatological, missiological and ethical dimensions of the sacraments
7. evaluate recent research and directions within sacramental theology as a discipline

ASSESSMENT
2500 word essay (35%); 1000 word tutorial paper (15%); 3500 word essay (50%)

Lecturer: GAVIN BROWN
MARTYRS MINDS AND MYSTICS: THE BIRTH OF CHRISTIAN THOUGHT

Elective unit (Min. No. 8)
1st semester: Wednesday evening, cross listed as Church History CH9511Y

CONTENT
A study of the theology, history, and spirituality of the patristic period from the apostles’ deaths to the pontificate of Gregory the Great 600 CE. Through a study of the writings of the key patristic figures, we come to appreciate the diverse cultures and experiences that marked the earliest centuries of the church. These events have enduring relevance to the contemporary church.

PREREQUISITES: A foundational unit in Systematic Theology CT or Church History CH

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. identify and source the principal themes within patristic theology
2. articulate the early development of church doctrine within its wider historical and cultural context
3. use critically primary and secondary sources in the analysis of patristic themes
4. assess and provide evidence of the enduring impact of patrology upon contemporary theology and spirituality
5. formulate, with the use of primary material, a sustained argument on the work, thought and historical significance of a selected patristic author
6. show in primary sources the mutual influence of historical events and theological developments upon each other in the patristic era

DC9011Y  CANON LAW A
Elective unit  (Min. No. 6)
1st semester: Monday morning

CONTENT
This unit serves as an introduction to the canon law of the Catholic Church. Emphasis will be placed on the historical development of the Canon Law and its relationship with theology. The basic content of the unit will be found in the 1983 Code of Canon Law and the unit is designed to provide an overview of this document with particular attention being paid to the basic principles of interpretation of the law and their pastoral application in areas of general relevance such as the People of God and the Sacraments. Topics covered will include General Norms, Persons in the Code of Canon Law, Consecrated Life and the Sacraments, except Orders.

PREREQUISITES: nil

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate a basic knowledge and understanding of the history and development of law in the Church
2. discourse critically on the inter-relationship between theology and canon law
3. critically apply the principles of interpretation of canon law to concrete situations
4. demonstrate familiarity with the overall structure and general content of the 1983 Code of Canon Law
5. demonstrate detailed knowledge of the major aspects of the laws relating to the People of God and the sacraments and the ability to interpret and apply them
6. utilise those sections of the 1983 Code of Canon Law that apply to specific pastoral situations

ASSESSMENT
Tutorial presentation 1000 words (20%); tutorial presentation 1000 words (20%); 5000 word essay (60%)

DOING AND LIVING THE CHURCH’S LITURGY

Foundational unit
2nd semester: Monday evening

CONTENT
This unit examines the liturgy as pivotal to the life of the baptised and as a celebration of faith that gives their lives gospel shape and calls them to mission. It explores a theological and pastoral understanding of the rites and examines their symbolic actions, languages, patterns and corporate nature through the lens of the church’s liturgical praxis. A core component of the unit will be ‘doing’ and reflecting on short rituals from the liturgy of the church, normally elements of the rites of Lent, the Triduum and Easter.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. identify the components of the principle rites of the Christian liturgy
2. explain the core principles governing liturgical celebration
3. discuss a basic theology of Christian liturgy deriving from the Paschal Mystery
4. articulate an understanding of Christian liturgy as a dynamic complex of word – sung and spoken – symbol and rite
5. discuss the relationship between liturgy and mission
6. engage in informed and constructive evaluation of particular celebrations

ASSESSMENT
Summary of four key articles 1000 words (20%); seminar paper 1000 words (20%); essay 4000 words (60%)

LITURGY: PRESIDING AND PARTICIPATING IN COMMUNITY CELEBRATIONS

Elective unit (Min. No. 6)

2nd semester: Tuesday morning

CONTENT
Building on prior studies and/or experience in Liturgy, this unit comprises three continuous and contiguous elements which overlap and interweave throughout the unit: information relating to the spirit and structure of liturgical celebrations as essentially communal and participatory; reflection on these as developed in the Liturgical books and commentaries, and as experienced in a variety of situations; experience which prepares presiders, particularly, for their role in a variety of Liturgical celebrations in the Catholic tradition.

PREREQUISITES: Prior studies and or experience in liturgical celebration

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate understanding of the spirit and structure of Liturgical celebration in the Christian community as outlined in the basic Catholic Liturgical texts
2. reflect critically on the implications for the way Liturgical celebration is, and should be, experienced in Christian communities
3. preside and participate in Liturgical celebrations professionally and proficiently
4. evaluate the service of ministry implied in ‘full, conscious and active participation’ in Liturgical celebrations as determined by the Second Vatican Council.
5. design and compose liturgical celebrations appropriate to selected ecclesial occasions (Level 3)
6. form lay ministers to preside effectively at Sunday Services of Word and Communion in the absence of an ordained minister.

ASSESSMENT
Weekly journal reflections: reading and praxis 3250 words (40%); practicum and critical reflection 4000 words (60%)

DM8330Y INTRODUCTION TO THE THEOLOGY OF MISSION

Foundational unit
2nd semester: Thursday morning

CONTENT
The unit will begin with the conceptual clarification of the terms mission and missiology followed by an analysis of the biblical foundations of mission and its historical developments leading to the contemporary issues. It will also examine the key Catholic documents on mission.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. discuss the meaning of the terms mission and missiology
2. discuss the biblical foundation of mission
3. describe the missionary nature of Christian vocation
4. analyse the impact of colonialism on mission
5. demonstrate the origin of mission in the nature of God
6. evaluate the approach to mission which sees it as the vocation of all the baptised

ASSESSMENT
A tutorial presentation and discussion of a case study in mission and submitting the same as a 2000 word essay (40%); 5000 word essay describing the missionary nature of the church and critically examining how it can be practised in contemporary Australia (60%).

INTER-RELIGIOUS DIALOGUE IN A MULTI-RELIGIOUS SOCIETY

Elective unit
1st semester: Tuesday evening

CONTENT
This unit is designed to explore the significance and importance of interreligious dialogue in a multi-religious context. It will underline the theological unity based on the common origin and destiny of all, the divine Mystery, who is in dialogue with humanity. This unit will further examine the biblical and theological foundations for interreligious dialogue and address its related challenges and opportunities. It will engage in some actual dialogue, leading to a harmonious society in the Australian context and beyond.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. develop an understanding of interreligious dialogue
2. analyse interreligious dialogue as an expression of the church’s mission
3. justify how interreligious dialogue is an experience of rootedness and openness
4. compare interreligious dialogue with the mission of proclamation
5. assess interreligious dialogue as an expression of the divine reign
6. appraise the relation between world peace and interreligious dialogue

ASSESSMENT
2000 word tutorial presentation (40%); 4000 word essay on religions and world peace (60%)

Elective unit
1st semester: Wednesday morning

CONTENT
The unit explores understandings and realities of the meeting between cultures and the Gospel. By examining Thomas Grenham’s writings on theological inculturation and Kathryn Tanner’s work on ‘Theories of Culture’, the students are challenged to move towards a ‘process’ rather than static based approach to, and description of Gospel contextualisation, by becoming more attuned to the developing understandings of both ‘Mission’ and ‘Culture’. Unit content draws on the understanding and experience of the student while aiming to describe a spirituality for mission in today’s inter-religious and inter-cultural world.

PREREQUISITES: DT8330Y or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. describe understandings and theories of culture in human life
2. explore aspects of cultural anthropology and of church teaching and practice that related to mission historically
3. identify biblical and theological texts which provide key learning for missionary spirituality
4. present a critical reflection on a selected aspect of ‘liberating mission’
5. evaluate situations and experiences of intercultural dialogue and gospel inculturation
6. demonstrate an ability for personal critical reflection in terms of a spirituality for mission in today’s world

ASSESSMENT
2000 word tutorial paper (30%); 5000 word essay (70%)

Lecturer: ROBYN REYNOLDS OLSH
The unit will offer students a review of the major Asian theologians as well as the major theological themes that have developed in the Asian context of religious pluralism, different cultures, the poor, and marginalized groups like women, dalits and others.

PREREQUISITES
An introductory unit in Missiology/Theology

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. critically evaluate the work of at least one significant Asian theologians
2. articulate three major Asian theological themes
3. compare three characteristics of Asian theology with that of western theology
4. examine the relevance of Asian theology for mission in Asia
5. make a case for contextual theology
6. critically assess how an Asian theological theme is relevant in Australia

FOUNDATIONS FOR PASTORAL PRACTICE

Foundational unit
1st semester: Wednesday evening

CONTENT
This unit will explore two important areas of understanding underpinning good pastoral practice: human development theory, and theological notions of the self. After exploring theories of human psychological development, the unit will explore how we come to understand the self within a pastoral setting. This will involve developing a theological understanding of the person within context: personal, familial, social and global. This unit will explore key concepts in developmental theory as well as selected theological works that bridge the gap between pastoral psychology and pastoral practice.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate an understanding of the main theories of and approaches to human development
2. compare and contrast selected theoretical positions (both theological and psychological) on human development and the theology of the self
3. identify key notions of the self within different social and cultural contexts
4. demonstrate an understanding of the place of human development theory, and a theological understanding of the self, within pastoral practice
5. formulate pastoral practice strategies with this understanding in mind
6. demonstrate how this understanding can apply in complex and challenging pastoral situations

ASSESSMENT
Short essay focussing on the student demonstrating a clear understanding of human development theory 1500 words (20%); a seminar paper, written and presented, on one specific cultural understanding of the self, e.g. Vietnamese, Polynesian, Anglo-Celtic, Indian 1500 words (20%); an essay demonstrating how human development theory, and theological perspectives on the self, are relevant to a pastoral practice environment 3000 words (60%)

DP9005Y TRAUMA-A CONTEMPORARY ISSUE WITHIN THE PASTORAL SETTING

Elective unit (Min. No. 6)
2nd semester: Wednesday evening

CONTENT
This unit will explore the experience of trauma as a consequence of: industrial disasters, natural disasters, tragic accidents, domestic violence, child abuse, assaults and murder, terrorism and war. It will begin by helping the student to develop a broad understanding of trauma and its impact on human development and relationships. It will then focus on trauma experiences which are beyond our control, such as natural disasters. It will then explore trauma that arises from domestic conflicts and accidents. This will be followed by an exploration of complex trauma which emerges as a consequence of international conflict and terrorism. The unit will explore theological perspectives on trauma, and of the place of pastoral and spiritual care for victims of trauma.

PREREQUISITES: DP8001Y Foundations for Pastoral Practice; an interview with the lecturer is required prior to enrolment in this unit

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. understand and articulate a broad understanding of the complex experience of trauma
2. critically analyse and compare the key elements of a range of traumatic experiences
3. articulate, analyse and reflect psychologically on specific experiences of trauma
4. articulate, analyse and reflect theologically on specific areas of trauma
5. demonstrate an understanding of various intervention strategies in the treatment of trauma and illustrate this through examples of pastorally integrated practice
6. critically review current research on the psychological and spiritual impact of trauma and illustrate appropriate pastoral responses

ASSESSMENT
Critically review two key articles or book chapters 1500 words (20%); exploration of two key areas of trauma, comparing and contrasting the theory, experience and intervention 2500 word essay (30%); understanding traumatic experiences, exploring psychological and theological perspectives, and pastoral implications 3500 word essay (50%)

DP9006Y PROFESSIONAL ISSUES IN PASTORAL MINISTRY

Elective unit
2nd semester: Thursday morning

CONTENT
This unit will explore a broad range of personal, professional and ethical issues common in pastoral ministry, offering students an opportunity to engage in a reflexive process on pastoral practice. The unit will emphasise the interrelatedness of theory and practice in ministry, and the intersection of the personal and the professional. It will focus on issues such as: personal calling and discernment; personal virtues and professional skills as foundations to ethical practice; professional ethics; ethical decision making; confidentiality; professional boundaries, power and trust; and potential areas of professional misconduct. The unit will also focus on the significance of reflection, professional consultation and supervision in the maintenance of a compassionate and just ministry, and ministerial and spiritual health and wellbeing.

PREREQUISITES: DP8001Y Foundations of Pastoral Practice

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. compare and contrast various ethical approaches within the “helping professions”
2. analyse, articulate and reflect theologically on professional ethics in a pastoral setting
3. demonstrate and illustrate a clear understanding of ethical standards in pastoral practice
4. critically analyse complex ethical dilemmas within a pastoral setting, demonstrating theory, ethical decision-making and ethical resolutions
5. demonstrate an integrated understanding of the personal, professional and ethical complexities of the pastoral setting
6. demonstrate a critical understanding of current research on healthy, ethical formation and practice, and reflect on this understanding for personal pastoral practice

ASSESSMENT
Compare and contrast two different ethical codes 1500 word essay (20%); focus on 3 significant elements in one ethical code 2500 word essay (30%); ethical dilemma within a pastoral practice setting 3500 word essay (50%)

DP9010Y  FAITH RELIGION AND SPIRITUALITY IN CONTEMPORARY SOCIETY

Elective unit, Intensive (crosslisted as Spirituality DS9010Y)
1st semester: 9:00am-4:00pm, Sat & Sun 22-23 Feb; 14-15 March, 18-19 May

CONTENT
This unit provides an opportunity for participants to reflect on decreasing interest in institutional religion, but increasing interest in spirituality. Using a range of educational tools, the unit will examine: generational differences in the western post-modern world; the role of religion in traditional and post-traditional societies; an overview of the development theory; biblical, traditional and more modern understandings of faith; the dialogue between institutional religion and personal spirituality; the modern challenges facing individuals and religious communities in our contemporary scientifically oriented society.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. identify the impact of generational and cultural changes on the role of religion, images of God and the understanding of faith
2. exhibit an awareness of theological and developmental theories of human growth
3. discuss cultural and age-related issues in the construction and reconstruction of meaning
4. recognise the relationship between people’s image of God and their ideas about religion and spirituality
5. analyse the challenges and possibilities of reconstructing personal and communal meaning in our contemporary scientifically-oriented society
6. propose and evaluate a way of engaging Christian identity with broad, diffuse spirituality in contemporary culture

ASSESSMENT
Analysis of major ideas and issues presented in article/s chosen by the lecturer 2500 words (30%); essay on a topic related to the student’s ministry or experience which looks at the challenges facing Church members in meeting the needs of the varying groups in our communities 4500 words (70%)

DP9111Y MINISTRY IN CONTEMPORARY CONTEXT
Elective Unit (Min. No. 6)
2nd semester: Thursday evening

CONTENT
This unit will invite students to a consideration of issues and concerns in the theology and practice of ministry in contemporary Christian pastoral contexts. It will address the origins of Christian ministry in the Scriptures and the historical developments that have formed and informed the contemporary practice and theology of mission and ministry in both Catholic and ecumenical contexts. Ministry shapes the church but the church shapes ministry so we will examine the role that ecclesiology plays in the theology and practice of ministry. Lay and ordained ministry will be examined in the context of pastoral leadership and the necessity for a ministerial spirituality to sustain and develop the future shape of ecclesial ministry.

PREREQUISITES
Undergraduate degree in theology or three foundational units in a postgraduate award

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. describe and analyse the development of Christian ministry over the centuries
2. identify the different roles of lay and ordained ministry
3. analyse the relevant issues in contemporary pastoral leadership
4. articulate a spirituality that will sustain those in ministry
5. assess the importance of ecclesiology in developing a theology of ministry

DR9663Y LEADERSHIP FOR MISSION IN A CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Elective unit Intensive, MedTheol St Francis Xavier College, Beaconsfield (Min. No. 6)
1st semester: 9:00am-4:00pm Thur 12 Mar and Fri 13 Mar; (2 days online asynchronous); Thur 7 May and Fri 8 May. Crosslisted as DE9663Y/DM9663Y

CONTENT
This unit will address the changing context in which Catholic schools operate and the import this has for school leaders. It will focus on the centrality of ‘mission’ in a context where the historical partnership between family, school and parish has diminished. The unit will then address the need for openness to the Spirit as we re-contextualise by drawing on the wisdom of Tradition, Scripture, church and human experience as we negotiate the needs of an increasingly pluralist school community. It will also examine the responsibilities of those aspiring to or involved in leadership under the rubrics of educational, spiritual and managerial leadership.

PREREQUISITES: 16 points of Scripture, and 16 points of Systematic Theology or Education or Religious Education or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. analyse the signs of the times as they are reflected in the context of Catholic schools
2. demonstrate an understanding of the concept of mission and its import for school leadership
3. critically engage issues to which those in Catholic school leadership must attend
4. evaluate the roles of Tradition, Scripture, church and human experience in the re-contextualisation of Catholic schools
5. identify and describe the range of skills necessary for educational leadership

ASSESSMENT
One paper of 3000 words focussing on the place of ‘mission’ in a Catholic school (40%); one paper of 3000 words focussing on the development of a vision for a Catholic school and a strategic plan to effect its implementation (40%); Review and reflection of 750 words on online learning day one (10%); Review and reflection of 750 words on online learning day two (10%)

DS8000Y FOUNDATIONS FOR CHRISTIAN SPIRITUALITY

Foundational unit

2nd semester: Wednesday morning

CONTENT
The unit addresses understandings of spirituality and various approaches to its study (e.g., (i) historical, (ii) theological and (iii) anthropological). Traditional Christian spiritualities, both apostolic and mystical are examined, as well as other selected spiritualities, including indigenous and eco-spiritualities. The unit includes a transformational perspective, inviting students to relate the study of spirituality to their own personal contexts.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. articulate the fundamental nature and the methods of spirituality
2. discourse on the development of spirituality over time
3. give a critical reflection on a selected aspect of Christian spirituality
4. analyse traditional and contemporary approaches to spirituality
5. make a critical personal response to a specific selected aspect of the unit

Elective unit cross listed as Church History CH9215Y (Min. No. 6)
1st semester: Thursday evening,

CONTENT
This unit explores the meaning of Christian spirituality using the writings of women throughout history. Emphasis will be placed on the historical context of the primary sources used, the struggles of women in coming to find their own voices within their contexts, and their specific literary genres. This study aims to bring the reader to an appreciation of both the significance of these writings for their own times, as well as their continuing relevance to our life and mission in the Christian Church today.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. outline the elements that identify Christian Spirituality particularly in relation to women’s writings throughout history
2. articulate the historical contexts within which women communicate Christian spirituality throughout history
3. identify key features of Christian spirituality within women’s writings
4. interpret a range of literary genres used by women writers in Christian History
5. discuss the implications of the understanding of these texts for ministry in the contemporary Christian church
6. describe how women did or did not find their voice through their writings in the context of the Church of their times
7. demonstrate the critical and creative tension between an understanding of historical texts in their original context and an appreciation of their contemporary value

INTRODUCTION TO MORAL THEOLOGY: THE GOD I BELIEVE IN IS THE GOD TO WHOM I RESPOND

CONTENT
Taking its direction from Scripture and Church Tradition, this unit explores the essential components for understanding and appreciating Moral Theology as a theological discipline, and its integration with Systematic Theology, Philosophy, Church History, Pastoral Ministry, Spirituality and Church Law.
Particular emphasis is given to Covenant relationship: the human person made in the image and likeness of God and transformed in the new life of the Risen Christ, and consequently on the principles and processes for making responsible moral choices as a Christian in the context of everyday life.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. outline the development of universal ethics, western moral philosophy and the Judeo-Christian moral tradition
2. demonstrate understanding of the sources, tradition and principles of Catholic Moral Theology
3. explain clearly the key moral concepts of conscience, conversion, discipleship, reconciliation, and other fundamental concepts of Catholic Moral Theology
4. display an ability to apply Catholic moral principles to life situations
5. discourse critically on issues of current ethical concern in society and appropriate Christian moral responses to these

Elective unit (Min. No. 6)
2nd semester: Monday evening

CONTENT
Inspired by the social encyclical of Pope Francis, Laudato Si’, this unit investigates the global crises in economics, social inequality and climate change, and responses from Christian social traditions. It explores debates about sustainability in the light of global warming, and what this will mean for economic development, particularly for the alleviation of hunger and poverty through the Sustainable Development Goals. It will explore the relationships between religious belief, economics and the environment, and the role of values in these debates.

PREREQUISITES: One foundational unit in Moral Theology or equivalent

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. identify and analyse key factors in the debates over economics and/or sustainable development
2. evaluate and critique the arguments around sustainability and social equity examined in the unit
3. demonstrate understanding of the moral principles in economic and social development
4. analyse the moral dimensions of one or more economic or environmental issues and their consequences for human development
5. critically evaluate major moral aspects in current economic and/or environmental issues
6. evaluate the responsibilities of the churches in relation to current issues in economic policy and environmental sustainability

CAPSTONE UNITS

Under the new regulations for the Master of Arts, the Master of Theological Studies, and the Master of Divinity, students must complete a capstone unit of at least 24 points value.

Capstone units are designed to be undertaken in the final stages of the degree program, and prompt the student to gather together the learning achieved in the degree. This may be focussed in a research essay, an integrative seminar, a ministry project, or a theological synthesis.

Curriculum Objective

This capstone unit provides an opportunity for a student to integrate the knowledge and skills in the various disciplines of theology acquired during their course of study, and to apply these in a substantial focussed research project. The student will be expected to demonstrate advanced skills in exegesis, historical and theological methodologies as appropriate to the research topic, and skilled use of electronic databases, journals and other scholarly literature. As the capstone of a master’s programme, the student’s work will display a critical awareness of issues pertaining to the study of theology as an academic discipline.

A FAITH TO LIVE BY

Capstone Unit (Min. No. 6)
2nd semester: Wednesday evening

CONTENT
This capstone unit uses the framework of the Church’s affirmation of faith as found in the Apostles’ and Nicene Creeds to prompt reflection on the basic components of Christian belief, and to draw conclusions about how our believing informs responsible living in the present and hope for the future. Consideration is given to how the various components of these articulations of faith arise from the biblical witness and are shaped by the experience of Christian communities. Students will use their biblical, historical, systematic and applied theological knowledge to offer an integrative perspective on an article of the creed and its implication for Christian practice today.

PREREQUISITES: at least 75 points of Elective units (i.e. 5 units)

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. describe the biblical foundations of the creedal affirmations
2. evaluate how issues in the early church influenced these beliefs
3. explore the ongoing significance of at least two creedal articles
4. integrate the biblical, historical and theological sources in understanding and articulating faith
5. evaluate the implications for Christian life of one creedal article

ASSESSMENT
Minor essay 2500 words focussing on origin and importance of a creedal article (30%); major essay 5000 words focussing on origin, importance and implications for Christian life of a different creedal article (70%)

ENHANCING TEACHER PROFESSIONAL LEARNING FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Capstone: MEdTheol St Francis Xavier College, Beaconsfield (Min. No.6)
2nd semester: Face to Face sessions: 9.30 – 12.30 Friday 7th August and Friday 9th October.
The remainder of the unit: self-directed, peer engaged learning with supervisor support

CONTENT
In this unit, students will undertake a capstone learning experience that includes personal study, collaborative enquiry, and reflective practice. This unit investigates and evaluates insights aimed at improving the quality and effectiveness of teacher professional development in Religious Education. A focus of this unit will be to articulate key features of a professional learning framework suited to enhancing teacher capacity in Religious Education. Students will demonstrate advanced and well-integrated knowledge and skills within the disciplines of education, theology and religious pedagogy, with application to their school context.

PREREQUISITES: This unit may only be taken in the final two semesters of the MEdTheol

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. identify and explain key features of in-service teacher professional development, according to contemporary standards of excellent practice
2. distinguish and analyse dimensions of professional learning for teachers particularly relevant to Religious Education
3. design a framework of evidence-informed criteria for enhancing teacher capacity in Religious Education
4. use advanced academic skills to construct an integrated presentation of the learning outcomes above, using methodologies and scholarship appropriate to the disciplines of education, theology and religious pedagogy.

ASSESSMENT
Report (outline and bibliography for essay) of 1000 words (10%); Essay of 7000 words (90%)

Lecturer: MICHAEL KELLY CSsR AND KEVIN LENEHAN
This unit is offered at Postgraduate Level, but Undergraduate students may enrol.

Placement in a hospital (clinical) setting offers the opportunity to develop skills in pastoral and spiritual care with people across the spectrum of society and to integrate one’s operational theology with the actual offering of care in situations of major and minor life transitions including birth and birthing, ageing, trauma, rehabilitation, mental health issues, dying and death. The clinical setting confronts people with the major questions of meaning and purpose and in meeting them in these profound places, the CPE student learns the possibilities for offering effective pastoral care.

While all hospital based CPE Centres have placements in the clinical setting, several accept students with external placements in a variety of settings, including aged care, mental health, community and schools. External placements offer students the opportunity to reflect on their experience as pastoral and spiritual caregivers in their current or intended area of pastoral practice.

Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) is offered through the University of Divinity in partnership with ASACPEV (the Association for Supervised and Clinical Pastoral Education in Victoria, Inc). The program is required by some churches for formal ministry accreditation or ordination, and is available to pastoral and spiritual carers. Most units are offered in hospital or clinical contexts, but some can be undertaken in a variety of ministry contexts. The CPE program is led by ASACPEV’s accredited supervisors.

DEMANDS OF THE CPE PROGRAM
The CPE program demands much of students, both in time and emotional investment. Encounters with others can be challenging, as can the reflection on those encounters. The discipline of writing up journals, case studies and verbatims, enhances personal integration. Students who are new to hospital or healthcare settings, or multi-faith and multi-cultural settings may find these confronting.

CPE is often reported as one of the most rewarding units taken by students.

ENROLLING IN CPE
Students interested in taking a unit of CPE should first speak with the Dean of their Home University of Divinity College. Enrolments are managed through the University’s Colleges in conjunction with the University’s CPE Liaison Officer, Allison Whitby, who is located at Stirling Theological College. The CPE Liaison Officer can offer advise on who to contact at which CPE Centre, and the ASACPEV website https://www.asacpev.org.au can also guide students.

Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) is a programme of education and formation for the work of pastoral care. The programme’s methodology utilises the action/reflection model of learning. The action component entails the actual provision of pastoral care within a pastoral setting. This care acknowledges and attends to the human condition, particularly life’s religious and spiritual dimensions. The reflection component entails the exploration of the ministry experience, the dynamics present, and the theological and spiritual dimensions. This action/reflection process is integral to the participants’ understanding and the formation of their pastoral identity and competence. CPE is “learning theology from the living human document” (Anton Boisen). The goal of the programme is that the participant will be acknowledged first hand as the bearer of the sacred and the distinctive provider of spiritual and pastoral care.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. develop goals for their learning which identify their learning edges for the Unit
2. begin, develop and conclude pastoral interactions with people with varied experiences
3. identify and respond to a person’s spiritual needs and resources in ways that contribute to a person’s well-being
4. demonstrate a basic capacity to engage with inter-disciplinary staff
5. engage in reflection on their experience of spiritual care in writing, with a group of peers and with their supervisor, as they work towards their goals and objectives
6. reflect upon their encounters and pastoral experience within a spiritual/theological framework
7. articulate how the insights gained from theological/spiritual reflection on the pastoral experiences can be incorporated into future pastoral practice
8. demonstrate a growing awareness of their identity as a spiritual carer.

CO-REQUISITE REQUIREMENTS
In Undergraduate programs:
At least one unit at 2000 level or higher in CT AND at least one unit in DP AND at least one unit in Field B; AND demonstrated pastoral competence; AND a successful interview with the CPE Centre Director or delegate.

In Postgraduate programs:
At least one Unit in Field B or in CT AND One Unit in DP; AND demonstrated pastoral competence; AND a successful interview with the CPE Centre Director or delegate.

ASSESSMENT
- Statement of Learning Goals (200 words) 5%
- Reports of spiritual care with people (8 of) (approx. 6000 words) 30%
- Faith/spirituality and ministry story (min 100 words) 5%
- Case study (2500 words) 10%
- Mid term evaluation paper (2500 words) 20%
- Final evaluation paper (2500 words) 30%

This unit is graded Pass/Fail
ALL tasks MUST be completed satisfactorily to pass this unit.

Lecturers will be those already approved by ASPEA and recorded by the University.

RQ9021C RESEARCH METHODOLOGIES
Elective unit, taught at Catholic Theological College
1st semester: Wednesday evening

CONTENT
This unit introduces students to contemporary approaches to research methodologies across various disciplines. It provides students with the skills to apply these methodologies in the formulation of a research proposal. The unit outlines the methodological challenges, hermeneutical questions, and new directions for recent theological research, and the responses across various disciplines to those new developments. Students will be introduced to the skills, competencies and technical methods that are needed to conduct and present high-quality research, including identifying a research topic, citation and bibliographical protocols, and obtaining ethics clearances.

NO PREREQUISITES

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate a working knowledge of terms, assumptions and approaches to research that are current in selected theological disciplines
2. critically evaluate key research methodologies and identify those that are most relevant to their own research topics
3. demonstrate a familiarity with research methods and protocols
4. demonstrate an appreciation of the nature, purpose, ethical responsibilities and limitations of research
5. critically review scholarly literature relevant to their own research topics
6. develop skills in research design that clearly identify their research question, hypothesis, and methodology

ASSESSMENT: 2000 word review essay (30%); 6000 word research proposal (70%)

16,000 WORD MINOR THESIS

Unit value 48 points (See Minor Thesis Policy on the University of Divinity website for more details)

RQ9748M  One semester 16,000 minor thesis

RQ9748M - Full year 16,000 minor thesis beginning Semester One
RQ9748M - Full year 16,000 minor thesis beginning Semester Two

The Minor Thesis provides training for students in development of research skills and tests their capacity to undertake research. It may serve as a pathway into higher degrees by research.

Procedures for 16,000 Word Minor Thesis
Admissions and approvals

- Students indicate their intention to enrol in the 16,000 word minor thesis by including the unit ‘Minor Thesis’ on the standard University of Divinity admission or re-enrolment form for the relevant year. Students may elect to take the 16,000 word minor thesis in a single semester, or across two consecutive semesters.
- Students should discuss their proposed research topic with the Research Coordinator at their college, who can assist the student in finding a suitable supervisor.
- Students must complete a ‘16,000 word minor thesis approval form’. This includes an outline of the topic to be researched, learning outcomes and the assessment schedule. https://divinity.edu.au/documents/minor-thesis-approval-form/
  This must be signed by the student, the College Research Coordinator, the nominated supervisor, and must be lodged with the University of Divinity Director of Research no later than the census date of the semester in which the essay will be written. Incomplete applications will be returned and will not be processed. The University of Divinity Director of Research will assess each application and, where the application is satisfactory, confirm the enrolment.
- The University of Divinity Director of Research will forward each completed ‘16,000 word minor thesis approval form’ to the appropriate Chair of Examiners for approval or amendment. Once a thesis outline is approved, the University of Divinity Director of Research shall appoint examiners, in consultation with the supervisor and appropriate Chair of Examiners.

Ethics Clearance

Where the approved topic requires human subject research, or material not in the public domain, or for any other reason requires an ethics clearance, the student shall submit an application to the University of Divinity Human Research Ethics Committee, which shall exercise an expedited review process, in which the University of Divinity Director of Research and no more than two other members of HREC are involved.

* Timing

It is recommended that a candidate for a minor thesis enrol through the office of the Academic Dean late in the semester prior to beginning the minor thesis, and then consult with the Research and Education Coordinator so that they can make adequate preparation for submission of the minor thesis approval form and if required an ethics clearance application.
SUPERVISED READING UNITS
POSTGRADUATE

The unit should be in some area of the discipline not already covered by the unit offerings at YTU, or, if covered, not being offered in the year the reading unit is done.

In consultation with her/his supervisor, the student shall prepare a bibliography for the Reading Unit and complete the required application form. These will be forwarded by the Academic Dean, who will in each case approve the supervisor, the program of study and the assessment task(s). The student is to maintain regular (weekly or fortnightly) contact with the supervisor.

A SUPERVISED READING UNIT (8000 words, worth 24 points) MAY BE ARRANGED IN THE FOLLOWING DISCIPLINES.

Postgraduate
BA9424Y OLD TESTAMENT
BN9424Y NEW TESTAMENT
BS9424Y BIBLICAL STUDIES
CH9424Y CHURCH HISTORY
CT9424Y SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

48 point Supervised Reading Units may also be approved. Consult the Academic Dean.
The Graduate Certificate in Teaching Religious Education is principally, although not exclusively, designed to enable teachers to gain accreditation to teach Religious Education in a Catholic school. It is designed to fulfil the requirements of the Catholic Education Commission of Victoria Policy 1.7 Accreditation to Teach Religious Education in a Catholic School.

The Graduate Certificate allows those who have an undergraduate, or higher, qualification in another discipline to pursue theological and educational units that will enhance their ability to reflect on and communicate the Catholic faith.

It introduces students to contemporary scholarship in scripture, theology and religious education, so as to assist them in the planning, implementation and evaluation of programs of religious education.

STRUCTURE

Four (4) units of study (each worth 16 points) are taken normally over a two year period. These units are usually taught intensively over four days: either two Saturdays and two days in the school term holidays; or two consecutive days twice during the semester. The course is taught at Box Hill, Warrnambool and Ballarat.

The required units are usually taken in the following order:
- DR8601Y Introduction to Scripture for Religious Educators
- DR8602Y Jesus Christ Today: In Church, Mission and Sacraments
- DR8603Y Foundations of Religious Education
- DR8604Y Making (Christian) Choices in Life: Value Added Approach

In addition one 8 point unit (DR8605Y Integrative Exercise) is taken concurrently over the duration of the course.

FEES

- GCTRE units $1760.00 per 16 point unit of study
- GCTRE Integrative unit $880.00 per 8 point unit of study

FUNDING

Many students are sponsored by the relevant Catholic Education Office. Enquiries related to funding should initially be directed to the Accreditation Officer at Catholic Education Melbourne or the teacher’s principal in the Ballarat Diocese.

PREREQUISITE

Undergraduate degree or equivalent to enrol in the course.

Normally, successful completion of the first year units is a prerequisite for undertaking the second year units. The reason is that the units are sequenced as part of the curriculum for the course.
CONTENT
This unit introduces teachers to the Scriptures by focusing on particular sections of the First (Old) and Second (New) Testaments and how these are interpreted within the Catholic tradition. It provides an overview of: the relationship between Scripture and Revelation, principles and methods of biblical interpretation, the significance of the Exodus and the Sinai covenant within Judaism and Christianity, the social, political and religious context of first century CE Judaism, and the formation of the Gospels. Passages will be chosen from Genesis 1-11, Exodus 1-14, Mark’s Gospel and Matthew 1-2 and Luke 1-2.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. recognise and describe the role of Scripture as witness to God’s revelation for members of the Jewish and Christian faiths
2. understand and explain why Scripture was written, and is read, in particular social, political and religious contexts
3. demonstrate an understanding that the Gospels present different ‘portraits’ of Jesus
4. identify methods of interpretation and engage in basic literary analysis of texts
5. apply learnings to support a position on the appropriate uses of Scripture in religious education

ASSESSMENT
2000 word exegetical exercise (50%); 2000 word essay (50%)

Lecturer: ROSE MARIE PROSSER
CONTENTS
This unit seeks to present with ecumenical sensitivity a general introduction to the origin, nature and development of the Church of Jesus Christ as the community of his followers. This entails an examination of the question ‘who is Jesus?’ On this foundation the unit presents the Church itself as the sign and instrument of Jesus Christ today, for the coming of the reign of God on earth. It is in this context that sacraments are understood as signs of the loving presence and self-giving of God in Christ. In developing this point the unit sketches the origin, nature and development of the Church’s ritual sacraments in reflecting and sustaining the Church in its mission. The unit’s consistent focus is on the whole Church as the Spirit-filled People of God and Body of Christ, and on the presence of the Holy Spirit in the life, sacraments, mission and ministries of the Church.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. outline the origin of the Church from the person of Jesus Christ and his early disciples
2. describe how the mission of the Church in the world today continues the mission of Jesus Christ
3. identify particular human experiences as possible signs and paths to the mystery of God
4. outline how the early Christians understood themselves as communities of Christ and their sacraments as celebrating their shared commitment to Christ and his mission
5. explain how the Church’s ritual sacraments originate in both the Christ-event and in the Church’s response
6. describe the role of the Holy Spirit as the life and soul of the Church, its mission, its ministries, and its sacraments

ASSESSMENT
Two 2000 word essays (50% each)

CONTENT
This unit examines foundational issues concerning the nature, purpose, context and practice of religious education in the Catholic Christian tradition. The focus is on Catholic schooling in Australia and is informed by church documents, clarification of current terminology used in regard to religious education, and an explanation of the sources of revelation. Participants are introduced to the history of Catholic schooling in Australia and to the work of contemporary theorists of religious education. While emphasising the importance of Catholic identity and the roles of prayer, ritual, liturgy and social justice in the maintenance of that identity, there is also an exploration of the possibilities of enrichment through interfaith dialogue.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. articulate an understanding of the nuances of meaning in the term “religious education” and of the critical role played by context in the delivery of religious education
2. identify and explain the roles of scripture, tradition and experience in the processes of religious education
3. demonstrate knowledge of the social, political and religious context that gave rise to Catholic schools and of their evolution to the present
4. recognise, explain and assess the possibilities of some contemporary approaches to “religious education”
5. develop and critically evaluate a unit of work in religious education for delivery to a specific group of students
6. identify the roles of prayer, ritual, liturgy and social justice in the maintenance of Catholic identity and the possibilities of enrichment through interfaith dialogue

ASSESSMENT

Lecturer: MICHAEL KELLY CSSR AND G.P. (JOE) FLEMING
This unit has a threefold purpose. Drawing on scripture and Catholic theological tradition, the unit aims to provide a framework for understanding the nature and place of moral decision making in Christian living. It will explore methods and strategies for teaching Christian morality in Catholic schools, and provide opportunities for teachers to integrate their study of the scriptures, tradition and the sacraments into their own faith and professional development. Areas to be studied include the meaning of Christian morality, sources of moral knowledge, human freedom, sin and redemption, conscience formation, meaning and function of Church authority, and a strategy for making moral decisions in accordance with Church teaching.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. identify the process of moral decision making in regard to current ethical questions
2. articulate the Catholic moral tradition on relevant issues
3. discuss current moral issues objectively, critically, and intelligently
4. apply Catholic moral methodology to the making of Christian moral choices
5. critique different perspectives on contemporary moral issues.
6. communicate in an age appropriate manner with students about the importance and relevance for (Christian) living of making (Christian) moral choices.

DR8605Y INTEGRATIVE EXERCISE

DR8605Y
Course: GCTRE unit value 8 points, unscheduled

CONTENT
This unit is taken concurrently with the other units in the GCTRE program. It provides the student with an opportunity for personal appropriation, synthesis and integration of content, skills and formative experiences provided in these units.

COREQUISITES
DR8601Y, DR8602Y, DR8603Y, DR8604Y

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. articulate the personal and professional learning that has occurred
2. discuss the implications for this learning in their delivery of religious education in a Catholic school

ASSESSMENT
Each of the four integrative exercises will require the student to write a 500 word reflection paper (25% each) which will be graded as Pass/Fail. When the four integrative exercises have been successfully completed the student will have earned the final five points required for the award of the Graduate Certificate in Teaching Religious Education.

Content: Siloam Program (Graduate Diploma in Spiritual Direction)

Currently in its 42nd year of operation, and international in scope, the Siloam Formation Program for Spiritual Directors is recognised by the Australian Ecumenical Council for Spiritual Direction (www.spiritualdirection.org.au), as meeting the Council’s guidelines for the formation of spiritual directors. Siloam is committed to the standards for formation and the norms for ethical practice set by AECSD. The guidelines for the practice of spiritual direction are outlined in the documents of AECSD – for example, the nature of the relationship between director and directee, confidentiality, protocols for spiritual direction sessions, ethical practice, and the place, and practice, of supervision. These issues are basic to the Siloam Program.

Siloam is an integrated program, the content of which includes units on Religious Experience and the Christian Spiritual Tradition I & II, Personal Awareness and Human Development I & II, and Spiritual Direction Practicum I & II. Integrated into these units are modules on the contemplative foundation of spiritual direction, the varieties of religious experience, the human experience of God, life stage models of spiritual and human development, spirituality of particular needs, ethics and professional standards in ministry, grace and conversion, the discernment of spirits, ecological spirituality and spiritual direction practice.

The transformative process of integrating one’s ministry as a spiritual director and one’s personal development is facilitated by Siloam’s ongoing emphasis on individual and group supervision and group interaction.

End-of-Year Missioning of Graduates: Monday 23 November 2020
CONTENT
Beginning with students’ spiritual autobiographies, the unit develops an understanding of the nature of religious experience through appreciation and interpretation of their own experience, which includes reflection on images of God and Jesus, both historical and personal. The unit examines the contemplative foundations of spiritual direction through an examination of, and reflection on, Biblical, Patristic, Medieval, Reformation, and Mystical spirituality, and for contrast, the spirituality immanent in East Asian and other religious traditions. The unit also specifies and explores the varieties of religious experience as well as the effect mindfulness and meditation have on human and religious experience, and considers Grace and Conversion and the crucial role these play within the Christian spiritual tradition.
PREREQUISITES: None
LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. demonstrate a critical understanding of the Biblical, theological and spiritual underpinnings of the ministry of spiritual direction
2. discern and describe the varieties of religious experience they encounter in their ministry as spiritual directors
3. understand and explain the role mindfulness and meditation play in religious experience and spiritual direction
4. identify and explore the movement of grace in their personal experience and the experience of those to whom they minister
5. develop a theology of grace on the basis of their experience and be able to elucidate this learning
ASSESSMENT
3000 word Personal reflection on Religious experience; 1500 word Personal reflection on personal Grace; 1500 word Personal reflection on the experience of Conversion
This unit is assessed on a pass/fail basis

DD8702Y RELIGIOUS EXPERIENCE AND THE CHRISTIAN SPIRITUAL TRADITION II

Unit undertaken as full time, 2nd semester: DD8702Y, or part time, 2nd year: DD8712Y

CONTENT
This unit considers the central role Discernment plays in spiritual direction, including the discernment of spirits, and the means of identifying God's Spirit from spirits not of God. The central role examination of conscience plays in the spiritual life and in spiritual direction will also be considered. Drawing on the insights of Christian theology and spirituality, and modern science, the unit explores the deep interconnectedness of all life, and examines the link between Eco-spirituality and spiritual direction.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. understand and articulate the processes of discerning the spirits (towards God and away from God) informed by their own and others' experience, and the wisdom of tradition
2. demonstrate an ability to apply this understanding to the practice of the ministry of spiritual direction
3. demonstrate awareness of theories relating to the interconnectedness of all life and the relevance of ecological spirituality to the contemplative practice of spiritual direction
4. communicate this knowledge, and its implications for humanity and all forms of life, to others in a practical and useful form

ASSESSMENT
3000 word essay on Discernment; 3000 word essay on Eco-spirituality
This unit is assessed on a pass/fail basis

DD8703Y PERSONAL AWARENESS & HUMAN DEVELOPMENT I
Unit undertaken as full time, 1st semester: DD8703Y, or part time, 1st year: DD8713Y

CONTENT
One aspect of the unit examines spiritual development in the context of human development. Several “life stage” models of human development will be examined to elucidate the extensive changes that an individual’s spiritual growth encompasses over a lifetime. The following fundamental human experiences will be explored from the developmental perspective: painful emotions; grief and loss; gender identity and sexuality; love and friendship.

Another aspect of the unit highlights the Spiritual Director’s understanding of, and response to, directees with special needs. It addresses methods for recognising directees who may be undergoing more serious mental health problems, and how to refer them appropriately to professional mental health services. It also addresses cross-cultural factors in spiritual direction, ensuring the culturally and linguistically diverse directee’s cultural framework is respected, and idioms of spiritual expression are understood and valued.

DD8704Y PERSONAL AWARENESS & HUMAN DEVELOPMENT II

Unit undertaken as full time, 2nd semester: DD8704Y, or part time, 2nd year: DD8714Y

CONTENT
The unit examines the human experience of God, incarnation, Kenosis, self-emptying love, God working through personal experience, and consequent approaches to contemplation and contemplative prayer. The unit also examines the influence that the visual and narrative arts, images and imagination have on human and religious experience as well as the roles each of these play in the formation of spiritual directors. The unit addresses professional standards and integrity in ministry linked to students’ experience, guided by reference to Ethical Guidelines for Spiritual Directors such as Integrity in the Service of the Church, Integrity in Ministry, Towards Healing, and the Australian Ecumenical Council for Spiritual Director’s Code of Ethics for Spiritual Directors.

PREREQUISITES: None

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:
1. discuss various ways of expressing the human encounter with God through the utilisation of one’s reading, reflection and personal experience
2. critically evaluate different traditions of spirituality and their methods of proclaiming the sacred immanent in human experience
3. apply the knowledge referred to in 1. and 2. above in the practice of spiritual direction
4. integrate professional standards and ethical guidelines into the practice of spiritual direction
5. engage with those seeking information/direction relating to professional standards and be able to articulate those standards appropriately and professionally

ASSESSMENT
3000 word reflective essay, or one 1500 word reflective essay and one multi-media project equivalent to 1500 words ; 3000 word reflective essay This unit is assessed on a pass/fail basis
