Transforming Faith and Life
Study at Yarra Theological Union
2021 PROSPECTUS
The Yarra Theological Union 2021 Prospectus is intended as an introductory guide to students who may wish to apply to study at the College.

Interested students should first seek an appointment with the Yarra Theological Union Dean to discuss what is the best program of studies to suit their needs.

Students who are ready to enrol may either fill out an application in person at the initial interview, or download a form from the University of Divinity website (divinity.edu.au) and return the completed form with the relevant documentation to the Yarra Theological Union office.

Potential students who wish to find out more about theological education at the University of Divinity, or who would like to discuss their application, are encouraged to contact the Yarra Theological Union Office.

About Yarra Theological Union

Yarra Theological Union (YTU) is a College of the University of Divinity, Australia’s only specialised university.

YARRA THEOLOGICAL UNION IS

- a centre for theological education and ministerial formation for men and women and seminarians, especially religious and lay people;
- a College in the Catholic tradition, under the auspices of eight religious orders;
- open to all who would wish to enrol from any church background;
- a place of hospitality and welcome;
- committed to being a community of scholarship, prayer and pastoral care.

Yarra Theological Union was originally founded in 1971 by the Carmelites, the Franciscans, the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart and the Passionists. Over the years other orders joined: the Redemptorists (Australian and New Zealand Provinces), Pallottines, Dominicans, Divine Word Missionaries, the Discalced Carmelites and the Blessed Sacrament Congregation. Graced by the generosity of the Franciscan Friars YTU is located at St. Paschal Friary.

On 18th January 1973, YTU was granted formal recognition as an institute of priestly formation by the then Archbishop of Melbourne, James Cardinal Knox. In September 1973, YTU, together with the Catholic Theological College in Clayton and the United Faculty of Theology in Parkville, was approved by the University of Divinity (then MCD) as a College with the right to teach for the degree of Bachelor of Theology. This was extended to approving the right to teach towards the postgraduate degrees of Master of Theology and Doctor of Theology in 1975.

Over recent years YTU, together with the other colleges of the University of Divinity (UD), has extended its teaching program to provide postgraduate units for candidates for the degrees of Master of Theological Studies, Graduate Diploma in Theology, Master of Theology (Coursework), Master of Education and Theology, and Doctor of Philosophy.

Building a Healthier Church

YTU aims to contribute to the building up of healthy models of ministry and church life through theological teaching and research.

Carrying forward this aim has two aspects: healthy practice and cultural change. To build a healthy church, we need to promote and resource healthy practice of being church and doing ministry. To build a healthy church also requires us to change and transform the culture of the church, to move away from clericalism to a more participatory and collaborative mode of being church. We believe this renewed way of being church can be found and resourced from within the Catholic tradition.

YTU seeks to progress both these aspects of its project by its formational practices with seminarians, and through workshops and events aimed at the wider church public. It seeks to embed this aim in its curriculum.
Why study theology?

People study theology for all sorts of reasons. Some study theology to train for ministry whether lay or ordained. Some study theology to help clarify where God is calling them to be. Some study theology to gain a deeper personal understanding of their faith, of the scriptures, or of the traditions of the church. For some people, theological study is like study in the liberal arts, providing a training in thinking and argumentation, and in the breadth and depth of Christian culture. All of these are valid reasons to study theology, and this list is not exhaustive!

Theological graduates use their qualifications as preparation for ministry, as further qualifications to enrich careers in teaching, pastoral care, educational leadership, mission, welfare and many other roles within the churches and beyond.

Whatever your reasons for wanting to study theology I encourage you to come and have a chat with us about how YTU can help you achieve your goals in theological studies.

Reverend Dr Ross Fishburn (Academic Dean)

What our students say

I remember the feelings of expectation, excitement and apprehension when I began studying at YTU for my Graduate Certificate in Divinity… The Lecturers were always willing to give assistance when required and provide positive feedback along with highlighting areas where improvement and further development was needed. The St. Paschal Library is such a wonderful resource of both historic books along with the technological expertise for contemporary research and learning. Whether you’re studying for career purposes or you’re on a spiritual quest, the Dean is able to provide guidance and direction in the type of course that best suits your goals.

Cecily

Even though I’m not Catholic, the staff and librarians went out of their way to help me in any way they could, despite my disability. The teaching was brilliant, and the students were so friendly - I’ve made some lifelong friends at YTU.

Amanda

Being at Yarra Theological Union (YTU), I think I am lucky to be here. I find great support from all members of the college, significantly the lectures. They give their energy and time to help me discover not only theology but also spirituality and how to transform them into life. As well, there is a multi-culture in which people are from different backgrounds and nationalities, but we are united as a community. We learn, encourage, share, listen, and support each other in order to grow. So, YTU is a good environment to not only discover theology, spirituality but also experience life and growth.

Duc

When I retired from full time work, I felt a call, to learn more about my faith, and this was why I decided to enrol in a Bachelor of Theology YTU. Most of the religious understandings were based on what I learnt at school, the sermons at a weekend mass and encounters with other Christians. By coming to YTU it has given me a deeper understanding, both spiritually and academically to what my faith means to me.
