About Yarra Theological Union

Yarra Theological Union (YTU) is a College of the University of Divinity.

- A centre for theological education and ministerial formation for men and women and seminarians, especially religious and lay people;
- A College in the Catholic tradition, under the auspices of eight religious orders;
- Open to all who would wish to enrol from any background;
- A place of hospitality and welcome;
- Committed to being a community of scholarship, prayer and pastoral care.

Yarra Theological Union was originally founded in 1971 by the Carmelites, the Franciscans, the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart and the Passionists. Over the years other orders joined: the Redemptorists (Australian and New Zealand Provinces), Pallottines, Dominicans, Divine Word Missionaries, the Discalced Carmelites and the Blessed Sacrament Congregation. Graced by the generosity of the Franciscan Friars YTU is located at St. Paschal Friary.

On 18th January 1973, YTU was granted formal recognition as an institute of priestly formation by the then Archbishop of Melbourne, James Cardinal Knox. In September 1973, YTU, together with the Catholic Theological College in Clayton and the United Faculty of Theology in Parkville, was approved by the University of Divinity (then MCD) as a College with the right to teach for the degree of Bachelor of Theology. This was extended to approving the right to teach towards the postgraduate degrees of Master of Theology and Doctor of Theology in 1975.

Over recent years YTU, together with the other colleges of the University of Divinity (UD), has extended its teaching program to provide postgraduate units for candidates for the degrees of Master of Theological Studies, Graduate Diploma in Theology, Master of Theology (Coursework), Master of Education and Theology, and Doctor of Philosophy.

Why study theology?

People study theology for all sorts of reasons.

Some study theology to train for ministry whether lay or ordained. Some study theology to help clarify where God is calling them to be. Some study theology to gain a deeper personal understanding of their faith, of the scriptures, or of the traditions of the church. For some people, theological study is like study in the liberal arts, providing a training in thinking and argumentation, and in the breadth and depth of Christian culture.

All of these are valid reasons to study theology, and this list is not exhaustive!

Theological graduates use their qualifications as preparation for ministry, as further qualifications to enrich careers in teaching, pastoral care, educational leadership, mission, welfare and many other roles within the churches and beyond.

Whatever your reasons for wanting to study theology I encourage you to come and have a chat with us about how YTU can help you achieve your goals in theological studies.

Professor John McDowell (Academic Dean)

Which course is right for me?

Let's start by looking at two questions:

What entry qualifications do I have?

I finished high school and have the equivalent of the VCE.

Then you can start an undergraduate award such as a Bachelor's degree

I have a university degree.

Then you can take a postgraduate award in theology, even if your degree was in another field.

I didn't finish high school, and don't have the normal university entry qualifications.

Then you need to begin as a provisional student in a Diploma of Theology.

I don't have a degree, but I have a significant level of professional attainment.

If you have a minimum of five years of "relevant work experience or relevant professional attainment" then you can enter the postgraduate stream through a Graduate Certificate in Theology and articulate up to higher awards as you go. This may be especially useful for some professional awards like those in Pastoral Care. Contact the Academic Dean if you would like more information on this pathway.

What is the goal I am seeking in studying theology at YTU?

I want to prepare for ordained ministry in the Catholic Church (or another church).

Then you should start with the Bachelor of Theology degree

I am teacher and I need to be accredited to teach in a Catholic school

The Graduate Certificate in Teaching Religious Education is the course for you

I already have a GCTRE, and I want to equip myself further for my teaching. By deepening my understanding of scripture and theology.

One way would be to take the Master of Education and Theology, which works to integrate your study in education, and your study in theology

Another is to take some more theological units in one of our general awards. Which one will depend on how many you want to do. You could do a Graduate Diploma, or a Bachelor of Theology or a Master of Theological Studies. Talk to the Academic Dean about which one suits you.

I want to qualify to be a pastoral worker in a parish.

Start with the Graduate Diploma in Theology

I want to work in hospital chaplaincy

There are a number of courses you could take like the Graduate Diploma in Pastoral Care, or the Master of Pastoral Care. But the most important thing is to include the unit Clinical Pastoral Education in your program.

I don't know where this is going. All I know is that I want to explore my faith more, and see where that takes me.

Well then, it depends on the first question, about your entry qualification. You might like to start with the shortest course available at that level. Or you might be bold, and start with a longer one. You can usually take a "lower" or shorter option if you have had enough of a longer course.

Now take a look at our various courses. Further details can be found on the YTU website.

UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS

Bachelor of Theology: 24 units; 3 year full time equivalent

This degree gives students opportunity for both breadth and depth in the range of theological disciplines.

Bachelor of Ministry: 24 units; 3 year full time equivalent

This degree is similar to the Bachelor of Theology, but has a greater emphasis on practical and ministry oriented subjects.

Advanced Diploma in Theology and Ministry: 16 units; 2 year full time equivalent

This is a shorter award in which a student undertakes some basic studies in the key disciplines, and extends those in areas of their choice.

Diploma in Theology: 8 units; 1 year full time equivalent

This course is a short award requiring basic study in scripture, theology and church history, together with opportunity to study other units according to choice. It is available as an entry point for those who do not have the usual university entrance requirements.

Undergraduate Certificate in Divinity: 4 units; one semester full time equivalent

This is our shortest undergraduate course. It is any 4 units for which you have the pre-requisites

Upfront Fees: $2047.00 per 18 point unit of study

POSTGRADUATE COURSEWORK PROGRAMS

Many of these awards are available to those who are university graduates in disciplines other than theology. They allow students who have an undergraduate degree to study theology from the beginning, but at postgraduate level, in a way which honours their educational background and skill.

Graduate Certificate in Theology: 3 units; 6 months full time equivalent

This is a short award, which requires a student to take 3 foundational units in different disciplines, giving a basis for further study.

Graduate Diploma in Theology: 6 units; 1 year full time equivalent

This one year equivalent award is a good way to explore the basics of theology and delve deeper in a chosen area or areas.

Master of Theological Studies: 12 units; 2 year full time equivalent

This degree offers a great balance between laying a solid foundation for theological study and allowing a depth of study in chosen areas, without needing to cover the whole curriculum.

Master of Theology (Coursework): 10 units; 1.5 - 2 year full time equivalent

This award is open to theological graduates only, and provides an opportunity to further extend the range of studies already begun in one's primary degree. It is often used by seminarians to complete the range of study required by the church.

Master of Divinity: 18 units; 3 year full time equivalent

This is a postgraduate award somewhat similar in scope to the Bachelor of Theology degree.

Master of Education and Theology: 5-9 units (216 points with up to 108 points of credit –but effectively 96 points available); 1.5-4.5 years part-time

This award is designed for teachers as a coursework Master's degree. It offers a high degree of flexibility in the choice of units, and enables teachers to complement and extend their previous learning in both theology and education.

Upfront Fees: $3172.00 per 24 point unit of study

Can I take units without doing assessment? Yes!

This is called an audit enrolment. No credit for a degree is available for these units. Most units are available for audit enrolment. The cost is $650 per unit. Enquire for more details through the YTU Office. FeeHelp is not available for audit enrolments.

FEE HELP:

Students in any University of Divinity course who are Australian citizens, or hold a permanent humanitarian visa, can have their tuition fees met by a loan from the Commonwealth Government. The scheme – brought in under the Higher Education Support Act (HESA, 2003) – is called the Higher Education Loan Program: FEE–HELP for short (and applied for online as 'eCAF')

For further details of these awards, please consult our web site, www.ytu.edu.au

SPECIALISED PROGRAMS:

Graduate Certificate in Teaching Religious Education (GCTRE)

This is a specialised program designed to provide trained teachers with an introduction to theology and biblical studies for the purpose of gaining accreditation to teach religious education in Catholic schools. Four units are taken over a two year period, with each unit requiring 4 days of class time.

Upfront Fees:

GCTRE units: $2379 per 18 point unit of study

Graduate Diploma in Spiritual Direction

This award is offered through the Siloam program at the Heart of Life Centre for Spiritual and Pastoral Formation. It may be done full time over one year or part time over two years.

RESEARCH AWARDS

Master of Philosophy

This degree consists of a 40,000 word thesis and attendance at 8 hours of postgraduate seminars per annum. 1-1.5 year's full time or 3 years part time (Maximum 4 years)

Doctor of Philosophy

This degree requires a major piece of directed research, usually through a thesis of 100,000 words.

Your rights as a University of Divinity student

As a student of the University of Divinity you have the rights and responsibilities outlined in the University's Code of Conduct. Please read them carefully. You risk suspension or exclusion if you contravene them.

You have the right to privacy.

Yarra Theological Union supports and endorses the National Privacy Principles contained in the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000 and will comply with these principles whenever personal information is collected by us. In accordance with the National Privacy Principles:

- YTU will only collect personal information from you with your prior knowledge and consent
- YTU will only use personal information provided by you for the purposes for which it was collected
- YTU will not disclose your personal information to a third party without your consent
- YTU will not disclose your personal information to other institutions and authorities except if required by law or other regulation
- YTU will remove personal information from its records when it is no longer required (except where archiving is required)
- YTU will have processes and policies to protect the personal information that it has under its control from:
 - o unauthorised access
 - o improper use
 - o alteration
 - o unlawful or accidental destruction and accidental loss

Because YTU students are enrolled in University of Divinity degree and diploma programs, a certain amount of information needs to be exchanged between the YTU office and the Office of the Vice Chancellor, and on occasions other colleges of the University.

You have the right to the highest standards of teaching and learning.

In order to protect the high academic standing of your degree or diploma, all forms of cheating, plagiarism or other academic fraud (including illegitimate use of internet resources) are strictly forbidden, and anyone found engaging in them faces serious consequences. To assist with this, you are required to state on each assignment that it is your own work.

You have the right to be treated fairly in all academic and administrative matters.

If you feel this has not happened, you have rights under the appeals policy to lodge an appeal, or in some cases to lodge a grievance under the grievance policy. These policies, and the procedures which go with them, are available on the University website: <http://www.divinity.edu.au/university-of-divinity/governance/policies-and-procedures>.

You have the right to be safe, and to feel safe, in the university's environments. Harassment in any form – spiritual, sexual or discriminatory (e.g. on the grounds of race, gender, ethnicity, disability, theological outlook) – is wrong, and is not tolerated. There is provision for dealing confidentially, effectively, and justly with any harassment that may occur within YTU.

If you wish to discuss a concern in relation to these matters please contact:

YTU Academic Dean: John McDowell (03) 9890 3771: ext 3

YTU President: Chris Monaghan (03) 9890 3771: ext 2

YTU Chaplain: Jill O'Brien 0429 666 711

Or a Peer contact Officer: Please check YTU website or noticeboard for names and e-mails.

Any of these people will be able to refer you to an appropriate advisor or support person to assist you to explore and resolve your concern.

Finally, once you have commenced a degree or diploma with University of Divinity, you are assured that university educational and financial resources are in place to see you through to its completion. If the highly unlikely situation arises that the university cannot deliver a course for which you have paid fees, these will be refunded, or you can transfer to another provider, nominated for this purpose by the University.
