Study at Yarra Theological Union

2022
PROSPECTUS

We seek to promote and resource the participation of all people in the mission of God,
for the building up of a healthy church and for the transformation of the world.

The Yarra Theological Union 2022
Prospectus is intended as an introductory guide to students who may wish to apply to study at the College.

Interested students should first seek an appointment with the Yarra Theological Union Dean to discuss what is the best program of studies to suit their needs.

Students who are ready to enrol may either fill out an application in person at the initial interview, or download a form from the University of Divinity website (divinity.edu.au) and return the completed form with the relevant documentation to the Yarra Theological Union office.

Potential students who wish to find out more about theological education at the University of Divinity, or who would like to discuss their application, are encouraged to contact the Yarra
Theological Union Office.

About Yarra Theological Union

Yarra Theological Union (YTU) is a College of the University of Divinity

YARRA THEOLOGICAL UNION IS

- A centre for theological education and ministerial formation for men and women and seminarians, especially religious and lay people;
- A College in the Catholic tradition, under the auspices of eight religious orders;
- Open to all who would wish to enrol from any church background;
- A place of hospitality and welcome;
- Committed to being a community of scholarship, prayer and pastoral care.

Yarra Theological Union was originally founded in 1971 by the Carmelites, the Franciscans, the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart and the Passionists. Over the years other orders joined: the Redemptorists (Australian and New Zealand Provinces), Pallottines, Dominicans, Divine Word Missionaries, the Discalced Carmelites and the Blessed Sacrament Congregation. Graced by the generosity of the Franciscan Friars YTU is located at St. Paschal Friary.

On 18th January 1973, YTU was granted formal recognition as an institute of priestly formation by the then Archbishop of Melbourne, James Cardinal Knox. In September 1973, YTU, together with the Catholic Theological College in Clayton and the United Faculty of Theology in Parkville, was approved by the University of Divinity (then MCD) as a College with the right to teach for the degree of Bachelor of Theology. This was extended to approving the right to teach towards the postgraduate degrees of Master of Theology and Doctor of Theology in 1975.

Over recent years YTU, together with the other colleges of the University of Divinity (UD), has extended its teaching program to provide postgraduate units for candidates for the degrees of Master of Theological Studies, Graduate Diploma in Theology, Master of Theology (Coursework), Doctor of Philosophy, and, from 2018 Master of Education and Theology.

Building a Healthier Church

YTU aims to contribute to the building up of healthy models of ministry and church life through theological teaching and research.

Carrying forward this aim has two aspects: healthy practice and cultural change. To build a healthy church, we need to promote and resource healthy practice of being church and doing ministry.

To build a healthy church also requires us to change and transform the culture of the church, to move away from clericalism to a more participatory and collaborative mode of being church. We believe this renewed way of being church can be found and resourced from within the Catholic tradition.

YTU seeks to progress both these aspects of its project by its formational practices with seminarians, and through workshops and events aimed at the wider church public. It seeks to embed this aim in its curriculum.

University policies:
<https://divinity.edu.au/code-of-conduct/>
<https://divinity.edu.au/about/culture-and-integrity/safeguarding/>

In addition to the policies and procedures of the University of Divinity, Yarra Theological Union is committed to the code of conduct "Integrity in Ministry" (2004) that outlines the principles and standards for Catholic Clergy and Religious in Australia and "Integrity in the Service of the Church" (2011) for Lay Workers in the Catholic Church in Australia. Why study theology?

People study theology for all sorts of reasons. Some study theology to train for ministry whether lay or ordained. Some study theology to help clarify where God is calling them to be. Some study theology to gain a deeper personal understanding of their faith, of the scriptures, or of the traditions of the church. For some people, theological study is like study in the liberal arts, providing a training in thinking and argumentation, and in the breadth and depth of Christian culture. All of these are valid reasons to study theology, and this list is not exhaustive!

Theological graduates use their qualifications as preparation for ministry, as further qualifications to enrich careers in teaching, pastoral care, educational leadership, mission, welfare and many other roles within the churches and beyond.

Whatever your reasons for wanting to study theology I encourage you to come and have a chat with us about how YTU can help you achieve your goals in theological studies.

Reverend Dr Ross Fishburn (Academic Dean)

What our students say

Our teacher went to fantastic efforts to make our online unit thoroughly engaging and participatory. We were given excellent learning materials and opportunities to share ideas with each other. Teaching sessions included formal presentations, small breakout groups and open discussion sessions. I really appreciated the efforts made to make the transition to a different style of learning as positive as possible.

Daniel

YTU was my home away from home and work. My life there has furthered my relationship with God.

Jerene

An experience of limitless learning, expansive enough to never get to the end, within beautiful surrounds, and studying with peoples of diverse and interesting cultures. Each lesson is an encounter with God.

Mel

During my time at YTU, I have really appreciated the support and flexibility to be able to find appropriate and engaging units that fit into the schedule of someone who works fulltime. The range of offerings over weekend intensives and evening courses has enabled me to complete a BTheol, interact with the engaging lecturers and a very diverse student body in a supportive environment. Highly recommended!

Rhonda

Which course is right for me?

Let's start by looking at two questions:

1) What entry qualifications do I have?

I finished high school and have the equivalent of the VCE.

Then you can start an undergraduate award such as a bachelor's degree

I have a university degree

Then you can take a postgraduate award in theology, even if your degree was in another field.

I didn't finish high school, and don't have the normal university entry qualifications.

Then you need to begin as a provisional student in a Diploma of Theology.

I don't have a degree, but I have a significant level of professional attainment.

If you have a minimum of five years of "relevant work experience or relevant professional attainment to a standard recognised by the Academic Board" then you can enter the postgraduate stream through a Graduate Certificate in Theology and articulate up to higher awards as you go. This may be especially useful for some professional awards like those in Pastoral Care. Contact the Academic Dean if you would like more information on this pathway.

2) What is the goal I am seeking in studying theology at YTU?

I want to prepare for ordained ministry in the Catholic Church (or another church).

Then you should start with the Bachelor of Theology degree

I am a teacher and I need to be accredited to teach in a Catholic school

The Graduate Certificate in Teaching Religious Education is the course for you

I already have a GCTRE, and I want to equip myself further for my teaching, by deepening my understanding of scripture and theology.

One way would be to take the Master of Education and Theology, which works to integrate your study in education, and your study in theology

Another is to take some more theological units in one of our general awards. Which one will depend on how many you want to do. You could do a Graduate Diploma, or a Bachelor of theology or a Master of Theological Study. Talk to the Academic Dean about which one suits you.

I want to qualify to be a pastoral worker in a parish.

Start with the Graduate Diploma in Theology

I want to work in hospital chaplaincy

There are a number of courses you could take like the Graduate Diploma in Pastoral Care, or the Master of Pastoral Care. But the most important thing is to include the unit Clinical Pastoral Education in your program.

I don't know where this is going. All I know is that I want to explore my faith more, and see where that takes me.

Well then, it depends on the first question, about your entry qualification. You might like to start with the shortest course available at that level. Or you might be bold, and start with a longer one. You can usually take a "lower" or shorter option if you have had enough of a longer course.

Now take a look at our various courses in some more detail.

Entry Level Units at YTU 2022

NN1000Y | Introduction to Tertiary Studies in Theology

[Associate Professor Michael A. Kelly CSsR]

This unit introduces students to the methods and skills needed to begin tertiary level study in theology.

BA1000Y/8000Y | Entering the world of the Old Testament: Survey and Method

[Dr Janina Hiebel]

This unit is an introduction to the Old Testament. It consists of a study of the history and geography of biblical Israel, as well as a survey of the literature of the Old Testament and its formation. It includes an introduction to the contemporary critical methodologies used to explore biblical texts and an application of these to specific texts.

BN1000Y/8000Y | Entering the world of the New Testament

[Dr Francis Otobo]

This unit aims to provide students with a comprehensive overview of the formation, socio-historical setting and literary forms of the New Testament literature. Whilst studying the various books of the New Testament, students will be introduced to contemporary methods of critical biblical interpretation.

CH1003Y/8003Y | A Survey of Early and Medieval Church History (100-1450)

[Dr Matthew Beckmann OFM]

This survey unit gives students a sense of the history of the Christian community since the time of the New Testament to today – and helps them get a sense of the God at work in human activity and institutions. It also introduces students to historical skills like textual criticism, material culture studies and historical research. It is a chance to meet the people and ideas that made Christianity what it is today

CT1003Y/8003Y | Beginning with Jesus

[Dr Ross Fishburn]

This unit introduces the study of theology, its sources and methods, through the study of Christology. It focusses on Jesus Christ, his life and ministry, his death and resurrection, and the subsequent reflection of the Church on his identity.

DM1330Y/8330Y | Introduction to the Theology of Mission

[Fr Albano Da Costa SVD]

The unit will begin with the conceptual clarification of the terms mission and missiology followed by an analysis of the biblical foundations of mission and its historical developments leading to the contemporary issues.

DP1001Y/8001Y | Foundations for Pastoral Practice

[Dr Barry Rogers]

This unit explores concepts of developmental theory and selected theological works linking pastoral theory and pastoral practice. It introduces some theories of psychosocial development across the lifespan, and explores how we reach an understanding of the self within personal, familial, social and cultural contexts.

DS1000Y/8000Y | Foundations for Christian Spirituality

[Dr Robyn Reynolds OLSH et al]

The unit addresses understandings of spirituality and various approaches to its study (e.g. (i) historical, (ii) theological and (iii) anthropological). Traditional Christian spiritualities, both apostolic and mystical are examined, as well as other selected spiritualities, including indigenous and eco-spiritualities. The unit invites students to relate the study of spirituality to their own personal contexts.

DT1000Y/8000Y | Introduction to Moral Theology: The God I believe in is the God I respond to

[Dr Brendan Connell CP]

Taking its direction from Scripture, Church Tradition and principles of Catholic Social Teaching, this unit explores the essential components for understanding and appreciating Moral Theology as a challenge to a more authentic discipleship. Drawing from aspects of Theology, Philosophy, Church History, Pastoral Ministry, Spirituality and Church Law, the unit explores what has, and continues to, contribute to a Catholic understanding of moral living. Particular emphasis will be given to how the Catholic/Christian tradition understands the relationship between morality and discipleship. The unit seeks to examine how our understanding of discipleship offers a framework for making responsible moral choices as a Christian in the context of everyday life.

AP1/8000Y Philosophy for Beginners

[Prof John McDowell]

Why think, and what difference does it make to the shaping of living? Is there a common good, and if so what can we know about it? Are we free, determined, or something more complex? On what lines should society be politically organised? What is the logic of a good argument? Is it reasonable to believe in the existence of God? What justification do claims to 'religious experience' have as public arguments for the existence of God? What can be reasonably claimed about the miraculous? In addressing some of the most significant issues in the history of Western philosophy, students will be introduced to many of the most significant writings and thinkers within the study of the philosophical traditions.

Libraries

The University of Divinity (UD) Library Hub: www.divinity.edu.au/library provides access to an extensive range of online resources, the combined catalogue and a wealth of other library-related information.

The Libraries Brochure provides further information about all available libraries including arrangements for reciprocal borrowing arrangements with the University of Melbourne: <https://library.divinity.edu.au/libraries.html>

All members of the University are entitled to receive a University ID Card which conveys entitlement to access the University's Library Hub, to visit and borrow from all libraries affiliated with the University.

Please note that your card and contact details need to be added to each individual library's management system. This will generally have already been done for you at the primary library associated with your home institution. If you wish to access any others library collections, please remember to register at each additional library before you borrow for the first time.

Any enquiries about University-wide library resources and services can be emailed to library@divinity.edu.au

The principal YTU campus library is St Paschal Library, located underneath the main friary chapel building. It is the Provincial library of the Franciscans and also houses the YTU library collection. The St Paschal Library collection includes specialist resource in Franciscan studies, patristic and medieval studies, ancient languages, contemporary theology and art history.

The collections within the libraries of the Carmelites, the Redemptorists and the Divine Word Missionaries (SVD) further widen the range of available resources.

The Carmelite Library in Middle Park has a special strength in spirituality <http://carmelitelibrary.org/>

The Redemptorist Library has a dedicated Social Justice Collection housed in the YTU Study Centre <https://ytu-rsl.catalyst-koha.com.au/>, as well as a library in Kew. Many of the SVD missiology books are housed in St Paschal Library for easy accessibility. The Divine Word Missionaries' Patrick Murphy Memorial Library is located at Dorish Maru College: <https://ytu-dwml.catalyst-koha.com.au/>

Early in each academic year the librarians at St Paschal Library conduct introduction sessions to that library and to the services offered through the UD Library Hub.,

Further details are available on the St Paschal Library website <http://vspc-franciscan.org.au/>, and on the YTU website <https://ytu.edu.au/>.
