◆ Week 4

◆ 18 March 2024

Hi Everyone,

Welcome to 4th week. We keep praying for the eternal rest of Fr. Anthony J. Kelly CSsR. This week we have a comment for altar decoration in Lenten season, the poem “Down” by Krisna and a reminder for registration for the social volleyball tournament.

Enjoy your reading!

This is one of the beautiful images of the decoration during the Lenten Season. The simplicity of the decoration with the simple ornament always brings a fresh sense of the Lenten Season. The simple decorations on the Altar teach us to be simple, focus on Jesus, and be gentle with others.

Down

Let the time greet your day

Touch your soul and your way

God wants it to play on the day you are sad

Take your time to share with God

Now and Tomorrow before sunset

Do not be afraid day is ending since

God no go away

God my heart is broken

I can't do the proper way

I was lost in the dark side

Come, help, and bring me up

Krisna Papalesa, SVD
