

SRC NEWSLETTER

◆ Week 6

◆ 2 September 2024

Editorial Note:

Dear Friends,

This week we have a poem 'A song for me', a reminder of YTU's Spring Fashion line and update for Cultural Night.

Enjoy Reading!

YTU SPRING FASHION

For Sale

YTU branded hoodies, polo shirts and caps!

Scan the QR code to see the full range and place your order

(All proceeds from sales will fund YTU student activities)

Hi everyone, just a quick reminder for the YTU's Spring Fashion order. Please put it into order. You can click the QR Code below.

Cultural Night 2024

- Date: Friday, 20th September 2024
- Time: 6:00 pm
- Place: YTU Study Center
- For more information please scan QR code.

A Song for Me

by Lenore Hetrick

September doesn't sing to me
A song of golden sheaves,
Or bright red sunsets on the hill,
Or dancing maple leaves.

September sings to me a song
Of lessons in a book.
I turn my back on scarlet leaves
With not a backward look.

September doesn't sing to me
A summons to the wood,
Nor does her song remind me that
The orchard fruit is good.

September sings to me a song
Of lessons I must learn.
Vacation days are over and
To new fields I must turn.

