About Yarra Theological Union

Yarra Theological Union (YTU) is a College of the University of Divinity, Australia's only specialised university.

YARRA THEOLOGICAL UNION IS

- a centre for theological education and ministerial formation for men and women and seminarians, especially religious and lay people;
- a College in the Catholic tradition, under the auspices of eight religious orders;
- open to all who would wish to enrol from any church background;
- a place of hospitality and welcome;
- committed to being a community of scholarship, prayer and pastoral care.

Yarra Theological Union was originally founded in 1971 by the Carmelites, the Franciscans, the Missionaries of the Sacred Heart and the Passionists. Over the years other orders joined: the Redemptorists (Australian and New Zealand Provinces), Pallottines, Dominicans, Divine Word Missionaries, the Discalced Carmelites and the Blessed Sacrament Congregation. Graced by the generosity of the Franciscan Friars YTU is located at St. Paschal Friary.

On 18th January 1973, YTU was granted formal recognition as an institute of priestly formation by the then Archbishop of Melbourne, James Cardinal Knox. In September 1973, YTU, together with the Catholic Theological College in Clayton and the United Faculty of Theology in Parkville, was approved by the University of Divinity (then MCD) as a College with the right to teach for the degree of Bachelor of Theology. This was extended to approving the right to teach towards the postgraduate degrees of Master of Theology and Doctor of Theology in 1975.

Over recent years YTU, together with the other colleges of the University of Divinity (UD), has extended its teaching program to provide postgraduate units for candidates for the degrees of Master of Theological Studies, Graduate Diploma in Theology, Master of Theology (Coursework), Doctor of Philosophy, and, from 2018 Master of Education and Theology.

Building a Healthier Church

YTU aims to contribute to the building up of healthy models of ministry and church life through theological teaching and research.

Carrying forward this aim has two aspects: healthy practice and cultural change. To build a healthy church, we need to promote and resource healthy practice of being church and doing ministry. To build a healthy church also requires us to change and transform the culture of the church, to move away from clericalism to a more participatory and collaborative mode of being church. We believe this renewed way of being church can be found and resourced from within the Catholic tradition.

YTU seeks to progress both these aspects of its project by its formational practices with seminarians, and through workshops and events aimed at the wider church public. It seeks to embed this aim in its curriculum.
People study theology for all sorts of reasons. Some study theology to train for ministry whether lay or ordained. Some study theology to help clarify where God is calling them to be. Some study theology to gain a deeper personal understanding of their faith, of the scriptures, or of the traditions of the church. For some people, theological study is like study in the liberal arts, providing a training in thinking and argumentation, and in the breadth and depth of Christian culture. All of these are valid reasons to study theology, and this list is not exhaustive!

Theological graduates use their qualifications as preparation for ministry, as further qualifications to enrich careers in teaching, pastoral care, educational leadership, mission, welfare and many other roles within the churches and beyond.

Whatever your reasons for wanting to study theology I encourage you to come and have a chat with us about how YTU can help you achieve your goals in theological studies.

Reverend Dr Ross Fishburn (Academic Dean)

“YTU is a supportive and loving community that's enabled so many people to deepen their understanding of who God is, both in their lives and in the wider world. The sense of “community” amongst the students, faculty and admin is something that makes this beautiful college unique, and inviting. It really is a family, walking together towards God.”

Luke Bulley

“I have been a student of YTU and the University of Divinity for the last six years. The experience has been rewarding beyond measure. The calibre of the teachers is very high and the atmosphere is friendly; I have made wonderful friendships. There is great flexibility as to whether to study in the evenings, during the day or in intensive mode. This was particularly helpful to me as I have needed to juggle work and caring responsibilities with my studies. What I have learnt in the course of my theological studies is invaluable. It has enriched me both personally and professionally.”

Tiziana D’Costa

“After twenty years of teaching and not being a student myself, I returned to the world of further studies. The staff at YTU have been amazing in guiding me and delivering a quality education. The four years I have so far spent at the campus have absolutely flown and I am so grateful for everything I have learnt.”

Allison Nally

“An experience of limitless learning, expansive enough to never get to the end, within beautiful surrounds, and studying with peoples of diverse and interesting cultures. Each lesson is an encounter with God.”

All members of the University are entitled to receive a University ID Card which conveys entitlement to access the University’s Library Hub, to visit and borrow from all libraries affiliated with the University. Please note that your card and contact details need to be added to each individual library's management system. This will generally have already been done for you at the primary library associated with your home institution. If you wish to access any other library collections, please remember to register at each additional library before you borrow for the first time.

You are however advised to check your entitlements at Dalton McCaughey Library https://pydio.calyx.net.au/data/public/dmlmembership. Any enquiries about University-wide library resources and services can be emailed to library@divinity.edu.au

The principal YTU campus library is St Paschal Library, located underneath the main friary chapel building. It is the provincial library of the Franciscans and also houses the YTU library collection. The St Paschal Library collection includes specialist resources in Franciscan studies, patristic and medieval studies, ancient languages, contemporary theology and art history.

The Redemptorist Library has a dedicated Social Justice Collection housed in the YTU Study Centre https://ytu-rsl.calyx.net.au/, as well as a library in Kew. Many of the SVD missiology books are housed in St Paschal Library for easy accessibility https://ytu-dwml.calyx.net.au/
The SVD and Redemptorist libraries may be used in person by YTU students, by appointment. Contact information: https://ytu-rsl.calyx.net.au/ and https://ytu-dwml.calyx.net.au/

Early in each academic year the librarians at St Paschal Library conduct introduction sessions to that library and to the services offered through the UD Library Hub.
